MANY BURN TO DEATH IN COAL MINE

Terrific Explosion Entombs Men in Lower Level

185 Out of 308 Workers Are Taken Out Alive

MURPHYSBORO, Ills., Oct. 27.—One hundred and fifty persons had been taken alive from the Royalton Mine at noon. Eighty-five of those injured had been overcome by gas. Two of these died at the top of the mine.

The rescuers are making few attempts to carry the dead from the mines, as they are using all their time in the attempt to rescue the living.

It now is stated that 308 men entered the mine shortly before the explosion occurred.

TRAPPED BELOW SURFACE.

ROYALTON, Ill., Oct. 27.—One hundred or more miners were probably burned to death in the Mitchell coal mine near here today when a terrific explosion occurred in the lower level soon after 308 men had begun work.

Of those who entered the mine about 100 escaped, but thirty bodies soon were brought to the surface and more than 165 other men were known still to be imprisoned in a lower level cut off from rescue by fire.

Because of the fire attempts of rescuers to enter the shaft were impossible and it was thought all of those shut off by the wall of flames in the interior were burned to death.

Royalton, a mining village, 86 miles southeast of St. Louis, on the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad, was deserted save for a woman telephone operator soon after the report of the explosion came from the mine about a mile away. The villagers all had gone to help the men out of the burning mine.

The operator sent out distress calls to surrounding towns and help was soon on the way from Duquoin, Murphysboro and Benton. A rescue car was sent from Benton.

SLIGHT HOPE FOR MEN.

The explosion occurred in the northwest tourney of the mine, in which from 150 to 300 men were working. Men in the southern part of the mine heard the explosion and hurried to the cages that took them to the surface. This part of the mine was separated from that section

REPUBLICANS HOLD ALAMEDA COUNTY BY FOUR THOUSAND

There are 4232 more Republicans registered in Alameda county than there are Progressives, according to figures compiled today by County Clerk Cook. The total number eligible to vote at the general election next Tuesday is 122,604, including men and women, the largest registration in the history of the county.

The number of men registered in all parties is 67,402. There are 55,204 women on the great register. Registration in the other parties shows: Democrat, 12,518; Socialist, 5,707; Prohibition, 1,058 and non-Partisan, 5,305.

After working day and night the last week, the deputies in the County Clerk's office have about completed the task of mailing sample ballots, copies of the proposed constitutional amendments and initiative measures and voting numbers to the electorate.

It is estimated that the mailing list will be filled before tomorrow night, the statutory time limit. The cost to Alameda county in postage alone for handling the heavy pamphlets containing the amendments is aproximately $5000. Each piece costs 4 cents to carry it through the mails.

ATTEMPT TO MURDER VILLA

Assassin Makes Confession to American Consul

Agent Supposed to Be Commissioned by Carranza Supporter

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 27.—An attempt has been made to assassinate Francisco Villa by an agent said to have been commissioned and paid by General Pablo Gonzales, General Carranza's staunch supporter, said a message sent the Associated Press today by Luis Aguirre Benavides, General Villa's first secretary. The would-be assassin, Francisco L. Mugia, was executed after making a confession before George C. Carothers, the American consular agent.

The accusation caused much excitement. The telegram from Villa's secretary said Mugia was apprehended at Guadalupe, where Villa with his troops has been awaiting the outcome of the conference. The official report stated that the prisoner, just prior to his execution, had told the Villa officials in the presence of Carothers that he had been paid a large sum of money by General Gonzales at Mexico City. In his possession was found incriminating evidence and a loaded pistol.

Belgians to Convoke Parliament at Havre

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 4:40 p. m.—Telegrams from Berlin state, according to a dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Amsterdam that the report about convoking the Belgian Parliament by the German administration in Belgium is a pure invention and that all attempts to connect Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg's visit to Brussels therewith are unfounded.

The Belgian government intends, it is reported, to convoke at Havre both chambers and to open the session of parliament as usual on the second Tuesday in November. Numerous deputies and senators followed the flight of the Belgian ministry from Antwerp to Havre.

Demand Big Ransom; Threaten Dynamiting

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A message from Paris to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that the Germans have seized the Prince of Monaco Chateau de Marchais near Rheims and declare that they will blow it up unless the Prince immediately pays a ransom of half a million dollars. The Prince has addressed an appeal in the case to the neutral countries.

Von Beseler, Conquerer of Antwerp, Is Dead

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 5:30 p. m.—A dispatch to the Evening News from Rotterdam says that General Von Beseler, the conqueror of Antwerp, is dead. It is said, the newspaper adds, that he shot himself Thursday in his room at Bruges.

May File Claims for Neutral Cargoes Lost

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—To informal inquiries made today of the State Department as to its attitude toward claims of cargoes of neutral goods lost when belligerent ships were sunk, Acting Secretary Lansing indicated that American shippers might file claims and would be supported by the American government.

FIRE, QUAKE AND SHELL RAZE CITY

Servian City Devastated by Bombardment; Looted

250 Buildings in Shabatz Destroyed in Disaster

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 5:15 a. m.—A dispatch to the Times from Shabatz, Servia, says:

"This city presents a desolate spectacle. Two hundred and fifty of its buildings were destroyed by bombardment. This was followed by fire, doing more damage, and then came an earthquake, shaking the city so severely that the houses which remain are almost falling to pieces.

"Finally the deserted town was visited by a band of thieves, who looted every house from cellar to roof. The contents of the shops were thrown into the streets, all safes were opened in a professional manner and the contents of houses smashed, the pictures were slashed and the furniture was splintered in an orgy of destruction.

"Before the Austrians left they destroyed the principal church. Large numbers of Serb hostages, including the prominent residents, were taken to Austria as prisoners. Hundreds of the local populace who were killed by bayonet thrusts for various alleged misdeeds were buried by the Austrians in the local church yard.

"The senseless bombardment still continues, although the town is deserted except for the sentries. On Thursday the Serbs succeeded in laying mines which sank an Austrian monitor."

Shabatz is an active trading town of Servia, located on the Save river, forty miles west of Belgrade. It had a population of about 15,000.

France Returning to Normal, Financially

By Associated Press.

BORDEAUX, Oct. 27, 5:20 p. m.—President Poincare today signed a decree modifying the moratorium proclaimed on August 21 and providing for a gradual return to normal financial conditions.

Bank depositors will be allowed to draw 1000 francs ($200) plus 40 per cent of the balance in November and this percentage will be increased to 50 per cent in December. The collection of commercial debts except those of mobilized soldiers may be prosecuted after December 1st in case the debtor invokes the moratorium in bad faith.

Antwerp Firms to Ask England for $46,000,000

By Associated Press.

BERLIN (By Wireless), Oct. 27.—According to reports received here from Antwerp fifty firms of that city will present to the British government claims for compensation for the destruction of goods after the evacuation of that city was determined upon. These claims amount to 230,000,000 francs ($46,000,000) and will be presented through Brand Whitlock, the American minister to Belgium. The foregoing information was made public in Berlin today through official channels.

Former King Manuel Still Willing to Fight

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 5:30 p. m.—Failing the acceptance of the proffer of his services by King George for the war against Germany, Manuel, former king of Portugal, has now offered the government of the Republic of Portugal to serve with the Portuguese contingent if that country decides to join the allies.

ENGLISH FLEET DRAWS AWAY FROM HEAVY FIRE OF TEUTON ARTILLERY

By Associated Press.

BERLIN (by wireless), Oct. 27.—Reports received here today from Rotterdam set forth that the British warship struck by German artillery fire off the coast of Belgium broke into flames.

REPORT ALLIES ADVANCE.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 3:50 p. m.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Paris, summarizing the situation in France, says:

"Again today there is no marked change to report in the general situation, though the impression remains favorable, and it is stated that the allies have advanced slightly between Ypres and Roulers and at Soissons.

"In the Nancy district the enemy has been driven back beyond the frontier."

FORCE GERMANS ACROSS BORDER.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 27, 2:44 p. m.—The French official announcement given out this afternoon says that spirited fighting continues between the mouth of the Yser and Lens; that in this district the allies have not drawn back, and that they have continued to advance in the region between Ypres and Roulers and elsewhere. The text follows:

"The fighting continues to be particularly spirited between the mouth of the Yser and the region of Lens. In this part of the front the allied forces have at no point drawn back and they have continued to make progress in the region between Ypres and Roulers.

"In the general region between Soissons and Bery-au-Bac an artillery engagement resulted in our advantage and resulted in the destruction of several batteries of the enemy.

"In the region to the east of Nancy, between the forest of Bezange and the forest of Parroy, we have assumed the offensive and have driven the enemy across the frontier.

"Russia—On the river San and to the south of Przemysl the Russian offensive is becoming more accentuated."

CONFLICT IS DEADLY.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 10:30 a. m.—The battle of the road to Calais still was undecided today. The territory west of the Yser, crossing of which cost the German army more men, compared with the area of hostilities, than any other single engagement in the war, continues to be the scene of deadliest conflict, and although it is said the flow of German reinforcements seems to be

TO-DAYS WAR DEVELOPMENTS

By Associated Press.

The unyielding German line, which for six weeks has been stretched across France, is said by the French war office to have been broken at last. Near the eastern end of the line, in the region beyond Nancy, today's French official statement reports the invaders have been driven back onto German soil. At other points over the long line the offensive has been resumed by the allied forces after a long period of comparative inaction.

The French claim to have won the advantage in an engagement at the point where the line sweeps eastward, less than sixty miles from Paris. Between Soissons and Berry-Au-Bac to the east of the head in the line, heavy fighting has been resumed. Apparently the engagement was limited to an artillery duel, the entrenched positions of the opposing forces forbidding the use of infantry.

To the northward along the Franco-Belgian border, the fighting continues with undiminished ferocity. Along the Yser, where the struggle had been most intense, the allies have not drawn back, says the French official statement, while toward the south further progress has been made between Ypres and Roulers.

As reports filter in from the scene of fighting along the North Sea, supplementing the unemotional official statements, it became evident today that the recent battles along the shore of the North Sea have been the most terrible of the war. From Emperor William himself, it is said, came the order that the German advance down the coast must be continued at any cost and that Calais must be taken. The desperate assaults which followed, particularly along the Yser canal, have few precedents in modern military history.

British newspaper correspondents estimate that some 3000 Germans succeeded in forcing their way across the canal. They did it at a frightful cost. Into a hailstorm of shrapnel and shot the Germans charged night after night only to be shot down by the thousands until the canal was clogged at points with their bodies. Those who succeeded in forcing their way across came to death grips with their waiting adversaries and with rifle shot and bayonet the struggle went on. Of the Germans who crossed the Yser, according to British reports, few escaped alive.

All reports agree that the fighting in the east continues without decisive result. The French official statement says that on the River San and south of Przemysl the Russian offensive is becoming "more accentuated."

Latest official Austrian communications state that the main Russian army is being engaged and that minor successes have been won by the Germans and Austrians. From Petrograd no report had come up to early afternoon.

From Vienna claim is made that the Servians have been driven back to Vishnegrad and that Eastern Bosnia is cleared of the enemy.

Although impossible to make even a rough estimate of the sacrifices in men entailed by the war, all indications point to an enormous total of dead and wounded. Berlin sends a report that the French have 400,000 men wounded and incapacitated through illness. Rome relates that what are styled official reports place the German average of casualties at 10,000 daily.

COMMERCE BODIES WILL MERGE

Commercial Club and Chamber of Commerce to Unite Resources

Consolidation with the Oakland Commercial Club was decided upon by unanimous vote of the board of directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce this morning.

The resolution adopted places the board on record as deciding to effect a consolidation as soon as satisfactory terms between the two organizations can be reached. A committee to wait on the Commercial Club officers and draw up the agreement was appointed by President Jonas, to consist of H. C. Capwell, chairman, W. E. Gibson, George W. Hatch, F. A. Briggs and Curtis Wright Jr. This committee represents the board of directors, Progress and Prosperity Committee and Manufacturers' Committee.

The agreement, as tentatively arranged already in unofficial sessions, provides for consolidation under the name "Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club, Consolidated." The present quarters of the chamber will be used as business headquarters of the new organization and the clubrooms in the Hotel Oakland as the social adjunct of the organization.

The Commercial Club's funds will be placed against the liabilities of the chamber. The entire project will be adjusted and the agreement in detail threshed out by the committees, following which the matter will be placed before the membership for a vote. It is estimated that thirty days will see all arrangements completed.

That the Chamber of Commerce is without end, they apparently have made no noteworthy advance since gaining this river.

The left wing of the allies has been reinforced, an act which may be due in part to efforts to offset the constant tide of fresh German troops and in part to make good the decreased activity of the British fleet which, according to German advices, has been forced to withdraw further from the coast because of the German artillery.

No German ships aside from submarines have been reported in this vicinity. The tone of all articles in the London press seems to be that the appearance of German warships would be welcomed as presaging that sea battle for which the Britons long have been hoping.

Germany has a number of small cruisers at Wilhelmshaven, together with a detachment of destroyers, and the sudden appearance of some of these ships would be no surprise.

Dispatches reaching London say Emperor William has demanded unequivocally that Calais be taken and a telegram received today quoting the Saxon Gazette gives what purports to be an ambitious plan of German invasion once the north coast of France is in their hands.

TOWNS IN RUINS.

The towns of West Flanders, over and through which the battle for the coast has been waging, are in ruins. The canals are choked with dead and the country side is scarred as if by an earthquake.

That the Germans have not been alone in heavy losses is attested by a dispatch declaring that the Belgians lost 10,000 men when they were driven from the banks of the Yser.

The biggest of the German guns are now reported to be at Bruges. They apparently are yet to be brought into action and some of the most terrible stages of the conflict remain to be decided.

There has been notable change along the battle line in France proper, although the Germans claim that the fate of Verdun will be sealed promptly, as soon as their powerful guns get into action.

PREPARE FOR WINTER STAY.

From near Rheims has come a dispatch dwelling upon the local indications that the Germans are preparing to hold their position in that part of the Aisne all winter.

Most of the claims from the eastern arena of the war continue to give the upper hand to the Russians, although the Germans are rallying and seeking to stem the Russian onrush.

It seems to be officially confirmed that Italy has landed forces in Albania and that Greeks also are making their way into this territory.

Germans Most Furious Attack at Ypres; Quarter Million Held by Allies

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 5:40 a. m.—Telegraphing about the fighting in Belgium the correspondent of the Times in Northern France says:

"The enemy's most furious attack along the line of Yser was at Ypres, where a quarter of a million of Germans for five critical days were held back by the British force.

"The artillery fire against the Britishers in the trenches was terrible, churning up the earth and often burying the men by the dozens. Repeatedly the enemy's infantry advanced to within a few hundred yards, but every time our men leaped from the trenches and went at them with the bayonet. The Germans fled, firing their rifles over their shoulders as they ran.

"Many hundreds were captured and thousands were killed and wounded.

"Still their shrapnel rained into the British trenches and fresh infantry took the places of Germans who had been decimated.

"The situation grew more and more critical and it seemed that the British were likely to be borne down by sheer weight of numbers. Still they held on. Friday came at last and with it needed reinforcements. The position was saved and the Germans fell back fifteen miles."

Ostend Overflowing With Wounded and Roulers Like Shambles

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Telegraphing from Flushing under date of Sunday, the Daily Mail's correspondent says:

"The general opinion is that the allies will soon be in Ostend again. Ostend like Bruges and Ghent is overflowing with wounded and Antwerp itself is now filling up. This unceasing flow of wounded men is calculated to destroy the morale of the German troops in Ostend.

"Reports from all sides tell of terrific carnage around about Roulers, where the dead are lying in heaps. On the sea front the naval shells worked havoc. Carts come and go all day long with wounded. Large farm wagons with their sloping sides are packed with masses of wounded and dying men."

Seven Onslaughts of Germans Are Repulsed in One Night by Allies

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Daily Mail's correspondent near the Yser river, under date of Sunday, dilating on the ferocity of the German attempts to get across the river, says:

"In one night, Friday, between midnight and dawn, seven different onslaughts were repulsed. Swarms of Germans rushed up with newly made bridges of wood. They were dropped across the canal and notwithstanding the deadly fire from rifles and mitrailleuses and the Germans burst across. There was no stopping them.

"This sort of thing has happened day after day, but in the daylight that followed, each night these marauders were hunted down and mowed down. Great batches were killed, crowds were taken prisoners, but that mattered nothing. The next night was sure to bring along more attacks of the same kind.

"The bloodiness and fierceness of the fighting is evident from the number of men on both sides suffering from bayonet wounds. The geographical position of the right does not alter much, but the Belgians are putting in an immense amount of work.

"The German reinforcements seem never to cease. They come fresh to the attack day after day and trains and trains of wounded have been taken away, but the German force remains more numerous than ever. They seem ready to put every man here rather than give way. Their determination and force must not be underestimated."

Steamer Brindilla Released by British

By Associated Press.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 27.—The Standard Oil steamer Brindilla, flying the American flag, whose seizure by the British cruiser Caronia was made the occasion of a protest by the United States to Great Britain and a demand for the steamer's immediate release, was formally released by the Canadian authorities here today.

After certain necessary repairs are made to the Brindilla's engines and she takes on a supply of coal, she will resume her interrupted voyage to Alexandria. It is estimated that she will remain here for several days yet.

No Interference With Supplies for Belgians

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Ambassador Page and the Spanish minister in London have been assured by the German military commander in Belgium that there will be no German interference with foodstuffs and supplies sent for the relief of the war-stricken inhabitants.

Ambassador Page said all supplies should be sent in care of either the American or Spanish diplomatic officers in London. He said money would be useless and emphasized that actual foodstuffs should be sent.

British Steamer Hits Mine; Sinks

By Associated Press.

BELFAST, Ireland, Oct. 27, via London, 5:30 p. m.—The British freight steamer Manchester Commerce, bound from Manchester for Montreal, struck a mine at midnight last night and sank. Captain Payne and thirteen men were drowned. Thirty other members of the crew were saved by a trawler.

MINISTER OF WAR IS TEMPORARILY IN VON MOLTKE'S PLACE

BERLIN, Oct. 26, via Sayville, Oct. 27.—Information given out in official quarters today follows: "General von Moltke, chief of the German General Staff, is suffering from a liver complaint. His illness, however, gives no cause for anxiety. General von Falkenhayne, minister of war, has temporarily taken the place of General Von Moltke.

"Lieut. Weddigen, the famous commander of the German submarine U-9, which sunk the British cruisers Aboukir, Hogue, Cressy and Hawke, has been decorated with the Order Pour Le Merite.

Statements published in Italian newspapers to the effect that officers of the German general staff have visited the Trente district in Austria with the view of arranging for the movement of troops and war materials from Germany to attack Italy on account of her neutrality have been officially denied in Berlin and characterized as absolute inventions.

"Reports from Madrid say that the French have had over 400,000 men wounded and incapacitated on account of illness.

"Russia is planning the compulsory expropriation of the property of Germans and Austriass, who reside in great numbers in the twenty-four frontier provinces."

MAIN RUSSIAN ARMY IN BATTLE

Austrian Offensive Compels Czar's Commander to Send Reinforcements.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Monday, Oct. 26, by wireless to Sayville, Oct. 27.—An official Austrian war bulletin given out in Berlin today says that combined Austrian and German forces hold strong positions in the long and almost continuous battle line from Stry and Sambor, in Galicia, thence to a point east of Przemysl and along the San river in a straight line to Plozk, in Russian Poland.

The main Russian army is being engaged. The Austrian offensive beyond the Carpathians has compelled the Russians to send reinforcements into this territory.

The battle still is raging in Central Galicia. Austrian troops have been successful on the lower San river to the southeast of Przemysl.

CAPTURE 8000 RUSSIANS.

VIENNA, via Rotterdam and London, Oct. 27, 11:45 a. m.—An official communication given out here today says: "In the fighting before Ivangorod we have up to the present time captured 8000 Russians and 19 machine guns.

"Near Jaroslau a Russian colonel and 200 soldiers were forced to surrender.

"Near Zalucze and in the vicinity of Pasiecna the enemy has been driven back. The situation generally is unchanged.

(Signed) "GEN. VON HOEFER."

EPIDEMIC HITS DEFENDERS.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 27, 1:40 p. m.—The Russian bombardment of the Przemysl fortress, says a dispatch to the Havas News Agency from Petrograd, continues during the night, aided by strong searchlights. Deserters say many of the fort's defenders are succumbing to epidemic and that the medicines and provisoons virtually are exhausted. All the men of the garrison are obliged to work continually on the fortifications, which the Russians are said to be fast destroying.

NO "FINAL DECISION."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.— The The German embassy announced the receipt of an official wireless from Berlin saying:

"In the eastern theater of war our offensive against Augustowo is progressing well, and near Ivangorod the fighting is favorable, but with no final decision yet."

In regard to the situation around the Yser canal, the report said the same as last night's official statement from Berlin.

GERMANS TAKEN FROM U. S. TUG

British Regiment Detail Boards Craft; Men Held at Armory.

By Associated Press.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 27.—The American tug Security, owned by the Standard Oil Company, was boarded yesterday afternoon by a detail of eight men from the Sixty-second Regiment and four of her crew were removed. One a naturalized citizen, was released. The other three, all Germans, were detained.

The tug was lying at anchor in the harbor when she was boarded.

After arrest the four members of the crew were taken to the armory for examination. They were arrested on the grounds that they were subjects of a nation with which Great Britain is now at war. The tug's papers showed that three of the four men had signed as subjects of Germany.

Pending instructions from the military divisional headquarters at Halifax, the three Germans were still under detention here at noon today.

REMOVAL RIGHT CONCEDED.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The right of British authorities to remove German subjects from netural ships in British harbors already has been conceded by the United States. It is not expected here that any protest will be made against the action of the authorities at St. John.

Greek Troops Seize Albanian Villages

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 10:59 a. m.—According to a message reaching Rome from Avalona, Albania, telegraphs the Rome correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, 600 regular Greek soldiers with one battery of artillery has arrived at Vasiri and attacked the Muzzleman position at Gheshi forcing them to retreat. The Greeks then started for Kercovo.

Advices from the interior declare Greek Epirotes have bombarded, burned and occupied the villages of Scialisi, Busi, Tepeleni, Rubzi and Premedi, in Albania, not far from the Grecian frontier.

TO REOCCUPY EPIRUS.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 1:40 p. m.—The Greek diplomatic representatives at the capitals of the great powers have given official notice of the decision of the Hellenic government to reoccupy Epirus, from which the Greek army was withdrawn in March in pursuance of the decision reached at the Ambassador's conference fixing the status of that country.

Greece claims this decision is based upon the necessity of reestablishing order and security in a country adjacent to her territory now riddled with anarchy, but at the same time she declares that this reoccupation is a purely provisional measure and that she has no intention of intervening in the Avalona district.

$800,000,000 REFILL WAR TREASURY

German Loan Paid in Far Exceeds Amount Required; Specie Galore.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN (via wireless), Oct. 27.—Information given out in official quarters in Berlin today is as follows:

"A total of 3,200,000,000 marks ($800,000,000) has been paid in on the German war loan, although the loan itself was for only 2,699,000,000 marks ($650,000,000). The latest returns of the Imperial Bank show specie to the amount of 1,828,000,000 marks ($457,000,000), an increase of 27,000,000 marks ($6,750,000).

"Notes in circulation show a decrease of $4,000,000 marks ($23,500,000) up to October 26.

"An English governess named Kate Hume made the allegation that German soldiers had attacked and mutilated her sister Grace, and produced the signatures of two Belgian clergyman and of certain British officials to support her claim. According to the London Times, the English court declared that Kate Hume had forged these signatures and invented the entire story. She was sentenced to three months in prison.

THIRTY SENTENCED TO DEATH.

"Reports from Constantinople declare there have been sanguinary encounters between the British garrison and Indian troops at Alexandria, Egypt. Thirty men were sentenced to death by a court martial held in Alexandria.

"The Havas News Agency of Paris reports officially from London that the English torpedo boat destroyer Badger rammed and sank a German submarine off the coast of Holland. German official reports of this same incident are to the effect that while the ramming is a fact, the German submarine returned to harbor safe and without loss to her crew.

"The military correspondent of the London Times declares the heavy German artillery has destroyed all the campaign plans of English and French commanders.

"A member of the Young Turks committee opened negotiations with the Ameer of Afghanistan and then sent a delegation to the new Ameer from Constantinople.

"The Frankfurter Zeitung now publishes a dispatch from Constantinople saying that Turkey and Afghanistan have signed an alliance.

ALLEGE CONSPIRACY.

"The Neuer Zuricher of Zurich, Switzerland, commenting on the recent disclosures of the North German Gazette concerning the Anglo-Belgian convention of 1906, says that a real conspiracy against Germany has been established and that the fact of Belgium's participation means a breach of neutrality.

"An Austrian official report says that Eastern Bosnia to the Drina river has been cleared of Servians. The Austrians attacked the Servians at a point west of Nishnegrad on October 24, driving them back to Nishnegrad. They reached the river at several points and captured large quantities of artillery and rifle ammunition. The Montenegrins are reatreating independently to the southwest. Austrian troops in the Drina district shelled and stormed two of the enemy's positions near Ravnja and Ardenkovic and captured four machine guns.

"Swedish newspapers report that Belgians and the French have suffered enormous losses in West Flanders and that the Germans have advanced daily."

German Casualties, Ten Thousand Daily

By Associated Press.

ROME, Oct. 27, 1:35 p. m.—According to official reports received here, the German casualties daily average 10,000 men in killed and wounded. All of these slightly or not gravely wounded, an average of from 70 to 80 per cent, return to the ranks after a relatively short time.

British Design Gun to Combat Airman

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The new British gun, used for the first time in recent days, says the correspondent of the Times in Northern France, has provided a fresh terror for German airmen. The gun, the correspondent states, succeeds in finding its target with great facility.

2000 Refugees From Calais Reach Havre

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27, 5:15 a. m.—Two thousand refugees from Calais, fearing a German advance, have arrived in Havre, says a Reuter's Telegram Company dispatch from that place. Most of them have been distributed in towns in the center and north of France.

Battle in Atlantic Is Target Practice

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Four battleships of the Atlantic fleet and 14 destroyers are at battle practice off the Virginia Capes at the same location from which heavy firing was heard last night. Naval officials here are confident there was no battle of European ships off the capes, but that the sounds of firing and the flare of searchlights reported by wireless came from the American squadron.

SAYS MARITZ RETREATED AFTER HOUR'S DEFENSE

LONDON, Oct. 27, 11:20 a. m.—An official dispatch from Col. Wylie at Upington, Cape Province, describing Col. Britz' attack on Lieutenant-Colonel Maritz' force north of Kakamas, on October 24, says Maritz defended the town only about an hour and then retreated. The dispatch was forwarded from Pretoria by the Reuter's Telegram Company.

Losses sustained by the followers of Maritz are not known. The number of wounded and captured is known to be large.

Maritz was wounded in the leg, though not dangerously. His forces retreated hurriedly, leaving their tents standing and abandoning large quantities of stores and a wagonload of ammunition.

Horses of the Union of South African troops were exhausted and unable to pursue Colonel Maritz. Of the government forces one man was wounded.

Fiercest Fighting of War Is Proceeding North of Paris

PARIS, Oct. 27, 6:50 a. m.—Paris today began another 24 hours of waiting for news from the north, where the fiercest fighting of the war is going on. The announcement that the Germans had been unable to make headway after their costly crossing of the Yser Canal, brought keen satisfaction. Previous to this statement the movements of the enemy in the north had awakened considerable disquietude in the public mind. Unofficial explanations followed this news to-wit:

That in an attack particularly violent, such affairs were inevitable.

It was said that a momentary German gain at one point could not exercise much influence on the operations generally. Stress also was laid on the difficult ground which the enemy had to traverse, and on the fact that a similar movement, which turned out unsuccessful, was attempted recently by the Germans on the Meuse at St. Michiel.

These constant violent attacks, military men pointed out, would also wear down the Germans little.

News from Frunes on the route to Dunkirk, which presumably is the objective of the Germans, tells of the heroism displayed by the Belgians who withstood the violence of the German attacks without flinching. Though the trenches of the Belgians were riddled by machine gun fire, the Germans were unable to cut through the position.

TERRIFIC ARTILLERY DUELS.

The battle of October 25 was marked by terrific artillery duels in which the allies gained some advantages. In the evening the Germans attempted several infantry attacks, but all of these attempts were repulsed with enormous losses.

Before dying Senator Reymond, the president of the National Aviation Commission, whose machine was brought down by German gunfire last week, dedicated a long and clear report of his reconnaissance, which was very useful to the French commanders.

Senator Reymond's death was the occasion of a feat of arms. His machine had landed between the trenches of the forces, and the Germans, where the latter were particularly strong.

The French sought for 20 days to dislodge them strategically, a slow and different process and closely in men.

When the aeroplane fell, the Germans rushed from the trenches and fell upon it. Thereupon the French engaged the Germans in hand to hand fighting, which assumed great violence and after some time the allies succeeded in gaining the much wanted position.

No German Gain Made Since Saturday; Allies Stronger

LONDON, Oct. 27, 1:15 p. m.—On a miniature scale the status of the opposing armies in upper Belgium ran parallel today to the condition which prevailed when the German rush toward Paris was checked. The German forward movement has been characterized by an even greater prodigality of men an even greater the march in the direction of Paris. The invaders succeeded for days in battering their way on and then suddenly came to something which caused them to pause.

Since Saturday no German gain has been recorded and it is apparent the allies have either brought up such strong reinforcements or entrenched themselves so well, or both, that the Germans must sacrifice man after man for every foot of ground.

The flat country in West Flanders permits no such entrenchments as made the area of hostilities in France famous, but the British and Belgians with warships at their back, have dug themselves in wherever practicable while throwing out every obstacle possible to impede the enemy.

Whether Germany can drive her forces like a ram through the allied barrier is a task, the result of which should decide the success or failure of her plan to reach Calais and from there set in motion a long cherished scheme to harrass England.

On the other hand the failure of the German forces to progress, it is maintained by military observers in England, possibly would mean another retreat.

EACH SIDE "FEELS WAY."

A statement issued by the official Press Bureau today indicated how slowly each side must feel its way among the hundreds of little Belgian villages. To go forward without careful reconnoitering would be extremely perilous as it never is known whether a village is merely occupied by harmless citizens, or by armed forces ready to attack.

The Admiralty has not yet admitted that the monitors working off the Belgian coast have sustained any damage, though the Germans claim to have reached the vessels with their artillery.

The talk of Zeppelins visiting London has assumed second place alongside the speculation as to when the German warships will dart from their havens and engage the British naval units. Englishmen cannot explain to their own satisfaction how the Germans are going to do this feat, necessitating as it will the running of the gauntlet of the British fleet, as well as speeding through a mined area. It makes good food for argument, however, and the newspaper writers build up and tear down the plausability of the performance in the same article.

More U. S. Red Cross Surgeons to Front

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Three more American Red Cross surgeons, 12 nurses and 25 tons of hospital supplies are to be hurried to the Austro-Servian frontier by the first available ship. Today's report from Servia to Red Cross headquarters tells of the dire need of medical aid on the scenes of fighting along the border. Arrangements are being made for supplemental shipments of medical supplies and hospital garments to Germany, England and France.

SEND CREWS TO NANKING.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The East-West News Bureau today made public the following:

"TOKIO, Oct. 27.—The Chinese authorities have sent the crews of the German torpedo boat S-90 to Nanking and have ordered them to remain there until the end of the war. The German minister at Peking objects to this as unjustifiable and is demanding the release of the crew."

PRISONER IS CHARGED.

Clarence Lockett, the colored man arrested several days ago after a shooting and cutting scrape in West Oakland, was today charged with grand larceny. He is alleged to have robbed Otto Achzen of San Francisco while made up as a woman.

Kaiser Now Leader of Austrian Armies

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Times learns from Berlin that under the new military agreement between German and Austria, Emperor William undertakes the leadership of the united armies. According to the latest accounts received in Copenhagen the German emperor is in good health and spirits.

GERMANY LAUNCHES NEW HIGH POWER ZEPPELIN

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A dispatch from Geneva, Switzerland, to the Express gives this account of the launching of a new Zeppelin:

"The most powerful Zeppelin yet made has just been launched at Friederichshafen on Lake Constance. Without preliminary trials it flew away northward at great speed, cheered by the soldiers, who shouted "To London." Count Zeppelin was present at the launching. The airship has a special armored compartment for bombs near the propellers and a big gun is mounted in front to destroy aeroplanes. A second airship of a similar type will be ready by the end of October.

"As soon as this new airship—the thirty-first of its kind—is finished, work will be begun on another. More Zeppelins are being built at Dusseldorff, Colmar and Berlin, the German staff desiring that the number be brought to a hundred quickly."

"The Handsomest Store In All Oakland"

That's Some Compliment

We have heard similar comment from all sides, ever since this new Oakland store opened a week ago.

It has been very gratifying to have such throngs of visitors during these first few days and if you have not seen the store we extend you a special invitation to drop in tomorrow. Everything is new—everything is fresh and the last word in New York fashions.

Another Shipment of Those "New York" Suits

$18 — We told about a large purchase of Suits a few days ago which were to be sold as Opening Special at $15.00. Our promise was kept and now we have more of them for all who want to take advantage of the opportunity this week. Women rave over such suits in our San Francisco store and we have already sold many of them to enthusiastic Oakland shoppers. Everything in a suit you could desire—style, character, color and quality. — $18

So many have wanted those Dresses at $12.50, which were advertised as an Opening Special, that we have replenished our supply from the San Francisco store. The newest thing out of New York in velvet and satin combination.

We are almost afraid the Coats we are now showing at $10.00 are going to spoil the women of Oakland. The most extreme value-giving imaginable. Long coats, short coats and medium lengths for street or evening wear, motoring or on the golf links.

Special attention is called to the display of exquisite Evening Gowns and Sample Models in our north windows. Our moderate prices for such garments are a revelation.

GIVE FAIR FOR CHARITY IS UNDER JOINT AUSPICES

THREE BEAUTIES AT JEWISH WOMEN'S CHARITY FAIR: TWO DOLLS AND A "GROWN-UP."

Everybody aided charity last evening at the fair now being conducted under the joint auspices of the Daughters of Israel Relief Society and the Ladies' Auxiliary of Temple Sinai at 1624 San Pablo avenue. The fair was formally opened by Rev. Dr. M. Friedlander, rabbi of Temple Sinai, who welcomed the patrons. The hall was filled and the booths were well patronized. About 500 were in attendance and it is believed that a large sum was realized. The pretty young maids and matrons were in evening dress and appeared most charming at their respective booths. The spellers added to the merriment of the festivities, which will continue until tomorrow, when the three-day fair will close with a dance. It is stated that the fair will net about $30,000 to the two societies which have arranged the benefit. The fair is being managed by Mrs. Solomon Kahn, Mrs. Arthur Shafran and Mrs. S. Sapiro.

Dancing has proved one of the drawing cards, as the young and old have been permitted to take part in the public cotillion for which a nominal fee is charged. Several hundred visitors took part in the dance last evening and accommodations are being made for a large attendance this evening. Last night the band of the Pacific Hebrew Orphan Asylum provided the music. Tomorrow evening Mrs. Indig and her orchestra will be heard and several instrumental numbers will be contributed by Miss Helen Heineman.

REBECCA AT WELL.

One of the most attractive concessions was the lemonade booth, where "Rebecca at the Well" was symbolized by Mrs. J. Schwartz. She was assisted in administering the sweet drinks by Mrs. Schneider and Mrs. Harry Elkus. In the country store were Mrs. H. A. Garfinkle and Mrs. Leo Gilbert, chairman, with their assistants, Sara Garfinkle, Anna Pouriss, Ida Kessler, Ruby Gilbert, Belle Lesser, Louis Lesser and Nate Kessler.

Dolls donated by the various merchants of the city were in gala attire and they were in demand last evening. Everyone admired the beautiful baby dolls, especially the doll-bride, which was dressed by Mrs. Solomon Kahn. In the doll booth were Mrs. H. Karewski, Mrs. Van Gelder, Mrs. Solomon Kahn, Mrs. I. Wollin and Mrs. W. Smith.

In the booth containing sporting articles were Mrs. E. Greenhood, Mrs. A. F. Eliel, Mrs. H. Hoffman, Mrs. M. Schwartz and Mrs. S. Kaufman.

The candy booth chairmen were Mrs. Samuel Ehrlich and Mrs. Morris Falk. They were assisted by Mrs. Frank Rittigstein, Mrs. Ralph Kayser, Mrs. George Lavenson, Marian Falk, Miss Cora Bauml, Claudine Jonas, Myrtle Jacobs, Edna Lebrecht, Hilda Abrahamson and Mrs. Paul Manheim.

AN ARTISTIC BOOTH.

Fancy articles for Christmas gifts were artistically arranged in the large booth, which was one of the most popular in the hall. Mrs. Eli Schwartzbaum and Mrs. Bert Altmayer are the chairmen. Their assistants are Miss Emma Scheeline, Mrs. Jules Abrahamson, Mrs. Max Cohn, Mrs. Julius Mayer, Mrs. Jack Del Valle, Miriam Levy and Ethel Lubliner.

Mrs. Abraham Jonas is chairman of the Apron booth. She is aided by Mrs. Otto Herschman and Mrs. Morris Aronson.

Mrs. Alexander Hershberg and Mrs. L. Shumah are the chairmen of the cigar booth. The cigars were distributed by a corps of enthusiastic workers. In the booth were Mrs. T. Stamper, Miss Alma Stamper, Mrs. Irving Kahn, Mrs. Will Cox, Misses Marymont, Mrs. Morris Schneider and Mrs. J. H. Sampson.

At the "Wheel of Fortune" concession many were successful in winning handsome articles. The busy bees in the booth are Mrs. Charles Strauss, Mrs. Ben Mosbacher, Miss Henrietta Kahn, Mrs. S. S. Kahn, Mrs. L. Wolf and Mrs. B. F. Shapiro.

The members of the Hadassah Club and the Judaeans were also stationed at booths.

CIVIC BODIES OF OAKLAND TO UNITE

practically bankrupt and cannot possibly exist long as a separate organization was declared by H. C. Capwell, when he outlined the reasons for the action of the board.

"We must not fool ourselves," declared Capwell. "We cannot run on now. We have no funds—you know this. We cannot get along.

"This consolidation means little. We are stepping from one host to the other. Some people may tell you we can run along as we are, but it would be fatal to delude ourselves. We cannot. The Commercial Club has the money. We will not lose our identity. That the members of the club broke away from us to form their organization was our fault, and for the good of Oakland we cannot remain apart. We have much to do in 1915 and we must do it together. If we were private businesses we would consolidate. The Commercial Club has and will go ahead.

ECONOMIC NEED.

"I am sorry that they took over the work we were to do; but perhaps we were a little slow; we will have to admit this. Consolidation will mean that in one year the whole organization will be known only as the Chamber of Commerce anyhow."

"Let us have a fair statement. We are insolvent. We cannot bring ourselves up. No man should be allowed to fool us. The Chamber of Commerce is near my heart and will ever be—and we are not being swallowed, but swallowing the Commercial Club. With the Commercial Club's money and memberships we can go ahead. That is all."

President A. Jonas brought up the matter at the directors' meeting today.

"I believe that the Commercial Club will consent to the plans," said he, "and I believe that now is the time to get together for the good of Oakland. The Progress and Prosperity Committee has gone on record as favoring the plan. Now we must arrange terms. Of course, we cannot do this if we cannot get the right terms. We must not sacrifice the dignity of the chamber."

"I am glad," declared W. E. Gibson, that the disposition is to get together now. We need harmony and co-ordination. Nineteen fifteen is coming and there is much to do. Had we been wise when the Commercial Club was first formed this situation might never have arisen."

MOTION IS PUT.

John Phillips made the motion putting the board on record.

"We need an expression right now, before we can go to work," he declared. "I move that we adopt a resolution that we will consolidate when the committees reach a proper agreement."

The motion was unanimously carried.

"Let us frame these conditions right now and not waste time," urged Capwell. "After all, we must remember that we are only consolidating with ourselves, for our members and activities overlap. We cannot stand out for too much. Remember—we can't run on as we are. Let's not have meeting after meeting, but let's get action."

"Don't say the Chamber of Commerce is bankrupt," urged Jonas. "We are in as good a condition as any chamber in the state, and they're all bankrupt! With time we could pay our debts, but this plan is advisable for the greater good of Oakland."

"Furthermore," said Capwell, "the Commercial Club must not make any contracts for employes beyond those already made."

"Yes," said Gibson, "the last consolidation project involved a high-priced expert to bring us together and that hurt the plan."

PLAN LONG CONSIDERED.

"We have long thought this plan would be advisable," declared Jules Abrahamson. "We cannot get along without money, and that ends the argument. If we can get peace let us do so at once."

"This thing is like a marriage," declared Curtis Wright Jr. "Both sides must make concessions, and I am sure that the child will represent a very healthy condition for Oakland."

"Let us not have too many committees," urged President Jonas. "A compact organization can finish the work in thirty days."

E. A. Young, A. H. Irving, F. A. Briggs, Charles Trabert, Theodore Gier and other directors also spoke, placing themselves on record as favoring the plan.

Chairman Capwell will call his committee together this week, and consultations will be held to decide terms as soon as possible. It is expected that a month's time will see the entire matter ready for settlement.

DENISON'S STATEMENT.

The matter was hurried, partly, because of letters issued by A. A. Denison, the retired secretary of the chamber, in which, after opposing Amendment No. 19, the "Oakland Amendment" for which the chamber is fighting, he intimated that he would attempt at the next election, to be re-elected with a new board of directors.

"This personal word," wrote Denison, "by the action of the directors October 16 I remain secretary as long as the present board continues in office. My term of election expires with that of the board. I am voted a vacation which I have earned by sacrificing my health in the public service.

"The Oakland Chamber of Commerce, as I relinquish duty, is an efficient, going, solvent organization with 1672 members.

"To sacrifice its usefulness, to surrender its separate existence would be a civic crime.

(Signed) A. A. DENISON."

Reports were made of encouraging success in the campaign for the amendment by Chairman Gibson of the campaign committee at today's meeting. Several matters of routine business, including financial matters, were considered.

100 BURNED TO DEATH IN MINE

Three hundred and seventy-two men were employed in the mine, but as the disaster occurred about five minutes before work was to begin about fifty had not entered the shaft.

Up to 11 o'clock rescue parties were unable to penetrate more than 1500 feet in the workings, but at that hour the rescue car came from Benton, Ill., with four hours' supply of oxygen. This made possible a further penetration of the mine by the rescue parties.

FIRE HAMPERS RESCUERS.

Lines of hose were carried down two shafts and an attempt was made to direct streams of water through cross shafts to the burning level. The gases made it dangerous for the firefighters to approach close enough to do effective work. Experts said the fire could be controlled only by sealing both entrance shafts and pumping water into the mine until all chambers were flooded. This, however, will not be done until all hope of rescuing the imprisoned miners is abandoned.

Twenty physicians accompanied the rescue car from Benton and when they arrived they had their hands full looking after the wives and daughters of the imprisoned miners, who had become hysterical or had fainted.

The mine belongs to the Franklin County Coal Company.

At noon rescuers said they could see at least twenty-five bodies on the upper level.

From this level rescuers sought to check the flames in the lower level, where 105 men were entombed, by dropping blankets, soaked with water. This temporarily checked the flames, but the poisonous gases drove the fire-fighters back.

government and my family that I died a traitor," Mugia was quoted as having said.

The accused was an Argentine subject. It was Mugia who assassinated a German consular official at Mexico City some years ago.

General Pablo Gonzales, commander of the division of the east, has been regarded as Villa's strongest opponent in Villa's controversies with Carranza.

General Villa notified the convention delegates at Aguas Calientes of the matter, suggesting to them that they "act in the present case as justice and the Mexican honor demands."

NO REPORT FROM CONSUL.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—No report from Consular Agent Carothers telling of the reported attempt on the life of General Villa had been received here today, but officials are pointing out that official dispatches from Mexico were coming along more than a day behind the news dispatches. Today's news dispatches telling of the attempted assassination of General Villa attracted great attention in official circles.

DEMAND MEXICANS RETURN.

NACO, Ariz., Oct. 27.—General Benjamin Hill, commanding the Carranza garrison at Naco, Sonora, made a formal demand today on Colonel Hatfield of the American border patrol to return Jose Islas, a captain of the garrison, who killed a fellow officer and a Mexican private last night. The shooting occurred on the border and Colonel Hatfield's report to headquarters states that Islas fired on American soldiers before he surrendered. Hill's demand for the return of Islas was referred to General Bliss.

Railroad Suit for $60,000,000 Heard

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Sixty million dollars was at stake for which attorneys contended today before the Supreme Court for the United States when the suit of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad Company against the government was up for oral argument.

The railway contends the government has broken its contract to grant to it or its predecessor title to every other section of land through the former Indian Territory for the construction of a railroad from the Kansas state line to the Red river in Texas. Because the land was not granted to it, the railroad claims damages for every acre it would have received.

The government's contention is that the land never became a part of the public lands of the United States within the meaning of the acts of Congress, but remained Indian land.

SWITZERLAND PREPARES WAR INCOME TAX BILL

By Associated Press.

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 27.—The Swiss government is preparing an income tax bill for parliament to meet with war expenses. The government has spent $10,000,000 upon the mobilization and maintenance of Swiss troops, guarding neutrality. Much discussion has been going on in the country as to whether it is necessary to continue keeping on the German-French frontiers 30,000 troops in view of there having been no attempt to violate neutrality on the part of either of the belligerents. The decision of the administration has been that it would not be safe to disarm at the present time.

Trial of Alice Hagan for Slaying of Salesman Begins.

chinery which may yet grind her in its mercilessly technical cogs.

It was August 14 that brought to Olive Hagen the first crisis. She was in dire need. She had lost her sweetheart Putnam. She had even bade him leave her and forget her in the maze of a city's frivolity if he would. She had written him passionate, ardent love epistles. He had replied indifferently, carelessly and she thought cruelly. She told him that she could live without him. This was a month before the crisis.

DARK HOUR COMES.

Then came the realization that Putnam was responsible for a condition in her life which she could not avoid. She needed money and she wrote to the man for it. Her request was refused. Her plight was desperate. Her nerves were failing.

Anger goading her to fury, she came to San Francisco. The crisis had arrived. She went to Grayton Putnam's lodgings. He, an automobile salesman, was out. She waited for him and shot him down as he refused her request for a second time. Then, with eyes streaming and hair disheveled, she rushed into the street and was captured by a policeman.

Lingering between life and death in a hospital after her capture, she was thrice unable to face the curious crowd in a court of law. Finally, behind closed doors the ordeal was passed and she was held to answer. Today, for the first time, she confronts a jury. The second crisis is upon her. Her life may pay the forfeit, but she is hopeful of acquittal. As one talesman after another passed through the box this morning questioned by her counsel, Attorney Harry McKenzie, her feelings occasionally got the better of her and she sobbed.

HER PARENTS THERE.

Miss Hagen's beauty was enhanced and made more brilliant in the somber court surroundings by a tasteful suit of blue serge and a black hat adorned with a white plume. Near her sat her mother, who has been her constant arm of strength, and, just behind her, her patient father, whose suffering during the days of agony was very similar to her own.

The witnesses to be called are Dr. Davis Stafford, autopsy surgeon, Patrolman Thomas A. Kerrigan, Detective Sergeant Patrick O'Connell, Acting Captain Duncan Mathewson, H. L. Putnam, brother of the deceased, and Arthur A. Olbers, a friend of the latter.

It is rumored that the defense expects to spring a technical surprise which may bring a delay in the case.

ough and James H. Creely, were furnished transcripts of testimony given before the grand jury and on which the indictments were returned. The transcripts were in volume containing several hundred pages. Higgins is at liberty under $10,000 cash bail. The other three men, two Progressives and one Socialist, are still in the county jail.

The indicted men face from one to fourteen years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. So far none of them has made any admissions that would clear up the mystery of the alleged election fraud conspiracy, according to District Attorney Hynes. Owing to the recommendations of the Beckwith grand jury, it is probable that the new grand jury, as yet not drawn, will continue investigation into the matter.

Closes Argument in Steel Trust Suit

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—David A. Reed of Pittsburg concluded his argument for the defense today in the government's dissolution suit against the United States Steel Corporation brought under the Sherman anti-trust law. In closing he submitted charts tending to show that the purchasing power of iron and steel as compared with other commodities has steadily fallen with the exception of two or three years since 1899.

This showing, he argued, refutes the government's charge that the steel corporation controlled prices.

Cordenio A. Severance of St. Paul also argued on behalf of the steel corporation. He spoke on what the defense contends is the fairness and extent of competition by the steel corporation, its lack of power to control prices and its lack of power to exclude competition from the steel trade.

FIRST PEACE JUSTICE IN OAKLAND IS DEAD

Petition for letters of administration in the $80,000 estate of the late Judge George H. Fogg were filed in the Superior Court today by his son, George E. Fogg. Judge Fogg was the first justice of the peace in Oakland and during the early history of the city conducted a hotel in Second street, between Franklin and Webster streets. He later went into the grain business and acquired a fortune. The greater portion of the estate consists of a lot in Harrison street, valued at $50,000.

CHURCH SOCIETY ELECTS.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Wilbur P. Thirkield of New Orleans, La., was yesterday re-elected president of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church. Mrs. May Leonard Woodruff of Allendale, N. J., was elected vice-president.

WOMAN SEEKS DEATH; SICKNESS SAVES LIFE

Just as she was raising a bottle of carbolic acid to her lips in the Key station, Mrs. E. H. Nickerson was seized with an epileptic fit, which saved her life. The young woman, who is the wife of a painter employed by the Key system, lives at 1330 Adeline street. The act was observed by Mrs. Wells, a passerby, who notified the police and the woman was taken to the emergency hospital, where she was treated by Dr. W. H. Irwin and Dr. G. C. Beinle.

When questioned Mrs. Nickerson declared that she had no intention of taking her life, and remembered nothing concerning the purchasing of the acid. During the night Mrs. Nickerson had a number of epileptic fits, but was well enough to be moved to her home in the morning.

DECLARES COFFEE HELPS IN MAKING ALCOHOLICS

W. C. T. U. Doctor Says Drunkenness Is Often Caused by Children Drinking Tea and Coffee.

In its fight for prohibition the National W. C. T. U. is now considering some of the feeders of the alcohol appetite. Two of the most common of these feeders, almost universally disregarded in this connection, are tea and coffee, avers Dr. Charlotte Abbey, superintendent of the New York Woman's Directory of the W. C. T. U.

"Drunkenness," says Dr. Abbey, "is the result of the children drinking tea and coffee, by which the nerves are continually stimulated until a craving for something stronger is formed. Children should be taught the danger of this in the schools, as parents are too apt to disregard the importance of it. Tea and coffee are just as harmful to children as alcohol is to grown-ups."

"The thing for parents to do," says Dr. E. A. Peterson, medical director of the Cleveland public schools, "is to keep coffee and tea out of the reach of our little citizens. The most unkind thing a mother can do is to place a cup of coffee before her child."

NOTE.—The rapidly increasing sale of the pure food-drink, INSTANT POSTUM, now extensively used in place of coffee, seems to indicate a very general awakening on the part of the American people to the dangers of coffee drinking.

LAW VIOLATION MEANS LOSS OF LIQUOR LICENSE

City Council Issues Edict; Saloon Keeper Cronin Forced to Move

"Resolved, That in future any saloonkeeper or his agent found guilty of selling liquor to a drunken man or woman, or of selling liquor to a minor, shall have his license canceled forthwith, and the city council serves notice on all saloonkeepers that this will be the policy in future."—Resolution passed by a unanimous vote of the city commissioners today.

The city council today gave Cornelius Cronin, saloonkeeper of Forty-third street and Piedmont avenue, six months to transfer the location of his saloon south of Twenty-fourth street, as a penalty for selling liquor to minors and adopted it as a policy that in future violation of the liquor ordinance in this regard shall mean the revocation of the license and not merely the imposition of a fine.

The penalty imposed on Cronin followed the suggestion made by the Rev. A. W. Palmer and the members of the Plymouth Congregational church. It was at first planned that Cronin should be fined.

"A fine will merely mean that this man will have to sell that much more liquor in our neighborhood to make up the difference in his revenue," declared Rev. Palmer. "Please don't fine him. We have no enthusiasm in favor of a fine. His license ought to be revoked forthwith, in accordance with the essential spirit of the liquor ordinance. But if you will not revoke his license give him a stated period, at the termination of which he will have to move."

FIRPO IN LINE OF FIRE.

The council was also asked to give Julius Firpo, a saloonkeeper who has a cafe across the street from the Cronin saloon, a short time in which to move and a motion to that effect was framed, but was withdrawn.

Commissioner Turner declared that the policy of the council had been marked with inconsistency, but he maintained that it would be unjust to commence to impose the full penalty of the law at this time, merely because the residents of the district desired that this should be done to get rid of the saloon in their midst.

"How much more flagrant must a case be before you will enforce the law?" indignantly demanded Rev. Palmer.

"We are enforcing the law," returned Turner.

"If you think that is so there is no use talking," answered Rev. Palmer.

CHURCH FOLK IN LOBBY.

Cronin was proved at a recent session of the council to have served liquor to three boys, aged 19 and 20 years. The case came up for decision today. The lobby was packed with members of the Plymouth congregation.

The Rev. Palmer presented the wishes of the neighborhood as follows:

"There is not much to say. It is clear that these boys were served with liquor in this saloon. The ordinance provides that the council has abundant justification for revoking this license. We want to enter an earnest plea for the revocation of the license.

"If this man were found guilty in a police court, his license would be automatically revoked. There is ample evidence to obtain a conviction in the police court. We do not wish to take this course, as we believe that these boys should be protected from notoriety. So we ask that the council revoke the licenses."

Commissioner Turner explained that the policy of the council had been to impose a fine.

"I am not responsible for the past policy of the city council," said Rev. Palmer. "The reason for bringing these people here is to show the council that they will be backed by the voice of the people.

"Do you believe that this man sold liquor to minors?"

ASKS PROTECTION.

"If he did, then the moral obligation is upon you to revoke this license. I have stated the case as fairly and sincerely as I can. In this case it is perfectly clear that there has been a violation of the law."

Mayor Mott said:

"It seemed to me that there were extenuating circumstances in the former cases, but that this is a much more aggravated case, as these boys went into the saloon without an older man accompanying them. They are obviously under age. I think it would be quite just and reasonable to take the license away."

UNION MEN!

Gentlemen: In making reply to the report circulating that the building I am doing business in was built by unfair labor, I herewith publish a letter from C. G. Hildebrand, the contractor who erected the building. The building in question was built by Mr. Root and is now owned by him. I am simply a lessee of the building, and at no time have I had anything to do with the labor on said building. Yours sincerely,

GRANT D. MILLER,
Candidate for Coroner.

C. G. HILDEBRAND
Builder
CAPITOLA, Cal., Oct. 8, 1914.

Mr. G. D. Miller, Oakland, Cal.

Dear Sir: This letter is to certify that I, C. G. Hildebrand, contractor, am a union man in principle and have always been. I belonged first to Union No. 22 of S. F.; was transferred to Union 36 of Oakland, where I belonged until I started contracting, after which time I still conducted union work, but stopped paying dues, as only journeymen are required to belong to the union.

Your office building on East 14th street was conducted as a union job. If there were any non-union men on the job they were unknown to me. If there were non-union men on the job the union delegate should have notified me of such facts. I received no such notification while erecting your building, so took it for granted that all the workmen were union.

Hoping these explanations will be satisfactory. Very truly.

(Signed) C. G. HILDEBRAND.

DETAILS PLAN TO INVADE ENGLAND

Statement Attributed to High German Officer Hints at Military Surprises.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Daily Mail's Bergen correspondent quotes the Saxon State Gazette for the following statement made by a general in the adjutant general's office in the war department at Berlin:

"The English watch on our naval stations in the neighborhood of Heligoland is almost impossible; it will become quite impossible when Belgium and the north coast of France to the mouth of the Seine are in German hands.

"In course of time we shall possess Calais and probably Dieppe and Havre. Our twelve-inch Howitzers have the large range of fourteen miles and the seventeen-inch a still greater range. England can expect still more artillery surprises. Even if we cannot shoot from the French coast to the English coast, a safety zone could be made for German ships covering more than half the navigable water.

"The French harbors will serve as bases for torpedo boats, submarines, cruisers and Zeppelins, and can be made impregnable from the sea by a double or triple row of mines. If this triple field should be laid from the French coast to the English coast then Portsmouth and Plymouth would be cut off from the north sea and connection around Scotland would be difficult.

"The possibility of laying such mines is not doubted as they could be laid under cover of artillery. Our submarine and torpedo division would also come into action. An invasion of England would be easily possible."

REPORTS OF CENSORS DOUBTED BY ALLIES

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—"One hundred and fifty thousand Germans buried under the rocks of the Aisne quarries," and "thirty thousand," "forty thousand" and from there up to "a hundred and thirty thousand prisoners." Such are the stories circulated in Paris from day to day, added to many others equally startling during the days that preceded and which will, no doubt, be followed by others even more sensational, as long as the censor keeps the public hungering for authentic news.

One effect of so many false rumors is to make the truth sometimes suspected. On the other hand they throw so much uncertainty about news in general as to make serious newspaper men occasionally doubt as to the handling of some reports that in normal times would be dismissed summarily.

Recently an authenticated report, through a reliable agency, came from Antwerp concerning the death of Prince Adelbert from a German bullet wound. Though the name of a prominent Brussels surgeon was given in connection with the names of two German surgeons who aided him in performing an autopsy on the Prussian prince. Paris papers hesitated to handle it; as to the American correspondents, they are still uncertain whether the story got past the censor.

WOMAN REPORTS LOSS OF JEWELRY AND MONEY

She did not see the man, and was unable to give any description of him. Other thefts and burglaries reported were as follows:

C. Patterson, Stockton, robbed of $7 by a man he met in a saloon.

Dr. G. B. Kleeman, offices in Bacon block, entered and surgical instruments stolen.

S. C. Ferguson, Bacon building, camera stolen from office.

Ralph R. Smith, 2532 Chestnut street, motorcycle stolen.

E. W. Reynolds, 2127 Twenty-seventh avenue, attempted burglary.

Mrs. R. W. Neighbor, 265 Adams street, purse with change stolen from library.

AFTER CORPORATE TAX DELINQUENTS

Auditor Asks Advice As to the Possibility of Collecting Contested Sums.

City Auditor George E. Gross today addressed a letter to City Attorney Ben F. Woolner asking his advice as to the possibility of forcing half a dozen large corporations who have contested payment of certain taxes to clear up their delinquency, even if the money has to be paid "under protest," pending a determination of the merits of the case in a court proceeding. The amounts in which the corporations are delinquent are not large, but they represent a large proportion of the total amount levied against the two Melrose sanitary districts, and would make possible a reduction of a few cents in the annual assessments levied against the property owners in these districts. City Attorney Woolner will take the matter under consideration and cooperate with the auditor. The correspondence follows:

BEN F. Woolner, Esq., City Attorney, Oakland, Cal.

Dear Sir: While not sure whether Oakland city or Alameda county attorneys should be consulted in regard to the question, it seems clear that some action should be taken looking to the collection of the taxes levied for the fiscal year 1913-1914 against the operative property of certain public service corporations in the Melrose sanitary district and the Melrose sanitary district No. 2, and I consequently am addressing this communication to you.

As provided by state law, the operative property of various corporations in these sanitary districts was assessed for 1913-1914, and the state of California, under chapter 335, Statutes of 1911, asked to pay over to the county treasurer the amount of taxes due on these valuations at the rates fixed as needed to produce revenue sufficient to meet the payment of principal and interest on the bonds of these districts. This bonds are payable through county officers and consequently, while the assessments are made and the tax rates fixed by city officers, collection of taxes is made by the tax collector of Alameda county.

CONTROLLER REFUSED CLAIMS.

The State Controller refused to honor our claim for the payment supposedly due from the state, but advised us to look to the corporations for payment of the amounts involved, basing his action on an opinion of the Attorney General, which holds the state not obligated in this matter. I enclose a copy of the letter of the State Controller and of the opinion of the Attorney General to him. Upon receipt of this letter the corporations were consulted and payment of the amounts involved asked of them, but they dispute the correctness of the Attorney General's view of the law and in turn have refused to pay. I have been told that cases involving the same question are before the courts in other parts of the state and had hoped that a decision in these cases would make clear the power of procedure for us to take, but the cases referred to have not yet been decided and I feel that it is time some action was taken by us.

MELROSE SANITARY DISTRICT.

Name:	Valuation.	Tax.
Central Pacific R. R. Co. (corporation)	$56,200.00	$89.92
Western Pacific R. R.	6,850.00	10.96
Western Pacific R. R.	2,750.00	4.40
Central Pacific R. R. Co. (corporation)	3,000.00	4.80
Central Pacific R. R. Co. (corporation)	3,450.00	5.52
Southern Pacific Company	1,500.00	2.40
Central Pacific R. R. Co. (corporation)	33,807.00	54.09
Pacific Gas and Electric company	3,000.00	4.80

MELROSE SANITARY DISTRICT NO. 2.

Name:	Valuation.	Tax.
Pacific Gas and Electric company	$ 5,000.00	$38.00

QUESTION WILL RECUR.

Though the amounts are small they represent a large proportion of the total amount levied in each sanitary district, as both districts are small and the assessed valuation low. The same condition will exist this year and each future year until this question is settled and as the principal and interest on the bonds must be paid when they fall due it is necessary to levy a tax on the remaining property in the districts sufficient to offset the probable deficiency due to the non-payment of these taxes.

The total valuation being low this increased tax places a heavy burden on taxpayers, and one of which they should be relieved, if possible. For 1912-1914 the rates per $100 valuation were 16c in Melrose sanitary district, and 7c cents in Melrose sanitary district No. 2. For 1914-1915, instead of decreasing as they should under normal conditions, they are the same.

Will you please advise me as to what, if any, action can be taken in this connection and whether city or county officers should act. Would it be possible to demand that the taxes be paid under protest pending a settlement in court of the questions involved?

Very truly yours,
GEO. E. GROSS, Auditor.

CONTROLLER MAKES ANSWER.

Controller's Department, State of California, Sacramento, December 5, 1913. Mr. George E. Gross, City Auditor, Oakland, California. Dear Sir: We recently received an opinion from the attorney-general advising us not to pay the claims of the sanitary districts for refunds from the State for the taxes levied upon the operative property of the public service corporations to pay the principal and interest of bonds issued and outstanding on November 8, 1910, when section 14 of Article XIII of the constitution was adopted.

The attorney-general holds that the collections of sanitary districts are assessments and not taxes. The corporations are not exempt from such assessments under section 14 of Article XIII so that the sanitary districts can assess all of the tangible property of the corporations on their regular non-operative roll and collect all district taxes (those for operation and maintenance as well as for bonds) on such assessments.

Following this opinion, we will not pay your claim for bond refunds for this year, but will expect you to look to the corporations direct for taxes levied on these assessments. We are enclosing a copy of this opinion.

Yours very truly,
JOHN S. CHAMBERS, Controller.

REALTY BROKERS IN GOVERNMENT TOILS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Walter E. Schwarz, and Ralph H. Schwarz, brothers and promoters of the Tobin Clark Development Company, with offices in the Monadnock building, were arrested this morning by P. O. Inspector William Madera and charged with using the mails to defraud.

According to the federal officials the two men cleaned up in the neighborhood of $2000 in selling lots to immigrants which were represented as choice home sites at Tobin, 18 miles south of the city on the Ocean Shore Railway. The apprehension of the accused was the result of the activity of the Immigration and Housing Commission.

Attorney George Bell brought the matter to the attention of the government. It is claimed that the Schwarz brothers were endeavoring to sell 600 acres of brush land on a hillside at prices ranging from $27.50 to $200 per lot. Agents everywhere circulated literature and alluring pamphlets telling of the advantages of the property.

One of the witnesses for the government, it is said, will be J. Couston, a representative of the Italian colony at Washington, who was offered a lot it is claimed, for his good will, in advancing the interests of the promoters. The defendants appeared before United States Commissioner Krull today and their bonds were fixed at $1000.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove it

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and brush it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

FIRE WIPES OUT CAMP ON MT. WILSON TRAIL

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27 — Once a scene of gayety and a famous shelter for climbers on the Mt. Wilson trail, old Knox camp, about a mile from the summit of the mountain, was destroyed by flames early yesterday, ignited, it is believed, by a smoldering camp fire built by four unidentified men who stopped overnight at the camp.

Glen McFarren, 15, was badly burned about the face when he made his escape from a blazing building where he had been sleeping at the time the fire broke out. The family of E. E. Gray, Mt. Wilson photographer, the only other persons who live at Knox camp, were absent on a visit to the summit.

Ten buildings in all were wiped out. Upon the building of the Mt. Wilson hotel seven years ago Knox camp lost its old-time glory.

INSURING GOOD DIGESTION

Importance of Preventing Food Fermentation in Stomach.

Good digestion usually means good health. So long as the stomach does its work properly disease can find no lodgment in the human system: the liver, kidneys and intestines will perform their work perfectly and remain in perfect health; but permit anything to interfere with the proper digestion of food, an unending train of troubles is set in motion. About the only thing that will upset the stomach and interfere with digestion is an excess of acid, usually caused by food fermentation. Food fermentation is due to chemical action in the food itself. This fermentation causes the formation of gas, or wind, as well as acid, resulting in the unnatural distention of the stomach and the burning by the acid of the delicate lining of the stomach.

Medicine and tonics cannot relieve this condition—they usually make it worse. The fermentation and acid are to blame and these must be overcome and prevented by taking after meals a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. Physicians recommend bisurated magnesia especially because it stops and prevents fermentation of food and neutralizes the acid instantly, making it bland and harmless, without irritating the stomach in any way. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your druggist and try it the next time your food ferments and upsets your stomach. Note how quickly the acid is neutralized and how soon you forget that you have such a thing as a stomach.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LATE JAMES M. HALSTEAD

The funeral of James Mandeville Halsted, first manufacturer of the incubator, was held this afternoon from the Albert Brown Undertaking Parlors on Thirteenth street. Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of St. Paul's Church of this city, officiated.

The decedent was a native of New York and was 73 years of age. He resided in California about 45 years, having made his home in this city the greater part of that period. He died last Sunday at his residence, 1616 Myrtle street. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Anna Collins of Oakland.

The body was buried in Mountain View Cemetery.

FUNDS FOR CONVENTION.

The city council today passed an ordinance appropriating $3000 to pay the preliminary expenses of bringing to Oakland in 1915 the conventions of the World's Congress of Education and the National Educational Association. The money is appropriated from the entertainment fund of the fiscal year 1914-1915.

HEAVY FINE FOR ALLEGED FIREBUG

Cooper Denied Probation; His Partner Is Sentenced to Prison.

Santa Cruz, Oct. 27.—C. A. Cooper of Sanger paid into the county late this afternoon $4000, the amount of the fine imposed upon him yesterday afternoon by Superior Judge Smith upon the recommendation of District Attorney E. K. Knight, who argued against Attorney Bert Herington's plea for probation for his client, the petition being denied.

Cooper had pleaded guilty to being an accessory after the fact in connection with the burning of the Hotel Ben Lomond last March. Ellsworth Beeson, his partner, making the same plea, his sentence being continued until November 2.

Beeson was sentenced yesterday afternoon in Fresno to six years' imprisonment in San Quentin for obtaining insurance money under false pretenses, and if the authorities here desire they can secure a writ and have him brought here for sentence for his offense in this county.

Stockton, Oct. 27.—Justice of the Peace Otto von Detten adjourned court yesterday to take W. H. Wilkinson, a prisoner, shopping. When Von Detten opened court Wilkinson was present, accused of drunkenness. Von Detten recognized him as having appeared on a similar charge at intervals for several years, generally penniless after spending his season's pay as a farm hand. Today Von Detten learned that Wilkinson had $46 with him. He had started in Saturday night with $190. The justice put on his hat and commanded Wilkinson to follow him. They visited a clothing store and out of the money which the defendant had left the court purchased a suit of clothes, a hat, shirt, underclothes and shoes for Wilkinson. Von Detten then led the way to a barber shop and ordered a bath and shave for the man. "Behave yourself and save your money. Let liquor alone. It pays more to be respectable," said Von Detten as he released Wilkinson.

Stockton, Oct. 27.—Theodore Thompson, a stevedore who was accidentally shot while R. C. Kelly and Peter Carlson were wrestling for the possession of an automatic revolver during a brawl on the waterfront, is dead. Carlson, owner of the pistol, is in jail on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Sacramento, Oct. 27.—Samuel J. Raber, convicted of the murder of Cherry St. Maurice, for the second time heard the death sentence passed on him yesterday when Superior Judge Glenn fixed December 18 as the date of his execution at Folsom prison. Raber is from Joliet, Ills., and several hundred residents of that city have petitioned Governor Johnson to show leniency.

Salinas, Oct. 27.—William F. Thompson, a Santa Cruz barber, was found guilty of murder in the second degree for killing Rosie O'Neil, in this city on June 23. The jury was out only forty minutes. Thompson will be sentenced on Thursday morning. The killing was the result of an alleged death compact, the two being penniless. Thompson tried suicide after the death of the girl, only inflicting a superficial wound.

Eureka, Oct. 27.—Eureka and Humboldt counties have bid farewell to the remaining 200 excursionists who left after spending four days in the county participating in the celebration incident to the completion of the Northwestern Pacific's new San Francisco-Eureka line.

Grass Valley, Oct. 27.—Lin Sun, adviser to the President of China, and Bock Yue Wong, Chinese editor of San Francisco, held a meeting here in the interest of the Chinese Nationalist League. More than 100 Chinese attended the meeting, which was followed by a banquet.

Placerville, Oct. 27.—Willard Irvine Bell, a Lieutenant in the English reserve, was wounded in battle in Belgium, according to a cable received by his wife yesterday. He was a young mining engineer and looked after his father's extensive farming interests in this country, before his departure for the front. Early in September he married Caroline Hankey, who had accompanied him from England as nurse and housekeeper.

Martinez, Oct. 27.—Every town in Contra Costa county will witness a Republican rally during the coming week. The program started last night, when a special train from Antioch went to Stockton with many citizens, who heard John D Fredericks speak. The rest of the week will be devoted to meetings within the county. The schedule, as arranged by the Republican County Central Committee, is as follows: Tuesday night, Pittsburg; Wednesday, Brentwood, Danville and Clayton, Thursday, Antioch, Walnut Creek and Pinole, Friday, Concord and Lafayette, Saturday, Richmond and Oakley. The speakers will include W. H Jordan, Mayor Mott of Oakland, M. R. Jones, Senator E. J. Wolfe, A. F. Bray, E. B. Martinelli, Milton L. Schmitt, G. E. Davis and J. E. Rodgers.

Bakersfield, Oct. 27.—Mystery is attached to the death of Joseph Sapulvia, 50, a Dutch valley prospector, found dead at Willow Springs, near Mojave, with two bullet wounds in his head and a fractured skull. The latter injury was the cause of death and was inflicted with some blunt weapon. One bullet passed through the left ear, the other through the chin and left shoulder.

MANY LIVES LOST IN STEAMSHIP DISASTER

DOVER, Oct. 27.—Between 30 and 40 persons were lost and nearly 2500 were rescued when the steamer Amiral Ganteaume, laden with French and Belgian refugees, sank off Cape Grisnez yesterday. Whether a boiler explosion or a mine caused the disaster is not known.

The French steamer was bound from Calais for Havre and was just outside of Boulogne harbor about 4 o'clock in the afternoon when the passengers who were huddled in close quarters on the decks, were thrown into a panic by an upheaval of the ship's decks. The detonation of a fearful explosion threw the hundreds of women and children among the peasant passengers into a panic, and by the time the Southeastern Chatham Company's cross - channel steamer Queen, leaving Boulogne, had managed to get alongside in the heavy sea that was running, scores of the passengers had leaped overboard.

Captain Carey of the Queen declared he was convinced that the French vessel struck a mine. Others think it might have been a boiler explosion.

REGISTER LEAF STOLEN.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 27.—A leaf from the visitors' register in the Cleveland Memorial Tower of Princeton University graduate school, bearing the names of several prominent men, was found yesterday to have been stolen. The page bore the names of President Taft, members of his family and other notable visitors who had signed the book on October 22 last when the memorial tower was dedicated. President Hibben has offered a reward of $100 for the recovery of the page.

BOYS SENTENCED TO WHIP.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Oct. 27.—A thrashing at home with a birch rod was the sentence pronounced in the Superior Court yesterday by Judge Hugo A. Dubuque in the case of three grammar school boys charged with breaking and entering a cottage. The boys, Edward Clough and Frank and Antonio Perry, escaped alternative sentences of confinement in a reform school when their parents promised that they would carry out the court order.

SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY IS SOLID FOR FREDERICKS

Immense Crowd Greets Republican Standard Bearer at Stockton; Overflow Meeting Necessary

(By WILL D. SIMONDS)

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

STOCKTON, Oct. 27.—Stockton has been won by Captain John D. Fredericks. Yesterday morning it looked as if the Tracy meeting would be the feature of the day. Yesterday afternoon indications were that the Manteca gathering would carry off the honors, because Manteca is said to be one of Johnson's strongest precincts, but Captain Fredericks took it by storm. Last night, however, these assemblages were all overshadowed by the tremendous success scored in Stockton.

The Yosemite theater, with its seating capacity of 1500, was inadequate to hold the great concourse of people who gathered to hear the Republican standard-bearer and an overflow meeting was held outside which was addressed by Sheriff R. R. Veale of Contra Costa county and other leading Republicans. The success here came as a surprise in a measure, for Captain Fredericks had been told to expect criticism and questions, had been cautioned to be on the alert for opposition. This rumor proved to be incorrect, for no finer or more responsive mass of voters ever gathered to hear the fair arguments of a fair man.

Enthusiasm ran riot through the town last night and the mention of the name of Captain Fredericks everywhere was so spontaneous and emphatic as to alarm the Progressives, who little expected he would be given such an ovation. That which was true of Stockton was true of other places also for at Tracy, Crow's Landing, Newman, Modesto, Mantect and Lodi, in Stanislaus and San Joaquin counties the candidate was given a royal welcome, unstinted in character.

WILL CARRY STOCKTON.

I gave away 200 Fredericks buttons in Manteca. But one was returned. The others were worn upon the waist of the wife and the coat lapel of the husband. If Manteca is one of Johnson's strongest precincts he must have many that are woefully weak.

That Captain Fredericks will carry Stockton there is little doubt. Arthur L. Levinsky, an attorney, who has practiced law in this city since 1882, made this statement from the stage of the theater last night:

"In all my experience in the city of Stockton—and I have attended every political meeting of importance—I have never seen such a gathering as this."

Other well-known men confirmed this statement and predicted victory here for the Republican candidate.

Captain Fredericks' speech was, as usual, strong and argumentative. His remarks created a profound impression.

"All along the highways over which we travel," he said, "we pass men who carry their wealth, a roll of dusty blankets, upon their backs. They are of the vast army of homeless, workless wanderers, the net result of the effect of imperfect administration in government.

"When Hiram Johnson made his campaign through Alameda county he did not utter one word against the Progressive election frauds and he even attacked the men who exposed them. I ask you if this is the kind of a man who has your interests and the interests of your homes in his heart?

IS THIS FAIR?

"Look at the copy of your horse-blanket ballot. I ask you, do you understand the forty-eight propositions you are called upon to vote for or against, or do you know any one who does? Yet any one of these may mean the life or death of some man's business. I ask you if you do not think it is time to get back to sane legislation?

"Is it fair to you that employes of the state paid their salaries with money from your pockets should be out openly on the stump, away from their duties, boosting the candidacy of Hiram Johnson?

"I stand for prosperity and I ask you what more vital issue is there in this campaign. Speaking of the discharge of a number of veterans from the home at Yountville, Captain Fredericks said:

"Hiram Johnson has no sympathy for any man who does not wear a Progressive button. The incident at Yountville is in line with the non-partisan judiciary about which the Progressives prate in their platform. They preach non-partisanship, but last week we had the spectacle of Superior Judge Franklin Griffin, former executive secretary of the governor, helping Andy Gallagher at the Union Iron Works in trying to prevent me from exercising the right of free speech. A non-partisan, indeed! God save the mark!"

Frank Cressy, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the Republican county committee of Stanislaus county, and Charles D. Swan, candidate for state treasurer, were with the Fredericks party yesterday. F. S. Israel presided over the meeting last night.

Captain Fredericks covered 168 miles in his tour yesterday. Today he speaks at Turlock, Merced, Madera and at Fresno this evening.

Senator John B. Curtin, the Democratic nominee for governor, spent yesterday campaigning in San Francisco, holding several meetings in various parts of the city, accompanied by prominent speakers, including Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti, who addressed a gathering at the Liberty Theater. Dr. A. H. Giannini, Miss Florence Musto, A. Padrini and others participated. James A. Bacigalupi presided at the night meeting.

Hiram Johnson spoke in Monrovia and other towns in the south yesterday, Pomona and Covina being the other two places. Johnson denied responsibility for the discharge of the old soldiers from Yountville and said he was not to blame for it. Johnson "passed the buck" to the federal authorities.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland spent yesterday in Ventura county, where he was given magnificent receptions. Tonight he will address a large meeting at San Luis Obispo, where great preparations have been made to receive him. Congressman Knowland reports that wherever he goes he is gaining ground and that voluntary tenders of support are so numerous as to insure his election.

John Z. White of the Henry George Lecture Association of Chicago, will deliver an address under the auspices of the United Improvement Clubs at the Fremont high school, Forty-seventh avenue and Foothill boulevard, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, his topic being amendment No. 7, better known as the home rule in taxation amendment. Admission is free.

Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane arrived in San Francisco this morning from Washington for the purpose of making several speeches in California in behalf of former Mayor James D. Phelan of San Francisco, candidate for United States senator. Lane will leave this afternoon for Los Angeles, where he is to speak tomorrow night. He will return to address a meeting at Dreamland rink Thursday night. Lane will speak in Oakland Saturday night.

THEODORE BELL CALLED LOBBYIST

But Californian Denies That He Fought Tax on Whisky.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The list of persons who he believes should be called before the Senate lobby committee in connection with his charges that a lobby has worked in the interests of liquor producers to prevent a tax on whisky and an increased levy on beer, was nearly completed today by Senator Norris of Nebraska. He made the charges in the Senate during the final discussion on the war revenue bill.

Senator Norris has already submitted an incomplete list to Chairman Overman of the committee.

Among those whom he suggests should be called are Royal E. Cabell, former commissioner of internal revenue, and Theodore E. Bell of California.

BELL EXPLAINS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Theodore Bell denied with heat today that he had worked to prevent a tax by congress on whisky and an increased levy on beer.

"I was in Washington," said Bell, "solely in the interests of the grape growers and wine makers of California, and as their counsel I conceive that I had a right to be there. I appeared openly and only before committees and sub-committees charged with consideration of the revenue measures proposing a tax of 20 cents a gallon on fortified sweet wines and 12 cents a gallon on dry wines.

"The grape growers and wine makers sought to have this tax reduced and, when imposed, to be applied in the form of a stamp tax. This was the final form of the measure advocated by Secretary McAdoo, the only alteration I sought, and the form finally adopted by congress. The tax is now 8 cents a gallon on both dry and sweet wines, applied as a stamp tax, at the time of sale.

"Senator Norris was certainly misinformed when he placed my name or that of Roy E. Cabell, who was associated with me, among those who represented the beer and whisky interests."

TROOPERS FAVOR SALVATION ARMY

General Booth's Command Makes Real Hit With Tommy Atkins.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27. — The Salvation Army has made a hit with Tommy Atkins. Three thousand of him may be seen any day at the recreation tent which the Salvation Army maintains at Colchester, devouring some 25 dozen pork pies, having a look at the magazines and newspapers, writing letters home, and occasionally participating in some religious service. But the demands for food have been so great that the army has as yet had little time for song and prayer.

The Colchester camp is only one of many where the Salvationists maintain these popular recreation tents for the volunteers. An appreciation of the work is instanced at Cambridge, where Adjutant and Mrs. Windiate of the Salvation Army served the soldiers so faithfully that the colonel in command presented his dress sword to Adjutant Windiate. He and his wife particularly distinguished themselves in caring for some 150 wounded soldiers.

Commissioner Higgins, formerly in New York with Commander Eva Booth, directed the work of these recreation centers. In addition to service at home, there are five hundred selected Salvation Army officers who have offered themselves for work with the British Red Cross and stand ready to enter the field whenever needed.

Although the charges made for food and drink are very slight, General Booth estimates he can maintain a refreshment and amusement tent for a year on $750. The Salvationists charge only two cents for a cup of tea and the same for bread and butter or a pork pie. Cool weather is making the tents unsatisfactory and moveable buildings of corrugated iron are rapidly replacing the canvas shelters.

DR. JORDAN TO LECTURE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Chancellor David Starr Jordan will speak tonight on "Some Lessons of the War" at the Scottish Rite hall, the lecture being for the benefit of the California Indians and under the auspices of the Indian Board of Co-operation. Part of Dr. Jordan's time will be given to the plight of the aborigines of this state. An Indian girl, Miss Almia Hermon, of Lake county will sing several songs. Miss Hermon never attended school until she was 16 years old, but despite this she was graduated with high honors at the age of 20 years.

TO COMMEMORATE WITH HALLOWE'EN CARNIVAL

To commemorate the installation of the new electrolier system on College avenue, at Taft avenue, through to Sixty-third street, the citizens of that district have arranged a Hallowe'en Carnival for Saturday evening. The affair will be in the nature of a mardi gras, every one attending supposed to be en costume. There will be two bands, free dancing in the Claremont school auditorium, a program of literary exercises and vocal selections by the Vernon Rockridge Improvement Club.

The fun will start at 7:30 p. m. with a flag chorus, participated in by 600 children of the Claremont school. At 8 p. m., a competitive parade will take place, for which suitable prizes will be awarded. It is expected that a large number of decorated autos will be in line. The fete will be under the protection of both police and fire departments and everyone is invited to participate in the celebration.

WOMEN HEAR ADDRESSES.

The women of the Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of this city met in the church parlors yesterday morning, Mrs. F. G. Harrison, the president, in the chair. Following routine business, they listened to an address delivered by Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland relative to the bill advanced by the late Mrs. Woodrow Wilson in Congress entitled "Improvements in the Alleys of Washington." Miss Mary Graham also addressed the society on the "California Dry" question.

U. S. WILL PROSECUTE SUSPECTED SWINDLERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27. — Louis Silverman, Benjamin Pollak, alias Heskine, and Samuel Vizhart, arrested in connection with the wholesale schemes for defrauding New York and other Eastern wholesale firms out of large bills of goods, were turned over to the Federal authorities today following the voting of indictments charging them with using the mails to defraud.

The three men were apprehended as the result of the efforts of Detective Mundell of a private agency. The scheme was to write to a large Eastern house using the name of a local firm and order the goods sent to a private address here. They were then disposed of through underground channels.

The accused were taken into custody charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses, but on the strength of the Federal violation, it was decided to turn them over to the government for prosecution.

MASONIC KNIGHTS TO HOLD LODGE DINNER

Details were outlined last night at a meeting of the order, held at the Hotel Oakland, of the semi-annual dinner of St. Philip Conclave, No. 23, of the Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine, one of the most exclusive of the inner circle Masonic organizations. F. W. Bilger, sovereign, presided at last night's meeting. The dinner will be held, probably at the hotel, some time next month.

GREECE TO OCCUPY EPIRUS.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Greek government has announced to the powers its intention of provisionally occupying Northern Epirus, owing to the necessity of suppressing the anarchy prevailing there as the result of the breakdown of the Albanian government and the flight of Prince William of Wied.

INDICTED MAN IS FINED.

Martin Fibush, who was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of abstracting public documents from the county clerk's office, pleaded guilty before Superior Judge Ogden today and was fined $100. Fibush took a letter from the files which had been introduced as evidence in the divorce case between Charles G. Fries and his wife. The letter had been written by Fibush to Mrs. Fries.

WOULD ADMINISTER ESTATE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Catherine Cassidy, widow of the late State Senator John J. Cassidy, this morning petitioned for letters of administration over his $10,000 estate.

HOLD FUNERAL OF MRS. NANNIE BELCHER

The funeral of Mrs. Nannie Prather Belcher of Piedmont was held this morning from the home of her sister, Mrs. Guy Ryker, of 153 Parkside drive, Berkeley. The obsequies were conducted by the first reader in the First Christian Science church of Berkeley.

Mrs. Belcher had made her home in Piedmont for the past seven months. She came to California as a child. She was born in Louisville, Ky., and was a member of the Thomas Prather family, being a sister of Edward C. Prather, Clarence M. Prather and Mrs. Guy Prather Ryker and cousin of Mrs. Harry East Miller and Mrs. I. Harrison Clay of this city.

The decedent is survived by her husband, Gilbert Belcher, and one son, Richard Belcher.

The body was cremated and the ashes were placed in the Prather plot in Mountain View cemetery.

FALLS THREE FLOORS.

Max Pelton, a trunk maker, stumbled through an open gate into the elevator shaft in his place of business at Eighth and Clay streets last night and fell three stories. He was taken to the Emergency hospital, where it was found that he had incurred fractures of the left forearm and of the jawbone. Pelton was treated by Dr. G. C. Reinle and Steward Davidson, and later removed to his home at 482 Twenty-fourth street.

ESCAPE FROM PRESIDIO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27. — Harry O'Neil, a prisoner at the guard house at the Presidio, escaped early this morning. The lieutenant in charge has asked the police to find him. After the manner of prisoners, O'Neil was dressed in blue overalls, with a light shirt bearing the letter "P." He is 27, 5 feet 5 inches, smooth shaven, 125 pounds, black hair.

Expel Teuton Subjects From British Territory

By Associated Press.

PEKING, China, Oct. 27.—The authorities of Hong Kong and other British possessions in China today issued orders for the expulsion from British territory of Germans and Austrian subjects, except those of military age, who will be detained. The orders become effective November 1.

SMILE VANISHES WHILE LATERO PINES IN JAIL

Juan Latero is still in the county jail but he does not smile any more. He has been in jail for the last month and it was a smile that put him there. He came from the South Seas on the ship Neptune, went for a stroll in Berkeley and while passing along the street two women in a yard smiled at him. He returned to the house later and entered the basement. Then he was arrested for attempted burglary. No one has been found to act as an interpreter in his case. Judge Ogden intimated today that if it was the custom in the South Seas to return a visit for a smile, that the custom would be respected in Oakland to that extent. But Latero will have to prove that such only was the case.

DENNISON CLUB TO MEET.

At the regular meeting of the Dennison club to be held tomorrow afternoon in the clubrooms of the society on Dennison street, Miss Marie Brehm, national temperance lecturer, will speak on the redlight abatement bill and the Prohibition amendment. J. E. Boyer will give his interpretation of the amendment. During the session a musical program will be given by Harold Hilton, violinist, and his accompanist, Miss Irene Lloyd. The meeting will be open to the public.

ASKS $10,000 DAMAGES.

Alleging that after a business disagreement, W. C. Hamilton, a salesman, gave him a severe beating and used opprobrious language in speaking to him, Anthony H. Hoban, of 1029 Fifty-ninth street, filed suit in the Superior court for $10,000 damages.

PROMOTER STOKES DYING OF POISON

Police Seek Wife of the Man Whom Berkeley Landlady Sued.

Fred A. Stokes, agent, promoter and salesman, who cut a wide swath in San Francisco's social life, and fled from the Pacific Coast following charges by Mrs. Wilhelmina Schacht of Berkeley that Stokes, Mrs. Stokes and their pet bulldog owed her a $300 board bill, is dying in the East. This is the news reaching the local authorities today. Friends are trying to find Mrs. Stokes, believed to be in Oakland or San Francisco, to inform her of her husband's condition.

Stokes, it is declared in a message from the Detroit police, is dying from the effects of poison believed to have been taken with suicidal intent. Until a late hour last night detectives worked on the case without success in finding the woman.

Stokes disappeared last May, after an exposure in which he was declared to have assumed a false name. Stokes, or Frederick Stroll, as he is said to have also been known, was formerly in the real estate business about the bay, and for a time was agent for the United Wireless Company. The suit which caused his flight was filed by Mrs. Wilhelmina Schacht, 2436 Hilgard street, Berkeley, in which she claimed $300 for a board bill, and set forth that the man had assumed a false name. Following this Stokes left the city.

RAILWAY COMBATS BRAKEBEAM GANG

Southern Pacific Hot After the Trespassers Bent on "Beating Their Way."

Preparing to combat the efforts of an organized gang bent on "beating their way," and traveling in detachments of from 10 to 25, the Southern Pacific has placed private detectives and railroad policemen along every station in Oakland, and is planning a state-wide fight in which every member of the gang discovered on a train will be thrown off.

The gangs of trespassers have been a puzzle to the officials of the road for some time. In Oakland many get aboard trains or off, and the local police seem, according to the railroad company, unable to cope with the situation. As a result, a private detective agency and the state railroad police have had to be resorted to.

One hundred special policemen have been put to work guarding the stations and trains from Portland to Oakland, and in the last three days several hundred men have been ordered from trains, but not arrested, by the railroad detectives.

It is believed by the railroad detectives that the whole gang numbers several hundred men. They travel in detachments of from 10 to 25, riding, some in freight and some in passenger trains; sometimes stealing rides on brakebeams and sometimes evading conductors on passenger coaches.

The railway policemen have been ordered to throw them off trains wherever found, and plans are being made to prosecute a number of the free passengers in the near future.

SCHOOLHOUSE SHOWERED WITH ASHES OF LASSEN

SHINGLETOWN, Oct. 27. — The school in Lassen district, which, as its name indicates, is in the neighborhood of Mt. Lassen, has prepared a suggestive exhibit for the county superintendent—something for the exposition. In the center of a large card is a fine picture of the volcano in eruption. Below is a vial containing ashes that were cast up during the eruptions and three specimens of rock that have been thrown out, all of a different character.

The Lassen schoolhouse is so close to the volcano it has been showered with ashes frequently and oftentimes pupils at their desks in school can hear the rumblings that indicate that a big eruption is coming.

AGED WOMAN MISSING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The police are searching today for Mrs. Rebecca Lamb, an aged woman of 1456 Ninth street, Oakland, who has been missing since October 23. Suffering from a recurrent illness, Mrs. Lamb left her home and her whereabouts have proved a mystery. She was 65 years old and rather feeble. When she left the house she wore a long black coat and gray skirt and black hat. She is 5 feet, 3 inches tall, weighs 100 pounds and has gray hair. Richard Lamb, of the same address, reported the disappearance.

BRIGADE INSPECTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Word received here from Fort Bliss, Texas, is to the effect that the annual tactical inspection of the Eighth brigade, being conducted by Brigadier General John J. Pershing, shows that the troops that have home station at the Presidio of San Francisco are in fine shape and undoubtedly will be the subject of a splendid efficiency report. Six months under canvas on the border has hardened the men wonderfully, and it is doubtful, officers of the brigade believe, if any troops in the army will "size up" better at the present time than the men of General Pershing's command.

HUSBAND IS SLAIN BY GUEST AT HIS PARTY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—As a tragic climax to a drunken fight at Vallejo and Stockton streets, last night, Thomas Gutierez, an orchardist of Freedam, Cal., died at 5:30 a. m. at the Central Emergency hospital. While endeavoring to rescue his wife from the savage attack of an inuriated man Gutierez fell, with a half dozen stab wounds in his back. His lung was twice punctured.

The police are searching for Raymond Lopez, said to have been the assailant.

Gutierez and his wife were temporarily residing at a hotel at Stockton and Vallejo streets, and last night gave a little party, inviting Lopez and several women. Drinks were ordered several times and the company finally decided to visit a cafe. When the sidewalk was reached, it is claimed that Lopez and Mrs. Gutierez became involved in an argument resulting in the alleged assault.

Gutierez sprang between his wife and her assailant, Mrs. Gutierez receiving only a slight wound on the hand.

She too was taken to the hospital but was able to return to the hotel.

BARRYMORE FILM SCORES BIG HIT

Success, unparalleled in theatrical circles, has attended the debut of Miss Ethel Barrymore, America's most charming actress, as a moving picture star in that classic photoplay of Augustus Thomas, "The Nightingale," now being shown at the Broadway theater, "the house with the $100,000 picture program."

Enthusiastic crowds of Barrymore admirers fill the popular playhouse at every performance, and there are six of them during the day. Congratulations are being showered upon Manager Guy C. Smith for obtaining the Alco Film Corporation's program, of which the Barrymore film is the first, for Oakland.

"Have you seen Ethel Barrymore in 'The Nightingale' at the Broadway theater yet? She's simply wonderful in this greatest of photoplays!" is the way Oaklanders are greeting one another these days. And when one has seen the Barrymore film, one does not wonder. It is to be remembered that for once all the New York critics were agreed that Ethel Barrymore achieved the triumph of her successful career in this photoplay production and that the film drama itself merited the highest commendation.

As for the popularity of the star and the picture in Oakland, the long line waiting to buy tickets for each exhibition of the photo drama is sufficient evidence. In addition, there is a most amusing western comedy in two parts.

"The Nightingale" will be shown until Sunday.—Advertisement.

IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY TO HOLD ANNUAL WHIST

Everything is in readiness for the big annual whist party and dance of the Sacred Heart Improvement Society, to be held in Sacred Heart Auditorium, Forty-first street, near Grove, Friday evening, October 30.

Accommodations have been made for 500 whist players in the new auditorium, recently remodeled through the efforts of the Improvement Society. Fifty high-class prizes will be played for. Valuable door prizes will be given. Following the card party, there will be a dance.

Funds derived are mainly for the further equipment and maintenance of the Sacred Heart Public Playgrounds, installed by the improvement society and open to the children of the neighborhood, regardless of religious or school affiliation. The society pays playground instructors and keeps up lawns, gardens, etc., and is wholly responsible for the fine physical condition of the church property at Grove and Fortieth street.

The affair will be managed by the following committees: Whist, Jas. Gartland (chairman), assisted by J. E. O'Mara, president of the society; John N. Hyland, Wm. J. Hennessey and P. Anderson; Dance—Al Weber (chairman), Joseph Laughlin, Harry McCloy. Reception—Captain J. P. Lynch (chairman), M. P. Mulhern, Eugene Orth, H. C. Yantell, A. F. McGill. Prizes—Mrs. C. Fabiano (chairman), Mrs. Wittschen, Mrs. Penella, Miss M. Flynn

FREDERICK S. STRATTON ENTITLED TO SOLID VOTE

As election day draws near, the success of Frederick S. Stratton, nominee for Associate Justice of the First District Court of Appeal, becomes more and more a certainty. Wherever Mr. Stratton has appeared in the several counties comprising the territory under the jurisdiction of this court he has been greeted with a cordiality and enthusiasm rarely accorded a candidate for a judicial position.

There are reasons for this remarkable display of sentiment on his behalf, chief of which is the well-known ability of the man. While it is true that the fact that he occupied the position of Collector of the Port of San Francisco under three Presidents, McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft, has contributed somewhat to the condition that has made his name familiar throughout the length and breadth of his native state, when the final analysis is made it is found that his popularity with the electors who will fill the important office to which he aspires is due to his talents as an attorney, the judicial character of his mind, his sterling qualities as a citizen and the faithfulness with which he has exercised all trusts during his career.

The office of Collector of the Port is not a ministerial one, although some of its duties are ministerial in nature. But for the larger part it is judicial in character and the incumbent is many times called upon to pass judgment on some of the most intricate points of law. During his incumbency Mr. Stratton sat in hundreds of cases involving the greatest accuracy of judgment, based on the most complete knowledge of the statutes, all of which were decided in a manner most acceptable to the litigants. His record was clean and not once in his entire career in that position, as well as in other walks of life, has there been a word of criticism for the conduct of Frederick S. Stratton.

During the years he filled this important place Mr. Stratton, a trained attorney of standing at the bar prior to his selection, kept up his active connection with his law business, and it is worthy of note that the records show that he filed 148 briefs in the State Supreme Court signed with his own name, and appeared before the Supreme Court of the United States in Washington in three of the most important cases.

Mr. Stratton is a native of Alameda County, a graduate of the University of California, which he has ever held in high regard. For that institution he has performed signal service. As a State Senator he drafted and pushed to passage the law enabling that great school to acquire the funds for its successful conduct of affairs. It is due to Frederick S. Stratton's abilities that the university occupies such a commanding position, for the legislation secured through his efforts was of such a staple and lasting quality that he lessened the difficulties to be encountered in financing its work. Although it is many years since Mr. Stratton was graduated with honors from its halls, he still maintains that lively interest in its affairs that characterized his conduct during his course of training and following its completion, and is now a member of the University Club, ever on the alert to take any action or play any part that will assist in the further development of the great college that has done so much to make California famous.

Mr. Stratton is a man of independent means. He does not need this office so far as money is concerned. But because thousands of his friends insisted upon his becoming a candidate and bringing to the appellate bench of the First District the results of the splendid training and ripe experience he possesses, he consented to make the race. At the primary election he polled more votes than his nearest opponent and many times more than the third candidate, who was eliminated. Had the contest been confined to the two men, Mr. Stratton or Mr. Richards, the former would have been elected at the initial election.

Mr. Stratton is making this campaign on the ground of his fitness and his reputation. He is not seeking victory by any other route. Efforts are being made throughout the district to create sympathy for his opponent, because if defeated he will be deprived of an office. This sort of campaign is indicative of weakness. But it should be recalled that Mr. Richards was appointed, not elected, to the place he holds, and he took it with the knowledge that he must submit his claims to the voters at this election. Mr. Richards accepted this office after two Superior Judges of Alameda County had refused to accept it. The action of the appointing power in tendering it to two Alameda County jurists in succession shows that it is a recognized fact that the place rightfully belongs to Alameda County.

But in advocating the claims of Frederick S. Stratton to this place THE TRIBUNE is willing to pass over that condition. It is content to present Mr. Stratton on his merits as a man, a lawyer and a jurist of the highest order. There is one matter to be mentioned, however. While the election of Mr. Stratton is assured, the people of Alameda County owe it to themselves and to Mr. Stratton to honor him with a vote practically unanimous. He is a native of this county, educated in this county, his interests are here, he is one of the foremost citizens and his election would be a credit to the community. This being true, the duty of all the citizens of Alameda County is to go to the polls and by an enormous vote elect Mr. Stratton by a majority which will show the appreciation of his friends and neighbors for such a talented gentleman, such a loyal citizen, such an able candidate for the appellate court judgeship.

Why Destroy Great Industries?

California's total investment in viticulture is approximately $15,000,000, and the wealth produced annually is about $20,000,000. There are between 320,000 and 340,000 acres in grapes, about 160,000 being devoted to the culture of wine grapes. All of the wine grapes are used at wineries and about 60 per cent of the table grapes, and a large portion of the raisin grapes, especially the second crop. Prohibition strikes a blow at the entire viticultural industry. If the amendment is carried the larger part of an investment of $150,000,000 will be ruined, and the means of making a living taken from approximately 150,000 persons.

In which direction shall these people turn to find employment after the adoption of this proposed law, which takes effect in five days from the date of the announcement by the Secretary of State that it has received the requisite majority?

Left alone, the wine industry of California will in the next decade bring to the State a revenue of a billion dollars a year. Italy, one-third smaller than California, has a revenue from her wines equal to that right now, and those of California are superior to those of Italy, because California is the only country in the world that can successfully compete with France in making of dry wines. Between 10,000,000 and 12,500,000 gallons of fine dry wines that have been awarded gold medals in the great expositions of the world are produced annually in Sonoma county. At the St. Louis fair, a jury of twenty-one, principally German and French experts, gave California the highest award for dry wines.

If the electors of this State vote to eradicate the wine industry through the enactment of the proposed amendment, not only will they vote to destroy that which we have already, but to bring about the destruction of all the prospects of the future. They will not only vote to stop the annual production of the $20,000,000 of wealth we now enjoy, but the untold millions of the future.

The verdict of men of experience all over the world is that the use of wine makes for temperance. Where wines are generally used the sale of whisky and other drinks containing high percentages of alcohol decreases. In countries where wines are in common use drunkenness is uncommon. France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Switzerland, Austria and Germany, with 200,000,000 of people, have less intoxication than Great Britain with 40,000,000, because Great Britain is not the home of the grape and cannot make wine, so her people depend upon more ardent spirits. In Italy the "pasticceria," or pleasant cafe, takes the place of the saloon, and is frequented by ladies and children. There are no screens, no concealment, for nothing occurs that requires concealment. Men, women and children alike drink wine. Children just weaned drink wine, and drunkenness is unknown in nearly every place. Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, in a statement recently made, declared he saw more intoxicated persons passing his door in one day on Thirty-fifth avenue in whisky drinking New York than he saw during twenty-five visits to wine drinking Europe.

The breweries of the State represent an investment of $50,000,000. They pay in wages $6,000,000 annually, and dependent upon the industry directly are 20,000 persons. They use $3,500,000 in materials annually, such as hops, barley and rice, all grown in California. They pay more than $1,000,000 in taxes to the State and the municipalities in which they are located.

It is proposed to wipe out this industry. What shall be substituted? Use the breweries for mills, say the prohibitionists But the machinery used in breweries is costly and to substitute it would mean a loss of millions, while brewery employes are mostly skilled laborers who could not secure employment on other lines without difficulty. So here we have a proposition to throw 4000 skilled workmen out of work, to obliterate 700 wineries, to uproot approximately 200,000 acres of grape vines, and to jeopardize the livelihood of about 150,000 men, women and children dependent upon the grape industry.

As we have stated, this act would mean the foreclosure of about $30,000,000 in mortgages on grape lands. For it follows that if the owners of the land cannot pay interest and principal they will lose them. But this is not all. The destruction of the wine and brewing interests of the state, in addition to throwing thousands out of work, confiscating millions of dollars worth of property, and destroying the homes and prospects of thousands of industrious and thrifty people, not to mention the harm wrought to allied industries, means a raise in the taxes of the commonwealth to a degree where they will be oppressive and in many cases confiscatory.

Who will pay this? Richmond Pearson Hobson of Alabama, who is filling the ears of his audiences with untruthful statements? Rev. Dr. Holderby of Philadelphia, who has left his saloon cursed city to come here and rail at the honest California grape grower? John P. St. John of Kansas, who has been beclouding the issue with perverted assertion and unsupported declamation? No, the burden will be borne by the toilers of California; its farmers, whose income from the sale of barley will be reduced; the hop growers, who will find their produce no longer in demand; the viticulturist of all kinds, who will look upon his useless fields; the glass blower, the printer, the drayman, the cooper and others now employed in allied occupations; they will pay the taxes, they will bear the burdens.

Will California vote to adopt this amendment? No. Californians who love their State and glory in its past and the possibilities of its future will vote "No" on Amendment No. 2.

Hue and Cry Based on Falsehood.

The syndicated Johnson press is engaged in an effort to scare the unthinking voters by declaring that if Fredericks is elected the direct primary law will be repealed, the State Railroad Commission will be abolished, the workmen's compensation act abrogated, and the initiative, referendum and recall wiped from the statute books. Strange as it may appear, many persons are being misled by this nonsense, for nonsense it is, and that of a most untruthful character, as is apparent from a moment's consideration.

There is no disposition on the part of the Republican party to repeal any of the laws mentioned, and well the prevaricators who are circulating these untruths know it. In the first place the Republican party conceived the direct primary plan, put it into effect and under its provisions Hiram Johnson was nominated for governor the first time. The State platform reaffirms its belief in the direct primary law, but in the light of the events of the last primary election suggests such changes as will avoid confusion and make it less cumbersome in operation and less expensive to candidates who aspire to political office.

The Republican platform reaffirms the approval and faith of the party in the State Railroad Commission law, which it gave to the State two years before Johnson was elected. The Republican party proposes to make that law more effective by removing the commission from politics and forbidding its members to actvely participate in partisan campaigns.

The Republican party has endorsed the Workmen's Compensation Act, framed and supported by Republicans, but has called attention to defects that should be corrected after thorough investigation, and proposes to make it better than it is at present.

Now under the referendum not one law can be changed or repealed unless the people consent to such change or repeal. There will be no more chance to alter or abrogate any of the laws mentioned, or any others, without the consent of the voters than there will be to amend or repeal the Decalogue. Nor will it be possible to repeal the initiative, referendum or recall for the same reason, and well the syndicated Johnson press knows this, yet with a mendacity unparalleled, its members are circulating these untruths for the purpose of deceiving the unwary. As the campaign draws to a close this sort of statement is becoming more general. It is the duty of the Republican press everywhere to challenge these untruths and to set the people right, and to do so at once.

Schaffer for the Assembly.

Louis Schaffer, Republican candidate for the Assembly in the Thirty-eighth district of Alameda county, is a business man who has lived here forty years, has served in the City Council, has achieved success and has acquired a knowledge of the needs of his district, county, city and State. He has always been a Republican and a student of the policies of his party. This has resulted in the firm conviction in his mind that which California needs right now is more legislation on business lines, more laws tending to encourage investment and to upbuild industry and less of politics.

His associates in various lines of enterprise are endorsing Mr. Schaffer for this place because of his attitude on the important questions affecting the interests of California. Petitions signed by business men in his district have been circulated and are being circulated in his behalf pledging support and are being extensively signed. From indications the election of Mr. Schaffer is assured, as it should be, for he is in every way qualified to fill the position and will be a credit to the district and the State.

After fifty years of hard luck a Chicago man determined to commit suicide by hanging himself from a railway trestle. Just as he squirmed between the ties and prepared to swing off a switch engine came along and cut the rope.. His luck turned at last.

"California," says the Sacramento Sunday News, "leads all her sister states in the Union as a producer of gold. Last year there were taken from the ancient hills and creek beds of this state 979,174 ounces of fine gold. This is a remarkable record when it is considered that California has been a consistent producer of gold for more than half a century." Nothing remarkable at all. California is keeping up its record for "consistency" in gold production.

According to George L. McCarthy, secretary of the American Meat Packer's Association, the world is facing a meat famine. The moral of this unhappy recital seems to be to set the old hen, fire up the incubator, and increase the stock of Belgian hares.

Twenty Years Ago Today

There has been a great deal of uncertainty among the members of the First Hebrew Congregation in this city as to how far they ought to go in making changes in their ritual at the manner of conducting their worship in the synagogue. It has been suggested by Rabbis Friedlander and Voorsanger that when the congregation prayed they could do so with their heads uncovered just as well as with their hats on. This sentiment was appreciated by many and opposed by others, and it seems some time may elapse before the custom which obtains in Rabbi Voorsanger's synagogue regarding uncovered heads, will be introduced on this side of the bay.

PASTOR INDUCTED AT FIRST CHURCH

Congregationalists of the Bay Cities Greet Rev. Van Horn.

Rev. Francis J. Van Horn, formerly pastor of the First Congregational church of Seattle, was installed last evening as pastor of the First Congregational church of this city. The ceremonies were preceded by a meeting of the Bay association of Congregational churches, over which Dr. Samuel C. Patterson presided as moderator.

Dr. Patterson officiated also at the installation services, which were conducted in the auditorium of the First Congregational church, Twelfth and Clay streets. He delivered the address of welcome and Dr. Washington Gladden of Columbus, Ohio, preached the installation sermon.

After the address of welcome, dinner was served in the church parlors by the members of the Young Ladies' Guild of the church. Several hundred visitors representing the churches of the bay cities were seated at the tables.

The general meeting followed the dinner. The services opened with an organ prelude by Miss Virginie de Fremery, organist of the First Congregational church. In the services of the evening, Rev. S. C. Patterson was assisted by Rev. A. W. Palmer, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church of this city; Rev. L. D. Rathbone, secretary of the Northern California Congregational conference; Rev. C. L. Mears pastor of the First Congregational church of Alameda, and Rev. Raymond C. Brooks, pastor of the First Congregational church of Berkeley.

ELOQUENT SERMON.

In a scholarly address upon the subject, "What Is the Bible Really Worth?" Dr. Washington Gladden said:

"The old idea is to make the Bible the dictator of your religion and to impose it upon you. The orthodox adherents declared that to question anything the Bible says is depravity.

"The Bible does not assert that orthodoxy is not the divine method of dealing with men. When God gave men freedom he abandoned coercion. God wanted virtue—virtue is not the product of power. You are not expected to accept anything in the Bible without using your reason.

"Let the Bible speak for itself; that is far better than to let it be introduced to you as a dictator of your thoughts. The Bible is like a gold mine—you have to know how to mine for its treasures. To accept everything in the Bible without reason is lying.

"Lying is bad business, even if it is for God. To lose your intellectual integrity is to lose your soul. The theory that everything in the Bible is true and good is as false as the idea that everything that grows out of the earth is good for food. We must learn to select our foods and we must learn to use the Bible."

There will be a home gathering of the church and its friends next Wednesday evening and the ceremonies will end Friday evening.

U. S. TROOPS TO LEAVE COLORADO NEXT MONTH

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 27.—Governor E. M. Ammons stated yesterday that he would soon advise President Wilson that on or about November 15 Federal troops in the Colorado coal strike fields could be withdrawn and that the state would re-assume the responsibility for the maintenance of order in the coal strike zone.

Adjutant-General Chase last night intimated that he did not believe the state troops would be fully prepared to relieve Federal troops by November 15. He stated that 402 of the militia are in the southern strike field and that there were 1100 militiamen elsewhere in the state. The equipment of the men, however, he said, was incomplete. One hundred thousand rounds of ammunition and 1000 uniforms were received yesterday.

The Federal troops, numbering about 1800, have been in the state's coal strike fields since May 1. No act of violence has occurred in the strike fields since the arrival of the Federal troops, which was followed by a general disarmament of mine guards and strikers.

TITANIC SURVIVORS WED.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 27.—It became known here last night that Mrs. Lucien P. Smith, a survivor of the Titanic disaster, was married secretly last August in New York to Robert W. Daniel of Philadelphia, also a Titanic survivor. Mrs. Daniel lost her first husband in the disaster. Daniel was picked up out of the sea and rescued by the lifeboat which carried the then Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Madeline Force-Astor, widow of John Jacob Astor. Mrs. Daniel is the daughter of James A. Hughes of Huntington.

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy, Inexpensive but Unequaled

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 54 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent loose cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

DEACONS IN QUEER CLASS.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 27.—"The most serious thing faced by the churches yesterday, particularly the Baptist, is furnished by the deacons, many of whom are nothing more than moral thermos bottles and fireless cookers, showing religious fire occasionally because they find things already heated," was the statement of Dean Shaller Mathews of the University of Chicago, in an address before the New Jersey Baptist Convention here yesterday.

BURGLAR SUSPECT TAKEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Patrolman G. L. Lance, attracted by the noise of hammering, went to the corner of Market and Gough street this morning in time to capture Wm. Murray, who had just ransacked the cigar stand of Julius Zint. Three pipes and a bottle of whisky, alleged to have been taken from the place, were found in Murray's possession. He was booked for burglary.

IS ROBBED DOWNTOWN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Albert Anderson, who lives at the New York House, 753 Howard street, was held up by two men at 3:30 o'clock this morning at Post street and Grant avenue and robbed of $3.

TWO ATTEMPT SUICIDE WITH IDENTICAL POISON

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Two men, tired of the sombre round of work and play, an occasional taste of the bright lights, attempted suicide in identical fashion this morning. Both are on the road to recovery. Thomas Fisher, of 686 Sixth street, Oakland, came here with William Rifford, of the same address, to spend the evening. The pair missed the last boat home and hired a room at 417 Kearny street. At 4:15 a. m. Rifford was aroused by Fisher, who had swallowed some bichloride of mercury tablets. He was rushed to the Harbor Hospital.

The second victim was Eugene Allwell, 175 Clara street. He repented of his effort at self-destruction almost immediately after he had swallowed three of the little pink lozenges and ran all the way to the southern station, where he begged the lieutenant to send him to the hospital. He was transferred to the Central Emergency Hospital.

MANUFACTURERS TO HEAR OF EXPOSITION

Details of the work of the Panama-Pacific exposition will be heard tomorrow at the luncheon of the Manufacturers' Committee, to be held at the Hotel Oakland. W. D. Egilbert, commissioner-at-large for the exposition; F. A. Leach Jr., president of the county exposition commission, and others will speak, telling of the space available for exposition displays and other details. F. S. Gaines and John Z. White will also be heard.

VETERAN FALLS INTO WATER; IS RESCUED

VALLEJO, Oct. 27.—The waters of Mare Island channel almost claimed another victim when George W. Miller, a Civil War veteran, fell overboard from the Monticello Steamship Company's wharf. Miller, who had imbibed too freely, went down the wharf and sat on the edge of the dock, going to sleep and falling overboard. A young man who witnessed the veteran drop into the bay managed to get the latter near a pile where he hung on until three employes of the dredger rowed to his assistance and landed him on the float.

G. A. R. FUNERAL.

VALLEJO, Oct. 27.—The funeral of the late George W. Sargent, who passed away in Lodi last Thursday, took place from McDonald's Mortuary Chapel yesterday afternoon. Rev. C. B. Sylvester, pastor of the Methodist Church officiating. The funeral was under the auspices of Farragut Post No. 4, G. A. R., and the interment was in the Grand Army plot in Union Cemetery.

WIRELESS FOR CRUISER.

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 27.—The cruiser San Diego is to have a powerful wireless set installed before she leaves Mare Island on November 15 for La Paz, Mexico. The set is capable of sending and receiving long distance messages and the San Diego will be able to exchange radiograms both day and night with the Point Loma plant near San Diego while she is stationed in Mexican waters.

ENGINES NEAR COMPLETION.

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 27.—Machinery Department officers at Mare Island announced today that they will complete the job of constructing the engines for the new oil barges about the 1st of December. The boilers for the lighters will be finished and ready to be installed by December 15.

DREDGER AT WORK.

VALLEJO, Oct. 27. — The Northern American dredger is once again at work deepening the channel in the vicinity of Maine street wharf. The mud is being pumped across Mare Island into San Pablo bay.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR MAMMA, DAD, BABY, 'CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS'

Better Than Calomel, Oil or Salts for Liver, Bowels and Stomach.

Mother, daddy and the children can always keep feeling fine by taking this delicious fruit laxative as occasion demands. Nothing else cleanses the stomach, liver and bowels so thoroughly without griping.

You take a little at night and in the morning all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and fermenting food, delayed in the bowels, gently moves out of the system. When you awaken all headache, indigestion, sourness, foul taste, bad breath, fever and dizziness is gone; your stomach is sweet, liver and bowels clean, and you feel grand.

"California Syrup of Figs" is a family laxative. Everyone from grandpa to baby can safely take it and no one is ever disappointed in its pleasant action. Millions of mothers know that it is the ideal laxative to give cross, sick, feverish children. But get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups on each bottle. Refuse with contempt the cheaper Fig Syrups and counterfeits. See that it bears the name—"California Fig Syrup Company."

WAS CONTEMPORARY OF JEFFERSON; PASSES AWAY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 27.—Thomas G. Fagg, former judge of the Missouri Supreme Court and one of the few men of this age who knew Thomas Jefferson, died at the Missouri Baptist sanitarium here today. He was 93 years old and had been growing weak during the last few years. Fagg was born at Charlottesville, Va., on a plantation adjoining the plantation of Thomas Jefferson. At the dedication of the Jefferson memorial here last year he made an address in which he described Jefferson's personal appearance. The body will be taken to Louisiana, Mo., for burial.

Fagg was a member of the State Supreme Court during the Civil war. He was also colonel of the Pike county reserve regiment. Later he was postmaster at Louisiana, where his wife died four years ago. He is survived by a daughter and three sons. The latter are John Flagg of San Francisco, E. B. Fagg of Minneapolis and Clark Fagg of Milwaukee. The daughter is Mrs. C. W. Bright of this city.

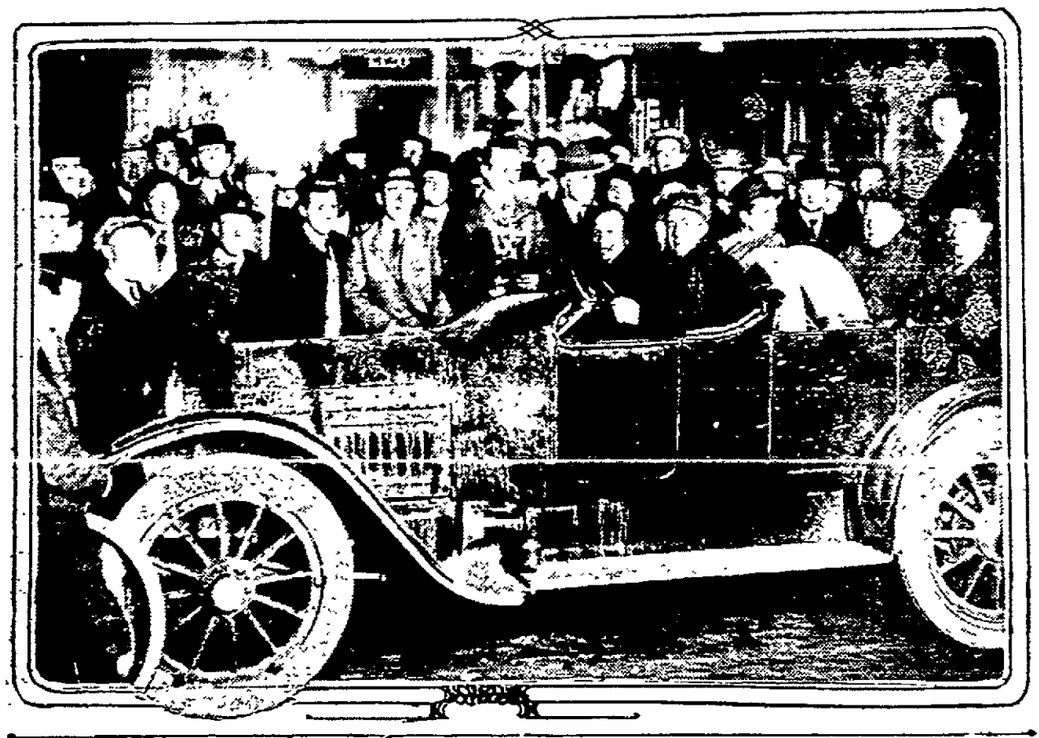
PAIGE CAR SMASHES RECORD TO LAKE TAHOE AND RETURN



THE PAIGE CAR AND ITS INTREPID PILOTS UPON ARRIVING IN OAKLAND LAST NIGHT AFTER SETTING THE PHENOMENAL TIME RECORD OF 15 HOURS AND 17 MINUTES FOR THE OAKLAND TO TALLAC AND RETURN TRIP OVER THE HAZARDOUS PLACERVILLE MOUNTAIN ROADS.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

From Oakland to Tallac, on the shores of Lake Tahoe, and return in 15 hours and 17 minutes, is the automobile record set yesterday by the Paige car driven by A. R. Dawson, Fay Sheets and Alden McElrath in one of the most strenuous exhibitions of consistent motor car performances ever staged on the steep grades of the Sierra Nevada mountains.

The distance, 458 miles, embraces the entire trip across the state and back again. Tallac being but a few miles from the Nevada state line, represents the utmost eastern point of habitation in California. Oakland, the starting point on the shores of San Francisco bay, represents the extreme western point. The record set by the Paige car was without doubt one of the most remarkable demonstrations of automobile efficiency ever accomplished over this hazardous mountain trip.

The Tahoe records have caused a great deal of rivalry between agents and motorists in this part of the state, but it has been left to the Paige machine to establish a long-distance, round-trip record to the lake, and the performance of this popular-priced car yesterday will undoubtedly create unusual interest throughout the country.

This remarkable trip also establishes an exceptional record for tsrdiness and endurance, for the trip embodied all sorts of roads and grades that subjected the car and the motor to a most severe strain.

To any one who has ever toured to Lake Tahoe by way of Tallac, the record of the Paige car will be looked upon with wonder, for to make up for the good highways in Alameda, San Joaquin and Sacramento conties, the stretch of El Dorado county road between Folsom and Placerville is nothing but a series of ruts, holes and dust that make the going exceedingly difficult and trying on both driver and car.

Yet the Paige car went over this going without a mishap, negotiating these 44 miles of poor roadway in 1 hour and 25 minutes, and then starting up the grade to the Summit and down again to Myers and the lake without a stop.

EARLY MORNING START.

The start was made at 3:30 a. m. from Broadway and Fourteenth street in Oakland, with Dawson at the wheel. He piloted the car to Sacramento in 2 hours and 44 minutes. Sheets then took the wheel and drove the 44 miles to Placerville in 1 hour and 25 minutes, and then McElrath became pilot, making the 21 miles between Placerville and Riverton in 50 minutes. Dawson then took command again and drove the car from Riverton over the summit and on to Tallac, reaching the resort at 10:55 a. m., 7 hours and 25 minutes after leaving the starting place.

Thirteen minutes after arriving at Tallac, or just as soon as they had their papers officially signed, the intrepid drivers were again on the road. Sheets took the wheel at the lake and drove over the summit to Riverton, where he turned the car over to McElrath, who drove to Placerville. At the latter town Sheets again took the wheel and piloted the car to Sacramento, where Dawson again became driver and piloted the car back to the starting point, arriving at 6:48 p. m., just 7 hours and 40 minutes actual running time from Tallac, or 15 hours and 17 minutes after leaving this point.

DAWSON TELLS OF TRIP.

In telling of the trip last evening Dawson said: "We made this run merely to prove Don Lee's claim of the sturdiness of the Paige motor and of the general construction of the car. Our success has surely poven these claims. The run was certainly a severe strain on the car, yet it did not falter once, and reached this city again 'shooting on all four' just as it left.

"We did not have one puncture. The only mishap that occurred was the snapping of the tire rack in the rear of the car when we went over the rough road between Folsom and Placerville. We picked up our tires, carried them in the tonneau and had no further trouble.

"We could have made much better time, but three miles out of Sacramento we were delayed seven minutes by a stalled freight train across the highway, and then in the mountains between Riverton and the summit we encountered three herds of cattle and a flock of 4000 sheep that checked our progress both going and returning."

In making the round-trip record the Paige car wins the Lynn Stanley perpetual challenge cup, which was offered by the popular Oakland merchant. The Don Lee people will hold the trophy until the Paige record is lowered, and from present indications it will be some time before any one will attempt to cut it.

Lake Tahoe and Return

In 15 Hours and 17 Minutes—Record Smashed by the

1915 PAIGE "36"

458 Miles across the state over the hazardous roads of the Sierra Nevada mountains in the actual elapsed time of 15 hours and 17 minutes with no mechanical adjustments or tire changes.

The most remarkable record of consistent running ever established by a motor car.

Yesterday this dependable Paige '36' stock touring car carrying four heavy persons left Oakland at 3:30 a. m. and returned at 6:48 p. m., having established this remarkable Lake Tahoe round trip road record of 15 hours and 17 minutes elapsed time. The first time any car has made the round trip run from Oakland to Tahoe and return in a single day.

SIX REASONS FOR EXPOSITION BONDS

Alameda County, Greatest Beneficiary, Should Keep Its Pledge.

Constitutional amendment, No. 17, is for the specific purpose of enabling Alameda county to bond itself in the sum of $1,000,000 in order that it shall fulfill its promise to the Panama-Pacific International exposition.

Citizens of Alameda county will reap great benefits from this world's exposition, and having the forethought to propose this subscription of $1,000,000 to the Panama-Pacific International exposition should and will not hesitate to fulfill the pledge, thus insuring her commercial integrity.

This is not San Francisco's exposition, it is California's exposition. It is California's opportunity. It is Alameda county's special opportunity.

The voters of Alameda county should support this amendment:

Because the resolution of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, under date of January 17, 1911, was the chief element that influenced Congress to give San Francisco and California the 1915 exposition.

MANY VISITORS.

Because nearly 100 of 300 organized societies will hold their 1915 convention on the east side of the bay. This alone will bring at least $5,000,000 directly into Alameda county.

Because the exposition directors have provided the east side of the bay with direct ferry service, which means that thousands of visitors will make their homes in Alameda county during their visit to the fair. The direct ferry service to the exposition will alone be worth $1,000,000 to Alameda county.

Because the visitors attracted by the exposition will spend [illegible] than $200,000,000 in [illegible]ifornia in 1915. Every city [illegible] will receive a portion of this [illegible] but Alameda county will unquestionably be the greatest beneficiary.

Because the exposition management in carrying on this vast enterprise contemplates the use of the promised $1,000,000 from Alameda county, thus insuring the greatest exposition in all time.

Because we will not have an equal opportunity in a generation to be the host to so many visitors representing so many countries, industries and modern achievements.

Let us all pull together for the exposition and never let it be said that Alameda county failed to do her duty.

AGENT PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

H. R. Eckert, an insurance agent, was arraigned today and pleaded not guilty to a charge of misdemeanor embezzlement. C. E. McFarland, 6650 East Fourteenth street, alleged that Eckert failed to turn over a $10 premium.

This Leaves the Skin Free From Hairy Growths

(Toilet Talks)

A simple method for completely removing every trace of hair or fuzz is here given. This is painless and usually a single treatment will banish even stubborn growths. To remove hairs make a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface, and after about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This method will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be certain you get delatone.

POLICEMAN ROBBED OF STAR AND COAT WHILE ON PATROL

The warm summer weather has not in fact driven the Oakland Police Department to adopt for street wear a shirt waist costume, although passersby at Fourteenth and Broadway today got that impression when they saw Patrolman J. J. Dunn marching haughtily through the streets clad only in shirt, trousers and regulation cap. Patrolman Dunn paid no attention to the comments of those he passed. He turned his face neither to right nor left, but made in a bee line for the city hall.

"Why this unseemly deshabille?" demanded Lieutenant William Woods, who has an idiosyncrasy for confounding his subordinates with sesquipedalian language.

"I beg to report, sir," explained the officer, "that while I was washing my hands at the lavatory of the Southern Pacific station, a miscreant stole my coat, with my police star, my vest, containing a gold watch and other belongings."

Dunn was detailed in overalls and jumper to assist Sergeant Jack Sherry in the police automobile garage for the balance of the day.

S. S. Adeline Smith Docks After Mishap

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The steamer Adeline Smith, which figured in a collision with the steamer Svea early yesterday morning, reached port at 8:20, and Captain Olson gave full details of the accident. Fortunately neither vessel was seriously damaged. The Svea was reported at 8:50 a. m. passing Point Reyes en route here.

At 3 a. m. yesterday while the Adeline Smith was proceeding at half speed in a heavy fog the Svea suddenly loomed up on the starboard side. The order to back engines came quickly and a disastrous collision was avoided by a narrow margin. The Svea backed away and Captain Olson stood by to find what damage had been done to her.

Matsonia Encounters Cruiser Near Hawaii

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The steamer Matsonia of the American line, which arrived at 9 o'clock this morning from Honolulu, encountered the Japanese cruiser Hizen scouting near the Hawaiian Islands on the day of her departure. The vessel is believed to have been lying in wait for the German warship Geyer which is in the port of Honolulu. The captain of the Hizen had previously announced that he would wait for the Geyer for a month if necessary and in the event that the German gunboat should be emboldened to put to sea, a sharp fight in Pacific waters may result. The cable has brought no word of any encounter since the Matsonia sailed.

CHARGED WITH BATTERY.

REPUBLICANS TO FINISH CAMPAIGN

County Central Committee Appropriates Funds for Whirlwind Finish.

A whirlwind finish to the Republican campaign in Alameda county was decided upon today at a meeting of the executive committee of the County Central Committee.

The report of the campaign committee on meetings arranged for to be held throughout the county was accepted and the necessary funds appropriated to defray the expenses thereof.

Meetings will be held in Albany, West Berkeley, South Berkeley, Central Berkeley, North Oakland, Santa Fe Tract, West Oakland, Alden, in the Lakeside district, Fourth Avenue Terrace, Dimond, Allendale, Fruitvale, Elmhurst, Niles, Centerville, Pleasanton and Livermore. The arrangements of these meetings includes brass bands, bonfires, red fire, able speakers and all that goes to make up the old fashioned Republican rally.

The enthusiasm with which Captain John D. Fredericks, Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland and Geo. H. Derrick were greeted on their whirlwind trip through the county Saturday has convinced the members of the central committee that the tide has turned to Fredericks, and they propose to finish up the campaign in a blaze of glory.

At the meeting of the County Central Committee to be held this evening at 1010 Broadway, final arrangements will be made whereby every voting booth within the county will be covered by a well organized force of watchers, whose business it will be to prevent a repetition of the gross election fraude perpetrated at the August primary election.

Reports which are constantly coming into the Republican headquarters indicate that a very large Republican vote will be cast in this county, the members of that party having become so wrought up over the method pursued by the Progressive organization that they propose to register their protests in a positive manner on November 3.

Meetings scheduled yesterday are as follows:

Wednesday, Oct. 28—Elmhurst, Redman's hall, 8 o'clock; Lorin, Lincoln hall, Alcatraz and King, 8 p. m.

Thursday, Oct. 29.—Berkeley, Twentieth Century Club house, 2766 Derby street, 2:30 o'clock; Alameda County Women's Republican Club; Fourth Avenue Terrace, Glenview Club house, 8 p. m.

Friday, Oct. 30—West Berkeley, Finnish hall, Ninth street, between Bristol and Delaware, 8 p. m.; Niles, Conner's hall, 8 p. m.

Saturday, Oct. 31—Pleasanton, 2:30 p. m.; Livermore, Sweeney's Opera House, 8 p. m.

Recall Election in Portland Being Held

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 27.—The first municipal recall election in Portland's history is being held today, the electorate to decree whether Mayor H. R. Albee and Commissioners Robert G. Dieck and William L. Brewster shall continue in office or be retired.

WOULD HEAR FROM SON.

The Oakland police have been asked by Mrs. Thomas Mohan, 217 College street, Butler, Pennsylvania, to assist in the search for her son, James Leo Mohan, whom she has not heard from since last June. At that time he received his honorable discharge from the U. S. army, and wrote his mother he was going to the oil fields. She is broken in health and wishes to hear from him.

SPROULE DENIES POLITICS IN S. P.

He Refutes Johnson's Charge of Attempt to Influence Election.

Referring to the charge that the Southern Pacific company had recently laid off a large number of men at the Sacramento and Los Angeles shops for political reasons, President William Sproule of the Southern Pacific company last night authorized the following statement:

"It is to be regretted that the governor of the state and the chairman of the railroad commission labor under misapprehension. Our management laid off men in all the states west of Portland, Ogden and El Paso. It did not occur to our people that in California this action would be given a political aspect. Our shop forces and maintenance of way forces were laid off similarly last month, and if our earnings continue to drop, will be, next month. The object of making the reductions at the close of the month is because of the hope that earnings may improve as the month passes: if they did, it would avoid the necessity of making any reduction in the payrolls.

TREMENDOUS DECREASE.

"In the past three months our passenger business was nearly $1,300,000 less than same three months last year. Our net earnings for the same period from all business carried were $800,000 less than last year. It is these declines in earnings that are affecting our working forces. It is not a question of state boundaries. The passenger car shop forces, for example, have been laid off 15 days in October. The usual amount of passenger equipment is not required owing to reduced travel.

"It can fairly be said that if we had been thinking of politics the men might not have been laid off at this time, but this company is not doing politics, and if we adopted that course it would have made it necessary to lay the men off just that much longer next month, which would be the greater hardship. I am satisfied that our employes know that we are reluctant to lay them off and do so only when it cannot be helped. They know that when we prosper they are prosperous. Our employes also know that we are not endeavoring to influence their political action in any way. The company is not for nor against any political candidate.

"The questions of bookkeeping discussed are all in accordance with the rules prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission and are under the inspection of the commissions. There is no secret about them. The governor truly says, 'Today the state of California regulates the Southern Pacific company.'"

PAROLED MAN IN JAIL.

State Parole Officer White today recognized Edward R. Miller, serving 100 days for carrying concealed weapons, as a paroled burglar from Folsom. He will probably be returned to the penitentiary.

DIVIDEND CUT BY U. S. STEEL

Judge Gary Says Business Conditions and Prospects Compelled Action.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The United States Steel corporation voted this afternoon a quarterly dividend of one-half of 1 per cent on the common stock. This is at the rate of 2 per cent per year. Heretofore the dividend has been 5 per cent.

The regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock was declared.

The total earnings of the corporation for the quarter ending September 30 were $22,276,002. This net income for the quarter was $14,682,022.

For the first time this year there was a surplus for the quarter. It was $89,479.

Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board, issued this statement in connection with the dividend on the common stock:

"The decision concerning the dividend was made with reluctance by the board of directors, but they were of the opinion that it was made necessary by the present conditions of business and the prospects for the immediate future."

Returns for the quarter ending September 30 showed net earnings more than $1,800,000 in excess of the earnings for the previous quarter, which was $20,457,596. The net income for the quarter ending September 30 is approximately $1,400,000 in excess of the income for the preceding quarter, which was $12,297,628. In place of a deficit, which was $5,159,237, for the quarter ending June 30, there is a surplus of $89,479.

QUIT MEAT? NO!

You need not stop eating meat for fear of your kidneys. Your system requires its strength-giving qualities. If, however, you feel that it sometimes works against you, just take two or three GOLDMEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules each day for a couple of weeks, stop for a week, then begin again. There is nothing new and experimental about them. They are an old, harmless combination of oil and herbs, which will keep your kidneys and bladder working fine and carry away all rheumatic pains and ill effects from any uric acid producing food. But when you go to the drug store, get the original Genuine Haarlem Oil in Capsules, GOLD MEDAL. They are imported direct from Holland. Guaranteed and sold by The Owl Drug Co.

AUTO ORDINANCE GOES TO COURT

Supreme Justices to Decide Controversy Between City and County.

Habeas corpus proceedings before the State Supreme Court were instituted today to test the Oakland traffic ordinance in the controversy between Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen and District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, as to whether the city of Oakland or the county shall receive the revenue from fines levied against speed violators. Glenn Shook a chauffeur, arrested early this morning for speeding, consented to be the means by which the law will be tested and the controversy settled.

Shook was arrested at Twenty-ninth and Grove streets at 2 o'clock by Corporal Pullman and Patrolman Oakes for speeding. He said that if the police wanted to use him to test the law they were welcome to do so, and Patrolman Turcotte, acting under Chief Petersen's orders, swore to a complaint charging violation of the city ordinance. The warrant was issued and served, being made returnable in Judge Mortimer Smith's court.

Shook did not ask for bail, and was held in durance vile in the office of Chief Petersen while City Attorney Ben F. Woolner drew up the petition to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus. By special arrangement this will be handled as expeditiously as possible.

The form of the complaint and all the procedure was agreed upon between the district attorney's office and the city attorney. Shook will be released on bond when the amount is named by the Supreme Court.

Pending the settlement, other speed cases have been continued in the police courts, and no complaints have as yet been filed.

POSITIVELY MASTERS CROUP.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cuts the thick choking mucus, and clears away the phlegm. Opens up the air passages and stops the hoarse cough. The gasping, strangling fight for breath gives way to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. Harold Berg Mass, Mich., writes: "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for croup and it always acts quickly." No wonder a man in Texas waked 15 miles to the store to get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Every user is a friend. Sold everywhere.

CLAIMS TO BE BLACKMAIL VICTIM

Central Figure in Notorious Expose Gives Sensational Testimony.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27. — Octavius Morgan, wealthy architect and central figure in the Jonquil rooming house exposo of 1913, told for the first time yesterday how he surrendered $2500 to save the name of his family, and particularly his daughter, who was about to be married, from disgrace. He was called as a witness for the Government against Charles S. McKelvey and W. H. Stevens, accused of having conspired to use the mails to blackmail certain wealthy residents of the community

Morgan also told of his relations with the Jonquil and why he visited the place, steadfastly denying throughout a vigorous examination that he engaged the young habitues of the place socially. He went to the Jonquil, he said, on business, and every visit he made was in the interest of his profession. He was seeking, at the request of the proprietress of the place, a new location for her.

ALLEGES CONSPIRACY.

When K. H. Stevens, one of the defendants, came to him with the information that he was about to be named in a suit for damages for the alleged seduction of Mrs. Irene Marie Brown-Levy, an inmate of the Jonquil, Morgan realized that he had been singled out as the victim of a blackmailing plot, he testified, yet it did not make him angry. He realized that a cool head was the best asset in such a contingency, he said:

"If you were not incensed; if you were not angry, how did you feel about it?" asked Ona Morton, counsel for the defense. "What did you think of this plot to blackmail you?"

"I thought it was hell," was the reply, "and I wondered what was coming next."

"Why did you not publicly proclaim to the world then that you were innocent? Why did you not deny this charge, publicly?"

"I may not have used the best judgment," was the calm reply, "but $2500 was a small amount to stand between my family and myself and disgrace."

REFUSED TO ANSWER.

When Morgan was called as a witness of the State against George H. Bixby, the Long Beach millionaire, who was accused in the Superior Court of having contributed to the delinquency of Marie Brown Levy and others, he refused to answer pertinent questions, explaining to the trial judge that he feared such answers would incriminate him. He was called upon yesterday to explain why he made such answers in view of his statements that he had not been intimately acquainted with the girls who accused him. He said he feared only the notoriety that would attend such a public examination and that he declined to answer on advice of his attorney.

The witness said he went to the Jonquil upon telephonic request of Mrs. Josie Rosenberg, who operated the place, and that he gave her professional advice. He returned on several occasions subsequently on similar missions. On each visit, he admitted, he saw young girls in the corridors of the place and bowed to them, but did not even converse with them.

TEMBLOR IN ITALY

Earthquake Felt in Several Cities Is Severest at Florence.

FLORENCE, Italy, Oct. 27, via Rome, 1:10 p. m.—A severe earthquake shock was felt in this city today. The inhabitants were thrown into a condition of panic, but the shock did little damage.

There have been earth disturbances in the northern part of Italy for 24 hours. A severe shock was recorded at Turin yesterday morning and a slight quake occurred at the same place between 5 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon. At a point fourteen miles west of Turin shocks continued during the whole day. Up to the present time no great damage or loss of life has been reported.

MILAN ALSO SHAKEN.

MILAN, Italy, Oct. 27, via Rome.—An earthquake was recorded in Milan this morning. Considerable alarm was caused among the people, but there were no casualties.

PEOPLE PANIC-STRICKEN.

TURIN, via Rome, Oct. 26, 11:50 p. m.—Another slight earthquake shock occurred here at 5:20 this afternoon. At Avighana, sixteen miles west of Turin, the shocks continued during the day. The population is panic-stricken and is camping in the open air, notwithstanding the fact that the weather is intensely cold.

LANE PRAISES NEWLANDS.

RENO, Nev., Oct. 27.—"No power on earth can stand against his election in another two years," said Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, referring to President Wilson in a public address here last night in aid of the candidacy of Francis G. Newlands for re-election to the United States Senate. It came at the close of a tribute to the achievements of the administration. Secretary Lane spoke at the Truckee-Carson reclamation project in Fallon during the day. He left last night for San Francisco.

BURNED TO DEATH

Japanese Loses Life in Blaze at Old Tavern Cafe and Loding House.

S. Fujii, a Japanese, was burned to death last night in a fire at 376-378 Seventh street, formerly the Tavern cafe and a lodging house. The fire gained considerable headway before the department arrived, and Fujii was unable to find his way through the smoke and flames which choked the hallways in escaping from the upper floor of the lodging house. He was burned about the head, face, arms and upper part of the body, and died two hours after being taken to the Receiving Hospital.

The origin of the fire has not been discovered. The blaze was noticed by passersby about 9 o'clock last night and the fire department was summoned. The old structure burned like so much tinder, and caused damage amounting to over $3000.

During the work of fighting the fire, Martin Carlson, a truckman in the fire department, fell through the roof of the place and sustained lacerations of the left arm and hip which necessitated his removal to the Receiving hospital.

The property destroyed is one of the old landmarks of Oakland. The old Tavern cafe was formerly conducted by Tim Muldowney, and was one of the resorts in the lower part of town which occasionally became notorious. It was in this cafe that Jack London, the novelist, engaged in a bout of fisticuffs with Muldowney which led to a court trial, and inspired London to write one of his well known short stories.

The property changed hands after the place was closed by the police, and is now owned by H. Yoshino, and contains a lodging house and a fish market. It is believed that the fire started in the rear of the lodging house.

Says Mann Is Logical G. O. P. Choice for 1916

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27. — "Congressman James R. Mann of Chicago would be the logical candidate for President in 1916," declared Champ Clark, speaker of the House of Representatives, in an address at St. Charles, Mo., near here, last night.

Clark today began a campaign for re-election in his district, and after several days may tour the state in behalf of the Democratic Congressional candidates.

ARMY TRANSPORT ARRIVES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—U. S. army transport Buffalo arrived here this morning from Alaska bringing a large crew of wireless experts. These men have been engaged in installing and equipping wireless stations along the Alaskan coast under the direction of the government. It is understood that the Buffalo will undergo a general overhauling.

BOOTHS ARE GAY

Society Matrons Hard at Work in Interests of Young Oakland.

With gay booths and decorations already in place on the roof garden of the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets, and crowded programs of festivities for each day arranged, every preparation for a brilliant opening of the Hallowe'en fair on Thursday evening is complete.

Stimulated by an interest in the Baby Hospital, a recently established institution in Oakland, this fete was planned as a benefit by the directors of the Baby Hospital Association. For weeks Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley society matrons and debutantes have been sewing ceaselessly to make the success of the event a foregone conclusion.

There are special inducements offered to attract men. A rest room, where men may smoke in comfort and seclusion has been provided, and a special luncheon to which business men and professional men are invited will be served on Friday and Saturday from 11:30 to 2 o'clock. Mrs. S. M. Marks, who has charge of this feature, announces that the luncheon will compare with the best served anywhere in town.

Men are also to assist in the disposal of wares. Eligibles of Oakland society will "spiel" in front of the booths where the members of the branches preside over fancy articles for sale. Among the spielers will be Fred Sherman, Philip Clay, Ralph Phelps, Ben Reed, Harrison Clay, Ben F. Woolner and others.

DANCING DAILY.

While the dinner dance which will be attended by crowds of the elite on Thursday evening will be the important event of the three days, there will be attractive features for the following afternoons and evenings, when dancing will be in progress continually.

On Saturday when many children will attend, a reading of "Alice in Wonderland" will be given by Mrs. Alwyn Stebbins of Berkeley.

Amusement plans include a photograph gallery where permanent souvenirs can be made, a country store, a fish pond, a cane bureau and a mysterious "Mignon, the Disappearing Lady."

Program for the three days of hilarious benefit is outlined as follows:

Thursday Evening—Opening dinner dance and exhibition dance. Opening of the booths.

Friday, 11:30 to 2 p. m.—Luncheon. Afternoon dansant, story-telling hour for children, evening nickel dance. Fred Sherman, floor manager.

Saturday, 11:30 to 2 p. m.—Luncheon. Afternoon dansant. Reading for children. Neapolitan Mandolin and Guitar Club. Evening—Hallowe'en dance. U. C. Glee Club singing. Auction—Speiler, Ralph Phelps.

It is expected at the end of the festivities to add a very substantial sum to the new charity which interests not only the socially prominent, but most of the people of Oakland.

POLICE ARE ACCUSED BY FATHER

Sensational Developments Are Sequel in Murder Case Arrest.

That Percy Tugwell, the youth arrested in San Francisco and rushed to Los Angeles to face a charge of murdering Mrs. P. B. A. Kennedy, after several hours' secret imprisonment in the "sweat box" of the Oakland police, was plied with liquor and given cigarettes until, in a state of nervous collapse, he made his "confession," is the charge of John T. Tugwell, the boy's father, and Cleveland Schultz, Los Angeles attorney. The two men declare that the boy was given beer and whiskey in Los Angeles, and also about thirty boxes of cigarettes, and that it was under the influence of these that he declared that he had killed the woman.

Tugwell was arrested in San Francisco, but brought to Oakland for "sweatbox" treatment by the Los Angeles detectives on the case, and later, when the man was taken to Los Angeles, it was declared that he had confessed. Mrs. Kennedy, a wealthy Los Angeles woman, was found dead in a vacant lot, and her jewels stolen.

According to Attorney Schultz and Tugwell, the boy's father, the prisoner was on the verge of hysteria when his "confession" was made. It disagrees with the facts in material spots, and even the police are puzzled by the case.

PLIED WITH LIQUOR.

That Tugwell was plied with liquor is the direct charge of the attorney, Schultz. "The boy had not had his lunch," declared the lawyer, "and they gave him beer and whiskey. Later, on the day following, the boy was so affected that he was entirely irresponsible, through the liquor he had drunk. In three days he was given thirty boxes of cigarettes. He was a nervous wreck when he reached Los Angeles.

"One of the detectives who had questioned Tugwell here holds to the theory that Tugwell only assisted in the murder. This alleged detective is one of the persons who have made suggestions to Tugwell. I am sure that the young man was irresponsible when he made the alleged confession, and I believe that his statements of themselves disapprove the confession.

"In the first place Tugwell said that he only gave Mrs. Kennedy a whiff of the chloroform and that it killed her. The autopsy showed that some caustic poison, probably ammonia, was administered to her. Then Tugwell said in his confession that he did not drag the body across the vacant lot. Yet the real murderer did do this, for he was seen. And in addition to this the time when young Tugwell reached his home precludes the possibility that he committeed the crime."

Clasping in her arms the son she has come 1500 miles to comfort, Mrs. John T. Tugwell yesterday stood speechless in the steel grated reception room of the city jail, a mute monument of faith in her boy.

MOTHER COMFORTS SON.

After she had spent a half hour with her boy, to the exclusion of spectators, and listeners, Mrs. Tugwell made her first statement of her own relations with the dead woman, and, so doing, gave strength to the alibi of the boy and support to the suicide theory, advanced by the police several weeks ago.

"On the night of the death of Mrs. Kennedy my boy was out of the house. He came in almost at 9 o'clock, as I remarked at the time, noticing the clock in our home, said Mrs. Tugwell. "He could not have been at two places at once and I am sure I can prove that he was at home when the crime, if one was committed by another person, occurred. I know my boy and I know that in his heart he is guiltless."

Judge Gavin Craig ruled that the warrant charging murder which was filed against Tugwell Saturday is sufficient to authorize the police to hold him without bail until a hearing is given in court.

Citizens Wounded in Fight With Bandits

ALTON, Ill., Oct. 27.—Three members of a citizen's posse of about 500 men were wounded, one perhaps mortally, in a running battle with three automobile bandits near here last night. The trio at an early hour this morning still were eluding their pursuers, who at one time believed they had surrounded the bandits in a thicket near here.

After Robbing Vahan Kezerin, a chauffeur of $325 and his automobile yesterday, the bandits escaped in the stolen machine in the direction of Bunker Hill, Ill. They took up a stand behind the machine, fired about 25 shots at the posse and then escaped into the woods. The wounded are: H. Y. Martin, merchant, shot in abdomen; H. A. Heideman, mail carrier, shot in leg; Walter Hurt, merchant, shot in hand. All the wounded are from Brighton, Ill.

President to Call No Special Session

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. — President Wilson let it be known today that he has no intention of calling a special session of Congress after election. Representative Henry of Texas, in an address in the House the last day of Congress, said he had positive information the President would call a special session about the middle of November to take up cotton relief legislation

NO BANQUET; TALKLESS DINNER

Hotel Men Not to Say: "We Have With Us To-night——."

To give a banquet to a hotel man is like talking shop; for the hotel man usually sees a dozen banquets a week, and that is why tonight's dinner—they will not call it a banquet—at the Hotel Oakland, where the Northern California Hotel Men's Association will be entertained, will be unlike any banquet ever seen before in this city.

President Reiter of the Oakland-Berkeley Hotel and Apartment Association, and manager of the Hotel Oakland, said he didn't have the nerve to give the hotel men a regular banquet, for they would only be bored. The usual viands of a banquet will be improved—for the hotel men have critical eyes and knowledge of food, and Reiter says that they will go away swearing they've had the best. Then, again, they're going to get away from the old form of banquet, with its set speeches that bore hotel men.

They're going to follow the rule of Wu Ting Fang; the program, they declare, will be a Ting Fang program, and according to the hotel men the famed Chinese statesman was most entitled to renown when he laid down his rule for the ideal dinner.

CYNICAL MANDARIN.

Here's the rule of Wu Ting Fang. He writes:

"As a rule a dinner conversation is seldom worth remembering, which is a pity. Man, the most sensible of all animals, more readily leans to nonsense than to rational discourse. Perhaps the flow of words may be as steady as the eastward flow of the Yangste Kiang in my own country, but the memory remains only a recollection of a vague, undefined—what? The conversation, like the flowers—provided by the cooks, has been evanescent.

"Why should not hostesses make as much effort to stimulate the minds of their guests as they do to gratify their palates? What a boon it would be to many a bashful man, sitting next to a lady with whom he has nothing in common, if some public entertainer during the dinner relieved him from the necessity of always thinking as to what he should say next! How much more he could enjoy the fine dinners his hostess has provided; and as for the lady—what a number of suppressed yawns she might avoid!

PRANDIAL MONOLUGE.

"To take great pains and expend large sums to provide tasty food for people who cannot enjoy it, because they have to talk to one another, seems a pity. Let the man talk to the crowd and leave them leisure to eat, is my suggestion."

That's why a brilliant program is to supplement the speeches of tonight's affair.

Several hundred guests will attend the affair tonight, which will be preceded by today's meeting of the Northern California Hotel Men's Association. Business matters were scheduled at the meeting, and several addresses by prominent hotel managers of the north were heard. About 50 delegates attended the business meeting.

Fortune Is Realized in Hunting Licenses

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 27.—The state of California realized $164,111 from the sale of hunting licenses for the year ending June 30, 1914, according to statistics compiled by State Controller J. S. Chambers. This money was paid into the county clerks of the various counties of the state at the rate of $1 for a citizen of the state, $10 for a citizen of another state and $25 for aliens.

BERKELEY Gossip of Students and Residents in University Town AND Social and Personal Happenings of Day in the Island City ALAMEDA

VOTE UNIVERSITY BONDS, IS APPEAL FROM COLLEGE CITY

TOWN AND GOWN UNITED IN CAUSE

Mayor Heywood, President Wheeler and Other Speakers Urge Need.

BERKELEY, Oct. 27. — Berkeley and the University of California held a joint rally last evening at which enthusiastic support for No. 11, the university bonding proposition to be voted upon in November, was given by several speakers and heartily applauded by an audience of 600. Warren C. Gregory presided and among the speakers were President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Mayor Charles D. Heywood, B. J. Bither, Harry J. Banker and Dean David P. Barrows. A musical program was furnished by the University Cadet band and the University Glee club.

The final local rally for the university bonds is to be held Thursday evening at Finnish Comrades' hall, Tenth and Bristol streets, when the speakers will be C. E. Waite, Assemblyman George Gelder, Ralph P. Merritt, Douglass Brookman and J. T. Flinn. Last night's rally was held in Harmon gymnasium.

A CLEAR CASE.

In opening the meeting Chairman Gregory said in part:

"Some of the amendments to be voted upon next month may be difficult rightly to judge but certainly not this one, certainly not for Berkeleyans. It is proposed to issue State bonds for $1,800,000 to bear four and one-half per cent interest, and all to be retired by 1964.

"The standing room only sign is visible on too many doors in this university. An increase in recent years of 3500 students has been met by the trivial increase of twelve classrooms. It has been possible in this period to secure from the legislature $260,000 for new buildings.

"The argument that we shall impose upon the future a burden which they will have in turn to impose upon their successors has no basis in fact. The buildings we shall build here need no depreciation fund. They will last as long as the granite hills from the substance of which they are made."

WHEELER'S APPEAL.

President Wheeler was received with applause. He told of the inauguration of the Hearst plans as a definite program toward which the university might build.

"In consummation of this plan," he continued, "we have built thus far ten structures. Three of these have been built out of the university's funds, one by the legislature and six by personal gift. In other words, private generosity has expended here in this way $1,950,000; the legislature, $260,000; the regents, out of the university fund, $610,000. Thus you see that private parties have given us two and one-half times as much as the State.

"The bond issue will entail an average expenditure per annum of $36,000. California hall cost the State $125,000 a year for two years. But, at the lesser rate per year, we propose to build, not one, but several structures.

"California is a generous State. It wants things done right. That its treatment of the university has not measured up to that high standard is due to the university's having grown faster than the people could appreciate. We have far left behind the habiliments that were suited to our needs in 1899. We had then 1717 students here; we have now 5700, three times as many. If we add the enrollment in the professional and art colleges across the bay and in the farming schools, our enrollment mounts to 10,000.

"For this great new mass of students the State will, I firmly believe, when the need is shown, provide."

MAYOR PRAISES U. C.

Mayor Heywood made a telling point with regard to the age and probable decrepitude of venerable North hall, still used for immense classes, when he told of his own father having hauled much of the brick and lumber for its construction before the present mayor's birth. He continued:

"Certainly, of all places Berkeley should remember with warm gratitude the University of California in the latter's hour of need. We are the constant recipient of its favors. We take advantage of its lectures and classes and enjoy its concerts. We call, and never upon deaf ears, for assistance in many administrative matters. If it were intended, for instance, to move the university to another location, there is no city or county in the State but would offer as a bonus the whole of this $1,800,000 to secure the university as an asset.

"I have none of the objections that sometimes are urged against bonds, and especially none against school bonds. In these the students are merely asking you to extend credit to them; they will pay the money back when their earning time comes."

UNION LABORS' VIEW.

Building Inspector Banker emphasizes the interest of union labor in the university, speaking of the endorsement of the university bonds given by the State Federation at Stockton. Union labor and the university, he declared, were now firmly established upon a basis of amity and understanding. He continued.

"As a building inspector I must with all emphasis protest against such a building continuing in use as North hall. Its use seems to me almost a crime. It is very, very fortunate indeed for this university and the State that nothing serious has happened in that building. A terrible catastrophe is a daily danger so long as classes of the size that now use the structure continue to occupy it. I do not hold this against the regents, but I do hold it against the people of this State who have given no substitute. Union labor believes that the State should do its share toward maintaining the university and not force it to depend upon common charity."

B. J. Bither told of the need the State had for the university for men to care for its factories and assure the full utilization of their materials. He cited figures to show that the interest and principal on the bonds would average an expense for their full period of 74 cents on each owner of $1000 worth of property, or 4.6 cents a year.

DR. BARROWS SPEAKS.

Dean Barrows, the last speaker, pointed out that the carrying out of the Hearst plans for the greater university had been in the balance until the inauguration, 15 years ago Sunday, of President Wheeler. He was enough of an idealist, Barrows declared, to see them carried through.

"What we need now," he continued, "is other visionaries in the persons of all the voters of this State, who can look forward to what the university must become in five or ten or twenty years and prepare therefor. The university is the intellectual center of the State, drawing from all places and from all classes. But this demands that we uphold the noble concepts upon which it has been built. Our plea is not for the adornment of this campus but for the possibility of right teaching.

"I believe you will vote for No. 11 because this university is a democratic institution. It stands for all sorts of people. It wants the poor and the rich alike. There are now in our student body no less than 1000 who, in whole or in part, support themselves by manual labor. These are the democratic members of our university community and there are many to think with them."

'PARTNERSHIP OF U.C. AND FUTURE'

"The buildings that we shall erect upon this campus will need no depreciation fund; they will last as long as the granite hills out of which they are made."—Warren C. Gregory.

"The students who vote these bonds are merely asking you to extend them credit; they will pay back the loan when their earning time comes."—Mayor Charles D. Heywood.

"Union labor believes that the state should do its share toward supporting the University of California and not leave the institution dependable upon common charity."—Harry J. Banker.

"In carrying out the greater university plan we have received two and a half times as much for new buildings from private donors as we have from the state itself."—President Benjamin Ide Wheeler.

ALAMEDA GIRL WILL WED REVENUE OFFICER

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — Miss Grace Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Anderson, is to become the bride of Raymond B. Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pickering of Stanford street, about the middle of November.

The wedding will be a home affair and the bride will be married in a gray tailored suit and hat to match. The members of the two families will be in attendance at the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Herbert Thomson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

Her finance is in the revenue cutter service and is connected with the McCulloch, which is now on a cruise and is in San Diego bay. On his return the wedding will take place.

RITTLER ANGRY CALLS OFF GAME

Rugby Union to Hear Coach's Version of School Dispute.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — The cancellation of the Alameda-Berkeley high school rugby game, scheduled to take place last Saturday, has aroused much comment in rugby circles. Many reasons were given as to the real cause for the game being called off, but Coach Otto Rittler of the Alameda high school has stated that he called the game off because he did not believe the local team was getting a square deal in the majority of the games scheduled to be played this season, and he had decided to bring matters to a head and have a hearing at once before the officers of the present rugby union.

He, therefore, called off the game and a meeting of the board will see just how matters stand.

Rittler has stated that he is tired of having his men in condition for a game and at the last minute find out that the game scheduled for that day had been called off, as was the case with the Fremont and Oakland Poly games. Neither of these teams gave any warning until it was too late to find another opponent.

"This sort of thing will have to stop," said Rittler, "and the meeting tonight will see just how matters stand."

It is thought that a compromise agreement will be reached and the local team will be able to finish the season after having played all the rival schools in this territory. As a suitable contest for next Saturday, Rittler has arranged to play either Fremont, Berkeley or Oakland high schools. All three of these teams are in good form and can put up a strong fight with any of the bay teams.

The local fifteen will be materially strengthened by the appearance of Captain Rollie Von Schmidt in an Alameda uniform. Von Schmidt has been out of the last few games because of a broken nose. He is improving rapidly and will add strength to the local backfield in Saturday's contest.

The military companies of the Alameda high school are beginning to look like real soldiers. There are about 107 in the companies at the present time and drill work is held three times a week, together with the rifle practice.

Nothing has been done in the way of boys' basketball this year but plans for a good team are under way. The girls' team is practicing daily and will play its first game in a short time.

The tennis side of the athletic system in the high school is beginning to assume a prominent position and plans are being made to form a number of clubs.

Swimming is to be another feature in the athletic work of the high school this year and already plans are under way for a team.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR FERNSIDE CLUB PIER

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — An enthusiastic session of the Fernside district recreation association was held at the Lincoln school. It was reported that the wharf proper has been practically completed and that some work has been done on the clubhouse, particularly as to the piling, the foundation and a portion of the veranda.

Plans were discussed by the members for future activities. The pier is already the scene of much activity, children going in swimming from the wharf.

The club has adopted plans for the gate at the entrance to the pier and this will be artistic. Work will begin at once on the gate. Next Sunday morning the members of the organization are to paint the railings of the pier.

BRIDE-ELECT IS HONORED.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27.—One of the number of pretty social favors which are being extended Miss Grace Clawiter, the attractive bride-elect before her wedding day, was arranged by Miss Bertha Waite of Central avenue, who entertained today with a Hallowe'en luncheon. Yellow pumpkins and yellow chrysanthemums made the table decoration and that of the home. The place cards were pumpkins and the centerpiece was the same with the fern and yellow chrysanthemums completing the color scheme. The guests were the members of the family of the bride and a few of the old friends of hostess and honored guest.

ALAMEDA PERSONALS

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27.—Cards are out for a formal dance to be given by the members of Las Amistades Club on the evening of October 30 at the Adelphian Club. Miss Florence Crowley is president of the club, which has a membership of 30 young matrons and girls.

Mrs. Florence West, who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Congressman and Mrs. J. R. Knowland, left today for Kentucky, where she will be the guest of her son.

Mrs. Franklin Noah Dewey and sons returned yesterday from Hollywood, where they are spending the past few weeks with Mrs. Dewey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McDonald, and where the Alameda matron was showered with attentions in the way of social affairs and various pretty compliments.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Fredrick will entertain a few of the musical and literary folk at her home on Buena Vista avenue tomorrow evening, asking her guests to meet Miss Marguerite Brendel, the singer.

Miss Clara Alexander appeared yesterday afternoon at her matinee recital in a gown of white tarleton, a costume of ante-bellum days, which gave deeper meaning to her impersonations of the characters of the writings of Harris Dixon, which she interpreted. Miss Mary Sherwood contributed 'cello numbers.

COUNCIL REJECTS EXTENSION PLEA

Berkeley Fathers Refuse Terminal Railways' Request for Paving Delay.

BERKELEY, Oct. 27. — The city council this morning passed back with thanks to the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railways, the latter's request for an extension of time on the two ordinances just adopted providing concrete underpinning for Grove and Adeline street tracks. The company had made its request dependent upon its promise to proceed with the permanent paving out of the first money secured by refinancing.

The council was not certain when, if ever, such financing would be consummated and declined to rest upon the uncertainty. A previous conference between the city attorneys and attorneys for the company had resulted in an agreement in the matter, according to City Attorney Frank V. Cornish's statement to the council this morning, to proceed with the permanent work upon the expiration of the delay the council would grant.

This delay was not to be made dependent upon refinancing, or other considerations. The company was to draw up such a request embodying a resolution of its directors. When the council and the city attorney opened this morning this request just received from the company, they were startled to find that the refinancing had been made the basis of the company's plea. After considerable discussion the council passed a resolution containing in substance the following ultimatum:

"The council refuses to consider the request of the company for a delay in time to comply with the ordinances for permanent paving on Grove and Adeline streets, because it does not meet the form demanded by council. Unless such a resolution is presented by Friday next, at 10 a. m. the council will proceed to consider immediate enforcement of the ordinance."

City Attorney Cornish was instructed to inform the company of this action.

DEFINE PERMANENT WORK.

The ordinance adopted specify that concrete buttresses must be placed by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railways as a foundation for its tracks on Grove and Adeline streets, but do not include specifications for Tribby rails. The former ordinances demanded concrete mattresses beneath the tracks. The ordinances mark the city's first step to define in this way the character of permanent track work in this city. Heretofore such work has been done under specifications agreed upon with the city engineer.

Their adoption does not bring any nearer the ends desired by Mayor Heywood, and at that time by other members of the council, when they took steps to stop the ruining of Shattuck avenue trains. That act was aimed at the forcing of immediate paving of the Grove and Adeline street lines under specifications the council should fix. The ordinances are expected, however, to give the city an advantage in future disputes with the traction company.

WHEELER WILL ATTEND CONVENTION IN EAST

BERKELEY, Oct. 27.—President and Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the university will leave for the East to be gone three weeks. In New Jersey President Wheeler will attend the convention of the Association of American Universities at Princeton November 6 and 7. At Washington thereafter he will speak at the convention of the National Association of State Universities. He will also attend the national conference of the Land Grant College Engineering Association, which immediately follows. President and Mrs. Wheeler expect to return to Berkeley about the middle of November, but they will probably be too late to attend the annual California-Stanford game.

START AGITATION FOR MUNICIPAL PLAYGROUNDS

RICHMOND, Oct. 27. — The agitation for municipal playgrounds started last night in the city council, when Mayor Garrard said he thought it was time something was done to put Richmond among the up-to-date cities that had provided playgrounds for their children. He referred to what had been done by Oakland and Berkeley, and suggested that the city council take a trip to Oakland some Sunday and under the guidance of the Oakland officials, inspect the municipal and school playgrounds. Some of the councilmen thought that it was within the scope of the school board and hinted that the matter should be left in their hands for a short time anyway.

BUILD BRIDGES.

RICHMOND, Oct. 27. — The Board of Supervisors started the new bridges to be constructed along the State highway yesterday. The three bridges to be built over Wild Cat creek on San Pablo avenue, over San Pablo creek in Garrity flat beyond Garrity hill, and one over San Pablo creek at San Pablo. The bridges will be of concrete, the longest being over San Pablo creek at San Pablo.

RETAIN OLD CITY HALL.

RICHMOND, Oct. 27. — The city hall will stay for a while at the present site, according to a decision by the city council last evening, when they authorized the mayor to sign a lease in the present building for one year. A number of propositions for new locations have been put to the council but the decision of last night ends all for a period of twelve months.

OAKLANDER ROBBED.

RICHMOND, Oct. 27. — Mrs. R. G. Erskine, 362 Golden Gate avenue, looked out of her window at 8:30 o'clock last evening and saw two men rifling the pockets of Peter Andree, a Swede who is in the tailoring business at 515 Broadway, Oakland. She notified the police, but the two who are supposed to be Italians had made their escape. Andree declares he was robbed of $80.

PASTOR TAKEN ILL.

RICHMOND, Oct. 27. — Rev. Guy A. White, pastor of the Presbyterian church, drank lemonade Saturday and was taken seriously ill afterwards. He was unable to appear in his pulpit Sunday and his physicians state that he is suffering from ptomaine poisoning.

Alameda Girl Safe in Germany; Writes to Reassure Family

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27.—Miss Marguerite Bruntsch, who has renewed a second contract of five years with the Royal Opera Company in Berlin, and who has not been heard from directly since the war broke out, has written of her safety in Carlsuhe, Germany. Miss Bruntsch tells of the quiet and peaceful atmosphere of the town where she has found refuge and says there is nothing to indicate the terrible conflict going on between the great nations of Europe.

She is a contralto and has been in Germany years. A visit home was planned for the marriage of her sister, who was Miss Tosca Bruntsch, now Mrs. Dudley Daniel Sales. Her professional engagements prevented this.

Stanford Warriors on Guard; Freshmen Protect Landmarks

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 27.—Stanford is an armed camp these cold nights. Every road to the university is guarded closely by conscientious freshmen, while all the places of interest have a ring of silent sentinels ready to fight any horde of Blue and Gold fanatics.

The Palo Alto tree, the quad and the flag-pole look down in beneficence at their warriors. Bonfires burn the night through, two shifts taking the watch. Each man of the first year class is out once every four nights doing guard duty. Woe to the army of the other legion that expects to take the campus by storm.

One California machine has been caught thus far by the freshmen. The riders saw in consternation their tires go flat and their gasoline tank emptied, and all hopes of a guerilla attack fled from the four or five men in the car. Carefully arranged signals foiled the Berkeley forces.

RESOLUTION AGAINST AMENDMENT IS PASSED

BERKELEY, Oct. 27. — The Berkeley city council this morning passed in duplicate of a resolution recently adopted by the Alameda council, an expression of its opposition to amendment 19 the so-called Oakland amendment, providing for city and county government. Mayor Heywood introduced the resolution by reading a request from Mayor Frank Otis of Alameda offering arguments against the amendment.

Commissioner Christian Hoff declined to vote in the resolution. He did not believe it to be within the council's power to recommend to citizens a vote on such a question. The other members voted aye on the resolution. Each of them declared its opposition to the amendment on the ground that it would give to the dominant metropolis in any county the power to constitute itself a county by reason of holding the majority votes.

They believe that this might be taken in the local field as a method to create of Oakland a separate city and county leaving Berkeley and the rest of the county to shift for themselves.

THREAT TO DISFIGURE IS ALLEGED BY WIFE

Alleging that her husband threatened to throw vitriol in her face, Florence E. Williams filed suit in the superior court for a divorce from Hugh D. Williams. In her complaint she sets forth that Williams frequently beat her. She asks for a share in the community property and the custody of their five children.

John Duffy filed suit for divorce from Jennie Mary Duffy, alleging that she refused to cook his meals; or, in fact, to do any of the work, and that she would frequently absent herself from home for days, and on returning would give no account of her behavior. He asks an undivided share in the property.

Suit for divorce was filed by Fanny L. Collins from Frank P. Collins on the grounds of willful desertion. Mrs. Collins says that he has paid nothing toward the support of his two children since February, 1913. She desires the custody of their two children.

RAILWAY SETTLES SUIT FOR PERSONAL INJURIES

RICHMOND, Oct. 27. — The San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways has affected a settlement with F. J. Breneman, the young man who was Joseph Arnold when he was killed near Stege last year. Breneman recently sued the company for $15,000 but it is understood that $3500 was the amount settled upon. He alleged that he was seriously injured when thrown from the automobile. Mrs. Arnold, wife of Joseph Arnold, was recently awarded $35,000 by a jury.

BODY FOUND IN THE BAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The body of Theodore Parnow, a rattan worker, 45 years old, living at 2119 Howard street, was found floating in the bay near the Southern Pacific freight slips at the foot of Sixteenth street this morning. Parnow, who has just returned from Alaska, left home yesterday to visit friends aboard a coaster on the southern waterfront. It is presumed that he fell overboard. He was a widower.

TEA SHIP ESCAPES FIRE.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—The discovery that a small shipload of tea and other importations, supposed to have been destroyed in the fire at Los Angeles harbor early yesterday, was safe in the warehouse reduced the estimate of the fire loss to well below $100,000. So far the police have found no evidence to support the theory that the fire was incendiary.

ASK COMMISSION'S APPROVAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.— The Grangers' Business Association of San Francisco this morning filed an application with the Railroad Commission requesting approval of the renewal of a wharf franchise located on the straits of Carquinez granted by the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa county.

SEEKS OWN LIFE.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — Turning on the gas in her home at 3264 Encinal avenue a Mrs. Peterson yesterday endeavored to take her life. Drs. Chauncey Pond and Maurice Brown were summoned and they in turn called for the police ambulance. The woman was removed to the emergency hospital, where Dr. Arthur Hieronymus revived her. No reason was assigned for the attempt at suicide.

DR. PURVES SUED.

Dr. John Purves, a well-known local physician, was today made defendant in a suit for divorce brought by his wife, Jane Purves. The couple have been separated for some time. The divorce was placed on the secret file.

BERKELEY PERSONALS

BERKELEY, Oct. 27.—Miss Frances Chamberlain arrived home last week from Italy where she has been engaged in musical studies for several months. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Chamberlain of Lincoln street.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Hanson of Boston are guests of Mrs. Hanson's sister, Mrs. George Olds of this city. They intend making their home permanently in Berkeley.

Ye Merrie Hoppe members held a delightful dance Saturday evening at Unity Hall amid Halowe'en surroundings and decorations. Mrs. Eva Taggart gave an exhibition of several of the newer steps. A Christmas party will be held by the club the evening of December 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming of Durant avenue have as their guest their nephew, Harold F. Fleming of London. He is to pay them a visit of several months.

Mrs. Edward Schwerin was recently a hostess at a dainty luncheon at which she honored Mrs. Alfred Schwerin of San Francisco, a recent bride. There were twenty guests.

ALAMEDA TO OPPOSE OAKLAND AMENDMENT

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — The Alameda city council last night adopted resolutions against Amendment No. 19, which will appear on the ballot November 3. This amendment has to do with the giving of power to communities with over 50,000 population to withdraw from a county and form their own county. Mayor Frank Otis is leading the fight against the passage of the amendment.

Mayor Otis stated today that Berkeley, Piedmont, Richmond, Hayward and San Leandro are also against the passage of the amendment and will assist Alameda in its campaign to defeat the measure.

The council met last evening in special session at the call of the mayor. Councilman William Hammond Jr., F. H. Bartlett, E. J. Probst, C. W. MacRae and E. B. Bullock were present.

The clerk read the letter from Mayor Frank K. Mott of Oakland asking that the amendment in question be endorsed. Councilman Hammond moved the adoption of a resolution opposed to the amendment and it was adopted by the five members of the council present. The mayor was then given the power to carry on the campaign against the amendment.

CARNIVAL OF EAGLES TO BEGIN TOMORROW

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — Just one more day until the doors are opened to the public and the indoor carnival, to be given by the Alameda Aerie, No. 1076, F. O. E., will be in full swing. There have been some changes in the concessions lately and the final list of those who will be behind the booths are as follows:

Mrs. W. Joseph and Mrs. W. Hoppe, refreshments; Mrs. J. Bargones, candidate's slate; Mrs. Mehrtens, fish pond; Mrs. Borne, fortune telling; Mrs. O. Lubbock, novelty concession; Mrs. E. Stickney, dolls and fancy work; Mrs. J. Del Vecchio, Teddy bears and pillows; Mrs. W. Johnson, candy wheel; Mrs. Witt, flowers; and Mrs. G. Christenson, chicken wheel.

A dance will be in progress on the dance floor above on each of the nights, and music will be played on the lower floor. Then, of course, no carnival can be complete without a confetti or serpentine battle. Four nights of merriment will be the program.

GUILD TO DISTRIBUTE.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — The Alameda branch of the National Needle Work Guild of America, will exhibit and distribute garments, which have been made and donated for distribution, on Wednesday morning, November 11, at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in Central avenue.

The officers and members of the board are Mrs. Hermann Krust, president; Mrs. George W. Scott, vice-president; Mrs. W. A. Swett, second vice-president; Mrs. Charles Bradford, secretary and treasurer and Mesdames Waldo Parkhurst, Fred Ray, A. J. Burgner, Gregg Weeks, Mary Halton and Charles Jackman, the remaining directors.

D. A. R. TO BE GUESTS.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — Copa de Oro chapter, D. A. R., will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. Fred G. Baker, at her home in Bay street. The sum realized for the afternoon will be devoted to the fund for the D. A. R. hearquarters during the coming 1915 exposition.

Mrs. Baker will be assisted by Mrs. Duncan M. Wright, regent and several of the members of the chapter in receiving the guests, each member being entitled to a guest.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — Cards have been sent out announcing the engagement of Miss Amy Williams, daughter of Mrs. J. Williams of 2150 San Jose avenue, to Charles M. Birkholm, a young business man of San Francisco. The date of the wedding has not been set, but the marriage will take place some time in the spring.

EPHEMERAL SPAN IS LOT OF RATS'

Lone Survivor of Two Dozen Completes Second Year of Scientific Life.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 27.—The last of 24 fat, sleek rats that once disported about the physiological laboratory remains solitary in that precinct of science. One by one he has watched his comrades depart, leaving him sadly to contemplate how ephemeral is life, how even the humble rodent is here yesterday and gone tomorrow.

Just 25 months ago professors of the physiology department caged two dozen rats, bent on determining how long a rat lives. They were all frisky young creatures then, and an abundance of good food and room for exercise and the absence of all signs of cat permitted them to frisk even more than most rats.

But one by one old age caught them. The first to succumb must have come from a weak race, for a few months saw him called home. At intervals the others dropped off until finally just two remained in the cage to talk over the good old days and munch their bread and cheese together. A little over two months ago one of these was found one morning with his tiny toes in air, his companion gazing upon him from a corner of the cage with sadly philosophic mien.

The latter today remains alone, seeking out an existence that daily becomes more wonderfully long. He has lost several of his faculties, he cannot hear and his sight is failing fast. But he clings by instinct apparently to the halcyon days of yore, for he has not forgotten how to eat.

BERKELEY COUNCIL IS FOR UNIVERSITY BONDS

BERKELEY, Oct. 27.—Hearty endorsement of the university bond issue, No. 11, was given this morning in a resolution adopted by the city council. The council pointed out the need of the new buildings as well as the indebtedness of the city to the university, and encouraged local support for the bonds. The following was the resolution adopted:

"Whereas, the University of California, by action of its alumni association, has come to the people of the state asking support for a bond issue of $1,800,000, and

"Whereas, because we are conversant with conditions on the university campus, we are aware how desperately this money is needed for new buildings to relieve congestion and to replace structures now occupied to the actual peril of many students, and

"Whereas, the city of Berkeley and this council has been indebted at various times to the faculty and students of the University of California, who have gladly extended their assistance in various civic matters; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the council of the city of Berkeley, that it heartily endorse the plea of the University of California, that it bring to the notice of Berkeley residents the appearance on the ballot in the November election of this amendment, No. 11, and that it call their attention to the above stated reasons for an affirmative vote upon it."

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD FOR FORMER OFFICIAL

BERKELEY, Oct. 27.—Funeral services were held this afternoon for the late John Squires, pioneer resident and official of this city, whose death occurred Saturday night. The services were held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Wiggin, 2901 Channing Way, where he had made his home for several years. Interment was by cremation.

Squires was 55 years of age, a resident of this city for 35 years. He was former tax collector and several terms member of the board of education. He was the father of the present city assessor, Harry J. Squires, and of several other children prominent in social and business circles.

TENT CITIES PLANNED.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27. — That Alameda will be the site of at least one and perhaps two tent cities during the fair next year is now conceded. The Oklahoma company is endeavoring to secure the Cohen estate property as the site for its tent city. The Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from E. S. McCabe of the Oklahoma company saying that Alameda is favored as the site for the tent city and that if the negotiations are completed with the Cohen estate that the colony will be established here.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB MEETS.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 27.—The East End Improvement Club met last evening at the Lincoln school and the amendments were discussed. The speakers were Walter S. McLean, Harry Gregg, W. W. Schillingford, L. S. Robinson and N. G. Welburn. No action upon the amendments was taken by the club.

As a general thing when a man recommends himself as an expert some one has to show him how.

SKULL OF 200,000-YEAR-OLD CAVE BEAR FOUND IN SOUTH

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 27.—News of the discovery of a perfectly preserved skull of the cave bear in the La Brea asphalt pool, Southern California, was received here today by Prof. Merriam, the noted paleontologist.

It is probable that the remainder of the skeleton of the cave bear will be found deeper in the pit. In all, portions of the skeletons of four cave bears have been dug from the pits. No other museum has more than fragments of cave bear bones, mostly found in caves, and by laborious and expensive comparison of these fragments, restoration has been made.

The cave bear belonged to the extinct genus Arctitherium, and the species of this particular group remains to be determined. The beast was a huge creature, twice as large as the grizzly bear, comparable in hulk to the hippopotamus.

The huge skull is nineteen and one-half inches long. The long canines, or tusks, are broken in this particular specimen. They are preserved in the head just uncovered in the new pit; this skull is somewhat smaller, being a trifle under eighteen inches in length.

These cave bear remains are placed by Prof. Merriam in the Pleistocene age, and he estimates that they are at least 200,000 years old. They are not fossilized, as are most prehistoric bones, but have been preserved with astounding perfection in the tar masses that sealed them hermetically.

MISS FRANCES RAMSEY, whose wedding to Lieutenant Underwood will take place this evening.

POET'S WIFE IN 'TRADE

Mrs. George Sterling One of New Hostesses for Shops

There is a new vocation for women—that of being hostess in shops. Mrs. Robbins brought the idea from Boston. She is hostess in a San Francisco book shop, and Mrs. Carrie Sterling, former wife of the poet, sister of Mrs. Frank Havens and Mrs. Harry Maxwell, is hostess in a "print shop."

Mrs. Sterling's friends are awfully interested in her venture. It is really an interesting idea. The hostesses are there every day to receive their friends who care to drop in. It isn't in the least necessary to buy books or prints, as the case may be. One merely goes into an attractive environment for an idle chat and departs empty-handed, unless of course it happens otherwise.

Mrs. Robbins had known amiable hostesses in Boylston street (she lived in Boston after her marriage), and when she returned to San Francisco in the summer she remembered and emulated them. Mrs. Robbins was beautiful Alice Ames, daughter of the Pelham Ames of Menlo Park and sister of Worthington Ames. She knew most of San Francisco society, which was rather bewildered one morning to receive her cards from the book shop.

It was a month or two later that Mrs. Sterling sent out cards from the print shop. She gave an informal reception on the first day, with Mrs. John Galen Howard and Mrs. Harry Maxwell, among others, to assist in receiving. It was a delightful affair, and everyone had the idea explained to her or to him, and found it charming.

Mrs. Sterling is picturesque and graceful, and there is a genuine esthetic as well as social value in her presence.

However, the same is true of Mrs. Robbins, and it may be stated generally that the hostess of a shop must be both esthetically and socially attractive. Not every woman is fitted for the new vocation.

RAMSEY-UNDERWOOD WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Frances Ramsey and Lieutenant Herbert Whitwell Underwood, U. S. N., will be a large and brilliant affair this evening with guests from Oakland, Berkeley, San Francisco and Mare Island. The glitter of "brass buttons" and the full dress navy uniforms of the groom and ushers will add much to the picturesque effect of the ceremony, that is to take place at Christ Episcopal Church in Alameda. Rev. Edward Couper will be the officiating clergyman, and between 400 and 500 guests will be present. The church will be elaborately decorated, but the color scheme and details of the bridesmaids' costumes are not to be revealed until this evening.

There will be two matrons of honor, Mrs. Philip Bliss and Mrs. Harry Johnson, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Pauline Painter, Miss Orytha Gatch, Miss Priscilla Ellicott, Miss Vera Talbot, Miss Mary Helen Finnell and Miss Roberta Lion. Ensign Donald Beary will be best man and the ushers will be Ensign William Bauchman, Ensign Thomas Gatch, Ensign Quinlan, Ensign Walter Henry, Ensign Arthur Walton, Ensign Elroy Vandercloot and Ensign John Bowden, who are brother officers of the groom on the Maryland now at Mare Island.

Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Montague Ramsey in Alameda. The bride is one of the most attractive girls in society and is a favorite in the smart set across the bay, as well as in Oakland and Alameda. She is a graduate of Miss Ransom's school and has traveled much abroad.

Her engagement to the young navy officer was announced last spring, just before the Maryland sailed for Mexican waters, whence it has recently returned. After the honeymoon the young couple will live at Mare Island for a time.

MISS LOVELL'S TEA.

Miss Phyllis Lovell will be hostess at a tea Thursday afternoon for about 100 of the younger set of matrons and belles, in honor of Miss Phyllis Capwell and Miss Gertrude Adams, two of the season's brides-elect. It will be given at the Lovell home in Bonita avenue, Piedmont, where the rooms will be charmingly decorated for the occasion. Among those in the receiving party will be Mrs. William Haydock Fillmore, Mrs. Dean Allen, Mrs. Joseph Frederick Hunt, Miss Dorothy Capwell, Miss Helen Coogan, Miss Pauline Painter, Miss Marian Rodolph and Miss Lilia Lovell.

BRIDGE AT COUNTRY CLUB.

Mrs. Murray Orrick entertained forty guests at bridge at the Claremont Country Club this afternoon in honor of Mrs. William Orrick (Mary Downey), who is the inspiration for many affairs. The tables were set beneath the awning on the roof garden, which made a charming scene with the palms and flowering plants, and the light costumes of the guests, who were gowned for the summer weather. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. P. J. Kenna, Mrs. Irving Burrill, Mrs. George Hammer, Mrs. Hugh Goodfellow, Miss Lillian Downey, Miss Elizabeth Orrick and several others. Among the guests were Mrs. Ben Reed, Mrs. John Donovan, Mrs. Allen Chickering, Mrs. Philip Clay, Miss Edith Goodfellow, Miss Helen Coogan, Miss Margery Coogan and Miss Letitia Barry.

AT THE OAKLAND.

Mrs. R. J. Currey and Miss Laura Currey of Dixon are spending several days at the Oakland. They came down for the tea dance given Saturday by Miss Pauline Painter and Mrs. Philip Bliss in honor of Miss Frances Ramsey and Miss Ottilia Laire. Miss Currey has spent much time in Oakland as the guest of Miss Anna Barbour.

SOUVENIRS OF WEDDING.

Miss Cora Smith cut the lucky coin in the cake at the wedding of Miss Dora Winn and Dr. Lovell Langstroth last Saturday afternoon. Ethel McAllister cut the wishbone, and Sidney Smith found the ring in his piece of bride's cake. Evan Evans drew the thimble, which probably means that he is destined to remain a bachelor. Miss Isabel Beaver caught the bride's bouquet.

There were a number of Oakland guests at the wedding, that was an elaborate affair at St. Luke's Church followed by a reception at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George Boardman in California street. Among those present from this side of the bay were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Langstroth, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Loraine Langstroth, Malin and Marshall Langstroth, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall, Mrs. W. G. Henshaw, Miss Florence Henshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chickering, Mr. and Mrs. Bradway Head and others.

TEA FOR MISS MITCHELL.

Miss Gertrude Mitchell, the fiancee of Dr. Warren Allen of Oakland, was guest of honor at a tea given this afternoon by Miss Lenore Fitzgibbon at her home in Scott street, San Francisco. Miss Ramon Allen and several other guests from Oakland crossed the bay for the occasion. The decorations were yellow shaded chrysanthemums and ferns, and assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ralph Heger, Miss Madeline Sisson, Miss Inez Marion, Miss Olive Creely and Miss Elizabeth Fitzgibbon.

INVITATIONS RECALLED.

Mrs. Leon Maison has recalled invitations to a dinner she had planned for Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bishop, owing to the death of Mr. Maison's niece, Mrs. F. W. Thomas, which occurred a few days ago in Sacramento. The dinner was to have been a "neighborhood farewell" for Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, who have sold their home in Alice street and will soon move to Alameda to take possession of the Robert Tyson place, which they recently purchased.

AT YERBA BUENA.

Mrs. Wallace Bertholf, who was formerly Miss Mary Marriner of Berkeley, will be a hostess tomorrow afternoon at the Yerba Buena navy station in honor of Miss Ottilia Laine and her fiance, Clinton La Montagne. Mrs. Bertholf and her guests will attend the tea dance at the navy yard, where a number of Oakland and San Francisco guests will be gathered. Miss Laine shared honors with Miss Frances Ramsey at the tea given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Philip Bliss and Miss Pauline Painter.

Mrs. Eugene Hale Douglas (Gertrude Russell), who recently returned from a trip to Southern California, will also entertain guests at the tea dance tomorrow.

TEA AT THE OAKLAND.

Mrs. Vance McClymonds and Mrs. Babcock of Berkeley were hostesses at tea at the Oakland this afternoon for members of the Phi Beta Thi Sorority Alumnae. A number of prominent young matrons are members of the sorority, as well as others of the younger set.

AT FRANCISCA CLUB.

Miss Ruth Welsh gave a luncheon today at the Francisca Club at which a number of the season's debutantes across the bay were entertained. It was in honor of Mrs. Paul Fagan (Marie Russell) and invited to meet her were: Miss Leslie Miller, Miss Helen Keeney, Miss Ruth Perkins, Miss Emily Tubbs, Miss Genevieve Bothin, Miss Jean Wheeler, Miss Julia Van Fleet, Miss Lucille Johns, Miss Florence Bandmann, Miss Gertrude O'Brien, Miss Marie Louise Harrington, Miss Helen Hooper, Miss Marie Hathaway, Miss Marian Lee Mailliard and Miss Evelyn Waller.

RETURNS FROM PARIS.

Mrs. Elsa Cook Greenfield, who has been abroad for the past six months, will arrive Wednesday to reopen her home in San Francisco. Mrs. Greenfield was in Paris when war was declared and remained for much of the excitement of the past months, sailing for America early in October. Mrs. J. C. Black of Berkeley, who was with her in Paris, is still in the French capital, but is planning to return to America in November. Mrs. Greenfield is one of the popular young matrons of society across the bay who has attended many of the Claremont Country Club dances and other affairs on this side of the bay.

FOR MRS. TYSON.

Mrs. William Okell will be hostess at an informal tea for Mrs. James Tyson on Thursday afternoon, the guests including a coterie of intimate friends whose homes are near the Tyson residence in Alameda. Mr. and Mrs. Tyson expect to move this week into the Robert Tyson house in Piedmont.

VISITED PETALUMA.

Mrs. and Mrs. John McNear returned yesterday from a visit to the George P. McNear ranch near Petaluma. Mr. and Mrs. George P. McNear and Miss Louise McNear will go to San Francisco on November 1 to spend the winter at the Fairmont.

MRS. CROCKER ARRIVES.

The arrival of Mrs. Will Crocker from London has been an event of the past few days at Burlingame. Her daughters, Miss Ethel and Miss Helen Crocker, remained with a chaperone in New York, where they will spend the winter. This is a sad disappointment to the younger set of society, as the Crocker girls are constantly entertaining at New Place when they are at home and are the center of much of the season's gayety. They will study music in the metropolis and will be much with their aunt, Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, and their cousin, Mrs. Malcolm Whitman.

SWEETNESS A NECESSITY

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

SUGAR in moderate quantities is essential to the human system. Particularly is it almost a necessity for the healthy active man, woman, or child. But by those who do not exercise sufficiently and for those in poor health it should be used most carefully. Doctors say that the normal, active adult can consume two pounds of sugar a week to good advantage, if used in proper connection and balance with other foods.

Sugar or sweets are looked upon by many as adverse to health. The reason for this is that bad judgment has been used as to the proper time for eating them. After luncheon, after dinner, or even after breakfast, a few sweets can be eaten in almost any form without causing fermentation in the stomach. When the stomach is empty or overloaded sweets are fatal. They cause fermentation to take place in the stomach, which causes gases to form and all sorts of pains and discomforts to ensue.

Active people who exercise a great deal crave sweets. I have seen athletes when in training eat chocolate candies instead of an ordinarily good luncheon. That is the same principle upon which children crave sweets. Their little bodies are never quite still; they never walk, they always run; they keep jumping up and down, keeping thoroughly active at all times. Candy of the simple order does their little stomachs no harm. In fact, it nourishes them. Being so much more active than the adults, sugar repairs the muscular waste wasted in play.

The fact that military experts have made sugar a part of all army rations is a testimonial not only to its value as food, but emphasizes its necessity. But moderation is advised in the use of it, just as it is wise to employ moderation in the use of all foods and in all things. The person who keeps in good physical trim, who lives rationally, need never fear to eat candy and should use sugar in some form.

LILLIAN RUSSELL.

Answers to Queries.

Miss A.: There is usually, in my opinion, some internal cause for the dark circles under the eyes. The tendency is sometimes hereditary, but dark lines are frequently an indication of sluggish circulation of the blood itself. Prolonged study, lack of sleep, or dissipation of any description will cause them. Live in the sunshine and fresh air as much as possible. Take plenty of physical exercise. Do not eat any but nutritious and easily digested foods.

T. D.: If your hair is short, why not try scalp massage? It is of inestimable value, and if practiced regularly it cannot but result in beautiful, glossy hair. For dandruff it is a sovereign remedy. Eight or ten minutes are sufficient for the nightly massage, then apply a good tonic. Send me a self-addressed stamped envelope for instructions for scalp massage and the recipe for a tonic which I have used with success on my own hair. Don't expect too much in a short time or become discouraged because the hair does not start to grow immediately. You will surely find, provided the scalp is massaged regularly, that there will be a perceptible increase in the thickness of the scalp tissues, the hair will cease to fall and after a while your perseverence will be rewarded by the hair growing rapidly.

B. E.: If you are as nervous as you say you are I would by all means advise you to consult your physician and get a good tonic. There is really no special diet for a nervous person. Eat simple, nourishing foods, eliminate tea and coffee from your meals. Drink chocolate, cocoa, or milk if you must drink something. Drink plenty of cool—not cold—water between meals, but never with your meals. The question of whether you shall take a hot or cold bath depends on whether you can stand a cold bath. A warm bath is more soothing to a nervous person than a cold one. If you would take a warm bath in the afternoon, then lie down and take a nap, I think you would find that it would help you wonderfully. I do not think heart trouble is always the cause of nervousness, nor is it the cause of dreaming. By all means consult your physician.

MRS. M. G.: I am sorry, but I cannot give names and addresses of operators of the electric needle.

SENATOR HARTMAN WEDS SAN FRANCISCO MILLINER

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Cupid has apparently been acting as campaign manager for Gustave Hartman, former state senator and candidate for the state senatorship in the Eighteenth district. Hartman and Miss Lillie Beck, a milliner of this city, were married yesterday in San Rafael, W. F. Magee, justice of the peace, performing the ceremony.

The bride, who gave her age as 25 years, lived at 49 Park Hill avenue, and has been engaged, with her sister, Miss Josephine Beck, in conducting a millinery store.

GIRL, ROBED OF WATCH, CAUSES THIEF'S ARREST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Miss Dorothy Martin, a stenographer employed by Philip Haroun, an architect in the Holbrook building, caused the arrest of Stephen Simmons on a charge of burglary yesterday. Simmons came into the place and asked for a position. When he left, Miss Martin noticed that her watch was gone. Simmons was found in a waiting-room with the watch.

LOS GATOS GIRL TO WED CAPITALIST'S SON

SAN JOSE, Oct. 27.—Miss Hazel Belle Lyndon, daughter of the late James Lyndon, former sheriff of Santa Clara county, is to be married this afternoon to Caius Tacitus Ryland, son of Joseph R. Ryland, president of the San Jose Water Company. Miss Lyndon is a resident of Los Gatos. She is 22 years old, and prominent socially. The Rylands are among the wealthiest residents of San Jose.

ACCUSES HER HUSBAND OF TRYING TO POISON FAMILY

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 27.—Alleging that he threatened to poison her and their three children, Mrs. Loforte swore to a warrant charging Guiseppe Loforte with threats against her life before Township Justice R. M. Clarken.

Loforte, who resides at 621 Ninth street, repeatedly has been before the juvenile court authorities for failing to properly provide for his family. Several jobs were obtained for him, but he failed to keep them.

It is believed he is mentally deranged and an examination will be made by experts to determine his sanity.

BURLESON AT RIGHT NAME, BUT WRONG TOWN

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Oct. 27.—Postmaster General Burleson "got lost" in Sioux City yesterday. Burleson got off a train here and went to a hotel. Just then a newspaper man accosted him and asked:

"Aren't you in the wrong town, Mr. Burleson?"

"No; this is Sioux Falls, isn't it?"

When he learned he was in Sioux City Burleson grabbed his bags and bolted, while the hotel clerk looked on in amazement. He arrived at the station just in time to catch a train for Sioux Falls, where he was scheduled to speak. Burleson had caught the "Sioux" end of the city's name when it rolled from the tongue of the conductor and assumed he had reached his destination.

MARSHALL MAKES ADDRESS.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 27.—Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall concluded a day in Denver with an address last night at the municipal auditorium. He is to speak today at Pueblo and on Wednesday he is to be at Colorado Springs. During the day the Vice-President was tendered a reception at the Democratic club, while Mrs. Marshall was the guest of the local Democratic women leaders.

OAKLAND'S BOYS & GIRLS

COLE PUPILS PREPARE GRADUATION COSTUMES

The boys of the December class of the Cole school have purchased their graduation caps, while the girls are wearing their green and old rose silk ribbon streamers. An effort is being made to have uniformity of style in the dress of the graduating class.

The pupils have elected their class officers, who are assisting in arranging an entertainment to be given in the new assembly hall of the school. The youngsters are co-operating with the class teacher, Miss Alice Stewart, who has already commenced preparations for the graduation program. Frank Devine is the class president and Gussie Frett is its secretary.

Thirty-six boys and girls will graduate from the Cole school in December. All the girls will wear dresses which they are now making in the classroom. Many of the smart little women are devoting their leisure time to fancy work, which they will place on the gowns.

SCHOOL GIRLS MAKE GRADUATION FROCKS

Pupils of the graduating classes of the local grammar schools are busily engaged nowadays in designing and sewing upon their graduation frocks. Hundreds of girls are embroidering, crocheting and hemstitching their dresses, which will be creations of simplicity.

The girls are applying the lessons learned in the domestic art course which provides for plain sewing. They are also using the machines in their work, but the greater part of their domestic art efforts is confined to the hand-work.

In the high sixth grade the girls are shown how to make the "seam slip," cooking apron, towel holders, outside garments, middy blouses, school dresses and kimonos.

In the high eighth grade the students are required to complete their graduating dress and various garments, which are worn with the outfit.

Advanced Music Taught Youth Is Good Cornetist

HAROLD WASHBURN.

In the musical course in the Oakland grammar schools, the children are being drilled in the chromatic scales, which they are also taught to write. Harold Washburn of Fruitvale is one of the youngest cornetists in the east bay region who has often been heard at school entertainments and private recitals. He reads music with ease and has acquired an appreciation of grand opera compositions.

In the graduating classes of the grammar schools, the voices are tested and emphasis is being placed upon the development of the individual voices. Special attention is being given to musical interpretation and the voices of the pupils are carefully trained.

There are now a number of quartets in the schools.

EMERYVILLE TO SEE BIG EXPOSITION RALLY

Emeryville will join in a big Panama-Pacific International rally tomorrow afternoon, October 28, at 3 o'clock, in the Heidelberg Nickelodeon on San Pablo avenue, where Louis Levy, chief of the department of local publicity, will illustrate his lecture on the Panama Canal and the Exposition with official stereopticon and moving pictures.

In addition Mrs. A. C. Posey, chairman of the Alameda County Woman's Auxiliary, and Miss Mollie Conners, vice-chairman, will address the meeting. The Emeryville section of the auxiliary forms one of the most live and enthusiastic branches of the organization. Its chairman, appointed by Mrs. Posey, is Mrs. J. S. Errery, the other officers being Mrs. W. H. Christy, vice-chairman; Mrs. M. J. Mayborn, treasurer; Mrs. Hersey, secretary. Sessions are held regularly with reports of rapidly increasing membership.

An event of last Friday in the Emeryville schools was a general taking up of contributions to swell the fund for the Pioneer Mother monument, soon to become a picturesque possession of the state.

TWINS AMONG WINNERS OF BABY SHOW PRIZES

From the 200 babies entered in the prize baby show held for the benefit of St. Patrick's Church yesterday afternoon, 30 received prizes, judged according to age. Dr. M. C. Purcell, Miss Beck and Miss McCormack were the committee acting as judges. The following children were successful candidates: Walter Garrick, Russeo Souch, Henry Lawlor, Robert Myers, Lillian M. Lyall, Joseph Judge, Dudley Manlove, Dorothy Quinn, Margaret O'Connor, Beverly Wade, Wellsley Forshey, Margaret Bowen, Leonard Pierotti, Cecelia Russe, M. M. OREGON EXHIBIT OPENS.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 27. — A throng which packed the available space in the Oregon National Guard armory and its temporary additions built for the occasion witnessed the ceremonies connected with the opening of the Oregon Manufacturers and Land Products show here last night. The exhibits are representative of the manufacturing and agriculture of the entire state, and the show will continue for three weeks. After an address of welcome by Mayor Albee and speeches by representatives of various commercial organizations, the wheels were set in motion and the show opened by the pressing of a button in the White House at Washington, D. C., by President Wilson. A congratulatory message from the President, just received by telegraph, was then read.

A NURSE TAKES DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blest with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot over estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADELIA STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ALL-BRITISH RUGGERS TO PLAY CALIFORNIANS NOVEMBER 21

Daily Budget of Football News From Schools and Colleges.

The California Rugy Union met last night at the Olympic Club and set the date of November 21 for the all-British-all-California game. Jack McKenzie, Barbarian Club commissioner, having charge of the British team, has named these men eligible. McNair, Cashel, Wiley, Bouiware, Carrol, Card, Garthwaite, Brown, Kelly, Erb, Murray, De LaMar, Higgins, Bates, Matheson, Sharpe, C. Slater and N. Slater. All of them are British-born. Johnnie Stroud, George Presley and Reverend Mullineaux will pick the California team.

As a curtain raiser to this game an all-star San Francisco High school team will meet a picked team from the Academy League.

The annual game between the Barbarians and the Olympic Club, scheduled for the 21st, was postponed, while a championship interclass club series between the Titans, Olympic and Barbarian Clubs was arranged.

Graduate Manager Stroud of U. C., and Wilcox of Stanford, met to decide on a referee, but they failed to make a selection.

The Barbarian Club team will be seriously handicapped through the loss of Captain "Cy" Davidson. "Cy" contracted blood poisoning, which bids fair to keep him out of the game for a long time.

Reports from Stanford have it that Frank Reeves' susceptibility to bruises will more than probably keep him out of the "big game." Templeton and Burns are two good men who could favorably fill the gap in the inter-collegiate contest.

The speed that Otto Lachmund, Stanford second five, is showing in getting down on the ball has earned him the sobriquet of "Howard Drew."

The California scrum is a powerful fighting aggregation. They are the very tingling essence of "pep." McKim, Cohen, Russel and Saunders are all whirlwind tearers and California backers are figuring on these boys to break down the Stanford line.

The Oakland High school team made a visit to the Davis State Farm, where they were defeated by the score of 13 to 3. The Davis "Farmers" treated the boys in a very hospitable manner and no words were sufficient to express the local lads' appreciation.

Frank Boek will more than probably be one of the men that will fill one of the two timekeeper positions for the big game. Frank is one of the best sports around the bay, and the question as to his integrity was never doubted.

After hearing Major Triton we would advise Yell Leader Ted Haley to sign this old gent as an assistant yell leader.

EMERYVILLE DEFEATS THE AMBROSE TAILORS.

EMERYVILLE, Oct. 26. — The crack Emeryville team defeated the Ambrose Tailors 2 to 1 in one of the best played games ever seen in Emeryville. The Tailors held the lead up till the ninth, when with one down Murphy singled over second, Drolette doubled, scoring Murphy with the tying run, Bennallack then purposely walked "Kitty" Knight, Jimmy Dunn hit sharply to the infield and Drolette was caught at the plate, "Loots" Bankhead singled to left, scoring "Kitty" Knight with the winning run.

Knight was in great form and with good support would never have been scored on. Bennallack was also pitching great ball. Emeryville will play "Spike" Hennessey's all-stars from San Francisco next Sunday.

The score:

LACK OF SALES WEAKENS WHEAT

Market Sags Early in Day and Fails to Rally at Close.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Wheat prices weakened today owing to absence of important speculative buying. After opening dull to 3c off, the market sagged all around and failed to recover with any spirit.

The bears made much of the fact that stocks in the United States are now 30,000,000 bushels more than at the corresponding time a year ago. The close was steady, 1@1½c under last night.

Cold weather gave an advantage to corn bears. The opening was ½c to 1c lower and was followed by a further moderate setback. Notwithstanding a fair demand from the seaboard, oats declined.

Closing quotations were as follows:
Wheat—December, $1.14⅝; May, $1.19¾.
Corn—December, 67⅝c; May, 70⅝c.
Oats—December, 49¼c; May, 52⅝c.
Pork—January, $18.77½; May, $19.05.
Lard—November, $10.47½; January, $9.55.
Ribs—October, $10.47½; January, $9.75.
Rye—No. 2, 94@94½c.
Barley—Cash, 58@70c.
Timothy—Cash, $4@5.50.
Cloves—Cash, $11@14.

A Message to Thin, Weak, Scrawny Folks

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point. Osgood Bros. drug store and other good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution:—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.

WIFE OF ACTOR SEEKS DIVORCE

Marjorie Rambeau Instructs Her Attorney to Start Suit.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—Following a hasty trip of the actor-author from Oakland to New York, rumored discord and threatened divorce, after Marjorie Rambeau, beautiful actress and wife of Willard Mack, the actor-author aforementioned, had located her husband in New York and joined him, and the two had started out with a play together—comes now the news that there has been a new split in the family and that Miss Rambeau has instructed her attorney to start a divorce suit. That Mack had, following business worries, become irritable, and that once, while under the influence of this irritation, he had been arrested, at the behest of his mother-in-law, in Salt Lake City and charged with breaking furniture, are among the stories told in explanation of the rumored suit for divorce.

The first signs of discord began to show shortly after the couple had filled an engagement at the Macdonough Theater in Oakland, where they starred in Mack's own plays. Following this Miss Rambeau went to Los Angeles and Mack to New York, and it was rumored that the two had separated. Later Mack's wife joined him in New York.

Miss Rambeau did not return here after the last separation, but has engaged other apartments in New York, and is declared to have wired her attorney, Stanley Visel, here, to start a divorce action. Visel refuses to discuss the case.

Close friends of the actress declare that a divorce was expected at the time Mack left for New York, but that mutual friends brought the couple together again. They then appeared in "Kick In," an elaboration of one of Mack's vaudeville sketches.

WEST SIDE MAY HAVE CLUBROOM

San Leandro Women Launch Movement to Provide Meeting Place.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 27.—The populous district west of San Leandro bridge is without a meeting place where public or club gatherings may be held, and to remedy this condition a meeting of prominent clubwomen will be held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. M. Elmer. A social club will be formed, which will set about securing a meeting place which will be put at the convenience of residents in the annexed district who wish to hold public or club meetings.

Many of the residents are interested in the scheme, which is likely to be carried through successfully. Several places have been mentioned as suitable for such a purpose, including a large private residence which is about to be vacated and which, it is thought, would make an excellent club headquarters. While there are a number of improvement organizations in Broadmoor, they have been in the custom of holding their meetings at residences, and it is felt that properly equipped clubrooms would be a boon.

All the public meeting places in San Leandro, with the exception of the annexed public school, where the Broadmoor Mothers' Club has lately been meeting, are situated in the center of the town, at a considerable distance from Broadmoor.

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD FOR OLDEST RESIDENT.

HAYWARD, Oct. 27. — The funeral took place yestedday afternoon of Mrs. Catherine M. Larkin, one of the oldest residents in the state, who died at the home of a daughter in Dutch Flat, Placer county, Saturday. Mrs. Larkin, who was 92 years of age, formerly resided in this city, where she was well known. She leaves a family of several sons and daughters, including Mrs. Charles W. Heyer, wife of Mayor Heyer of this city. Funeral services were conducted at the home of Mrs. Heyer by Rev. B. D. Nalor. Interment was in Lone Tree Cemetery.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR LATE PROF. W. VOGT

HAYWARD, Oct. 27.—Funeral services were held here this morning for Professor William Vogt, a veteran musician, who died here suddenly Saturday afternoon. Rev. B. D. Naylor of the Congregational Church conducted the service at the undertaking parlors of Alter & Pratt. The funeral was from there to Oakland, where the remains were cremated.

Professor Vogt had resided here for 20 years and gave music lectures. Before coming here he was one of the heads of a large piano manufacturing firm in the East.

STREET WORK RUSHED.

FRUITVALE, Oct. 27.—Work in the paving of East Fourteenth street in the Fruitvale district is being rushed, in order that it will be completed before the winter rains. The south side of the street is almost completed, and the concrete foundation has been laid on the last stretch on this side of the roadway. On the north side the road has been ploughed up and prepared for concreting for a considerable length.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

ELMHURST, Oct. 27.—Elmhurst Rebekah Lodge has completed preparations for a Hallowe'en whist tournament and dance, which will be given Saturday evening in Redmen's Hall. Substantial prizes will be awarded in the tournament. On the arrangements committee are: C. N. Cooper, C. A. Wallace, Emmet Hazlett, A. Bender, Mrs. Lena Bowman, Miss Arlene Shaw, Miss Laura Finlay and Mrs. J. L. Bundock.

TO CONSIDER AMENDMENTS.

FRUITVALE, Oct. 27.—Talks on the amendments will be given at a meeting of the Council of Women's Clubs East of Lake Merritt in the Fairlawn Hotel, Thursday afternoon. Among those who will address the gathering are Judge Aaron Turner, Dr. Carl Wolliser and Mrs. Elizabeth Rounsevell. Mrs. C. Buergermeister, president of the council, will preside.

CIVIC CENTER MEETS.

MELROSE, Oct. 27.—The Melrose Civic Center held a meeting at the home of Mrs. A. C. Christensen this afternoon, in order to hear an explanation of the election amendments by Attorney Herman Walker of Berkeley. Walker was unable to finish his talk on the amendments at a previous meeting of the center and a special meeting was called, over which Mrs. Christensen presided.

TWO INQUESTS HELD.

HAYWARD, Oct. 27.—Inquests were held yesterday morning at the office of Deputy Coroner Sorensen into the deaths of Daniel Kettleson of Oakland, who shot himself with a revolver here last week, and Martin Swanson, a local rancher, who was found hanging in his barn. Verdicts of suicide were returned in each case.

PLAN WHIST TOURNAMENT.

FRUITVALE, Oct. 27.—Fruitvale Parlor No. 177 of Native Daughters will give a Hallowe'en whist tournament in Pythian Castle Thursday evening. A committee consisting of Mrs. Frank Dearborn, Mrs. G. S. Borba and Mrs. J. L. Bundock is preparing to entertain a large company of the members of the parlor and their friends.

U. P. E. C. INITIATES.

MELROSE, Oct. 27. — Several new members were initiated into the U. P. E. C. Lodge of Melrose last night, a full turnout of the lodgemen witnessing the ceremony. The Melrose lodge of the order is one of the strongest in point of membership in the east bay communities.

HAPPY OVER TWINS.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 27. — Mr. and Mrs. John Vieira are receiving congratulations over the arrival of twin sons at their home on Sunday. Mother and boys are reported doing well.

MONTHLY TEA PARTY.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 27.—The monthly tea party held by the women of the Methodist Church will be given on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. Z. Jones on East Fourteenth street.

RECORD WHEAT PRICE.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 27.—Club wheat sold in Seattle today at $1.11 per bushel, or $1 to the farmer, the highest price ever paid on this market for the export trade. The high level in August was 13 cents under this figure. Local grain buyers say that purchasers for the United Kingdom, to whom the wheat will go, were not particular as to the price, but only as to how much wheat could be supplied. The normal export basis is 70 to 80 cents and buyers usually cease operations when the market reaches the top figure. Germany has not yet appeared in operations on the North Pacific.

SHACKLETON STARTS TRIP.

BUENOS AYRES, Oct. 27.—The British Antarctic expedition headed by Lieutenant Sir Ernest H. Shackleton departed southward yesterday.

Monster Vegetables Are Exhibited From Hayward Gardens

HAYWARD, Oct. 27.—Vegetables of giant proportians have cropped up in many of Hayward's gardens this season and the gardeners are kept busy bringing them into the chamber of commerce exhibit room. Among the abnormally large exhibits are a six-and-a-half-foot leek, grown in the garden of Franklin Griffith, cornstalks nearly eleven feet high from the Meek estate, a monster sunflower with a head a foot and a half in diameter sent in by N. W. Armstrong, beets weighing 30 pounds from Harold Meek and potatoes each of which would dine a family, grown by A. J. Geandrot.

The big vegetables have astonished visitors to the chamber of commerce and Secretary J. E. Welsh of the Farm Bureau takes advantage of the opportunity to explain how Hayward farmers do things on a big scale.

WOMAN IS FOUND HURT AT ROADSIDE

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Mae Madaria is recovering from injuries incurred when she was thrown from her buggy on the Niles road about a mile east of Hayward on Thursday evening. Mrs. Madaria was driving home at night from her Decoto ranch to San Leandro, and in turning to one side of the road, on which repairs were being made, one of the wheels of the buggy caught in the guy wire of a telegraph pole, overturning the vehicle. She was thrown to the ground, severely wrenching her knee.

Two automobilists found Mrs. Madaria dazed and informed her brother, who brought her into San Leandro. She will be under medical care for some time.

SAN LEANDRO WOMEN HAVE EXPOSITION DAY

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 27.—Exposition Day was celebrated by the Alta Mira Club yesterday afternoon with a literary and musical program. Mrs. L. Lynch was chairman of the afternoon. Addresses on the Exposition were made by Mrs. F. G. Sanborn, chairman of the Women's Auxiliary Board of the Exposition; W. G. Eggilbert, an Exposition official, and Mrs. A. C. Posey, chairman of the Alameda County Women's Auxiliary. Vocal selections were given by Mrs. A. J. Loeser. The intention of the club in holding the meeting was to arouse further interest in this district in the work of the Exposition organizations. One of its beneficial results was to bring a number of new members into the San Leandro branch of the Alameda County Auxiliary, of which Mrs. L. T. Langworthy is chairman.

GHOSTS IN CHURCH.

ELMHURST, Oct. 27.—Pseudo ghosts, goblins and witches will make their habitat in the Elmhurst Baptist Church Thursday night on the occasion of a Hallowe'en party, to be held by the church women. Guests have been requested to don sheets and other articles of family linen in order to look as spectral as possible. There will also be a number of goblins. Mrs. G. L. Peabody, president of the church women's organization, heads the arrangement committee.

DEATH VISITS HAYWARD.

HAYWARD, Oct. 27.—Many families in this city have been plunged into mourning during the past week, no fewer than nine deaths being recorded in a short time. The death rate this month in Hayward is the highest in more than a year. Most of those who have passed away were well up in years, and in several cases were pioneers of the city region.

ITALIAN BASEBALL.

HAYWARD, Oct. 27.—A joint committee composed of members of Cypress Camp, Woodmen of the World, of this city, and old Orchard Camp of San Lorenzo will be here Wednesday evening to fix up a game between the Italian baseball teams of the two camps. Italian baseball was introduced into this district by Cypress Camp. Their lead was followed by Old Orchard Camp.

WOMEN ENTERTAIN.

MELROSE, Oct. 27.—The Hillside group of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Fitchburg Congregational Church held a social affair recently at the home of Mrs. A. Rogers on Sixty-ninth avenue. Home pies and cakes baked by the church women furnished the refreshments. Among those who arranged the affair were Mrs. Charles Chandler and Mrs. R. Darling.

YOUTH LAID TO REST.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 27.—The funeral took place this morning of George Phillips, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips of Davis street, who died Sunday. Complications following a cold caused his death.

CALIFORNIA PURCHASES TELEPHONE HOLDINGS

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 27.—F. H. Crosby of San Francisco yesterday purchased the stocks and bonds of the Northwestern Long Distance Telephone Company, representing the holdings of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, for $360,000. The sale was officially approved by Judge Bean in the Federal Court.

This marks the end of the government's anti-trust suit, waged for several months against the Bell companies in the Pacific Northwest, and fulfills a decree entered by Judge Bean, March 26 last, dissolving the merger and ordering the Bell Companies to sell their holdings at Spokane and their Northwestern long distance properties in Oregon and Washington.

The properties included lie on the east and west sides of the Willamette valley, extending from Corvallis on the south, through Portland and southwestern Washington to Tacoma and Seattle on the north.

ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS FOR ALL PAIN

"The efficiency of any drug" says Dr. C.P. Robbins, "is known to us by the results we obtain from its use. If we are able to control pain and disease by means of any preparation, we certainly are warranted in its use. One of the principal symptoms of all diseases is pain, and this is what the patient most often applies to us for, i. e. something to relieve his pain. If we can arrest this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust in us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-kamnia Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I have put them to the test on many occasions, and have never been disappointed. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. Anti-kamnia Tablets are also excellent for the headaches from improper digestion; also for headaches of a neuralgic origin, and especially for women subject to pains at certain times. Two Anti-kamnia Tablets give prompt relief, and in a short time the patient is able to go about as usual." These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for headaches, neuralgia and all pains
